So much of the eighth section of the Act of the Legislature of the Province of New Brunswick, passed in the eighteenth year of Her Majesty's reign, chapter forty, intituled "An Act to establish a Board of Health in the City and County of St. John," as authorizes the Board of Health for the City and County of St. John to regulate or prohibit the ingress of vessels to any port or place within the district under its jurisdiction.

The tenth section of the said last mentioned Act, save and except so much thereof as enacts that any dangerous or offensive matter or thing may be destroyed by order of the Board of Health.

The fourth section of the Act of the Legislature of the Province of New Brunswick passed in the twenty-first year of Her Majesty's reign, chapter fifty-one, intituled "An Act to amend and continue an Act intituled An Act to establish a Board of Health in the City and County of St. John," and so much of the Act of the said Legislature passed in the twenty-fourth year of Her Majesty's Reign, chapter twenty-six, and of the Act of the said Legislature passed in the twenty-sixth year of Her Majesty's Reign, chapter twenty-nine as continues the said section and causes the same to be and remain in force.

27. In citing this Act, it shall be sufficient to call it the "Quarantine and Health Act of 1868."

[illegible] Keeper of the Laws of the Dominion of Canada, I do hereby certify the foregoing to be a true copy of the original enactment now in my possession which received the Royal Assent on Friday the twenty-second day of May one thousand eight hundred and sixty eight.

[illegible] of the Senate of Canada
