THE CHURCH IN WALES.

A Resolution in Favor of Disestablishment Rejected.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—In the House of Commons last evening Mr. Morgan's resolution in favor of disestablishment of the church in Wales was rejected by a vote of 235 to 203. The announcement of the large vote in its favor was greeted with loud Opposition cheers.

Mr. Gladstone appeared in the crowded House carefully dressed and wearing a flower in the buttonhole of his coat. He listened with attention to the opening speeches. Then himself rising, he said: "I could not have spoken on this question half a century ago as I am about to speak now. Then the administration of the Established Church in Wales was in many ways feeble and open to heavy censure. Now the case is different. It might be asked why interfere if the church were active and progressive and the Nonconformists contented. But the latter were not contented and the question was whether they were entitled to be discontented. They were making indistinct terms, with a voice very audible—indeed, a demand he felt it to be his duty to listen to and which he was convinced before long the House would be compelled and disposed to listen to. (Cheers.) He did not think the Welsh people were disposed to make inconvenient claims on account of nationality, but he believed they had the right to insist upon the British Parliament paying due regard to such claims as they were warranted in making. He said on the question of the justice of the demand he had not said it was a repetition the case of the Church of Ireland, but it was so. The two vital determining points of the Church of Wales were that it was the church of the few and the church of the rich. Looking at their numerical preponderance and their distribution in respect to the various classes of society, it was not far from truth to say that the Nonconformists of Wales were the people of Wales. Nobody could doubt that they would again speak as decisively as in 1886, when out of 30 members 27 were pledged in favor of disestablishment. Such a voice could not be much longer contravened by English votes.

Sir George Trevelyan supported the resolution. The feeling in favor of disestablishment was growing rapidly and kept alive by the only persecution now possible, namely, favor and partiality shown by the law to creed as against creed, a favor which he trusted would receive its death blow.

Solicitor-General Clark having briefly replied, the House divided, with the result already announced.

Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, Sir Henry James and a few other Unionists voted with the minority, otherwise the division was on party lines. Lord Randolph Churchill supporting the Government.

COMBINES VS. PEOPLE.

Some of the Alleged "Luxuries" That Canadians Use.

Enormous Tribute Paid Jointly to the Combines and the Government.

Here are a few specimen taxes imposed on Canadians at the present time:

Rice—75 per cent.

Molasses and Syrup—1 cent per pound and 30 per cent. Actual duty, 75 to 100 per cent.

Sugar—Price of white sugar in Liverpool, 2½ cents per pound; duty, 1½ cents per pound, and 35 per cent. and 7½ per cent.; in all 99½ per cent.

One dollar's worth of sugar will cost the workingman of London $1 99½.

AN ACTUAL EXAMPLE.

In June, 1890, 86 bags yellow sugar costing 10s 6d per 112 pounds in England, amounting to £91 3s 9d .or..... $443 75

Duty on same, 19,264 pounds, at 1½ cent per pound	$288 96
35 per cent. on cost ($443 75)	155 40
7½ per cent. on duty (443 75)	33 32
Total duty	$477 68

Over 105 per cent.

This kind of sugar is used by workingmen and farmers, and is what the present Government try to make you believe is a luxury.

Blankets, 10 cents per pound and 20 per cent. or 60 to 80 per cent.

Wall paper, 100 to 160 per cent.

The above are a few of the reasons why times are dull. The actual necessities of life cost you twice their value.

FIERCE FIGHTING IN EGYPT.

Battle Between Government Troops and Osman Digna's Men—Nearly 1,000 Lives Lost.

AFAFITE, Egypt, via Suakim, Feb. 21.—A severe engagement was fought at Tokar on Feb. 19 between the Egyptian troops, who recently left El-Teb, and Osman Digna's forces. Nearly 1,000 lives were lost. The Egyptians made their advance from Afafite during the early dawn of morning, and pushed forward through the brushwood surrounding Tokar and its neighborhood. The Dervishes saw the object of the Egyptian advance, and a compact mass of Arab riflemen poured a hot fire into the ranks of the advancing Egyptians. The latter, however, returned the Arab's fire, fixed bayonets when within easy distance of the enemy and bravely charged upon them. For over an hour a desperate hand-to-hand bayonet, spear and sword fight followed, during which the Egyptian troops fought with the most determined bravery. Finally, the Egyptian cavalry made a brilliant charge upon the Dervishes, who retired in disorder, suffering a crushing defeat. The Dervishes numbered at least 2,000 fighting men. About an equal force of Egyptians were engaged. After the retreat of the Dervishes the troops found over 700 dead around the position mentioned, while large numbers of dead were lying in the ditches around the buildings.

COST OF GOVERNMENT IN CANADA.

For the year ending June 30, 1868, being the first year under Confederation, the expenditure on account of consolidated fund was $13,486,093.

For the year ending June 30, 1874, the first under Mr. Mackenzie's administration, the expenditure was $23,316,316, being less than the estimates voted under Conservative rule.

For the year ending June 30, 1878, the last for which Mr. Mackenzie's administration was responsible, the expenditure was $23,503,158.

For the year ending June 30, 1890, the expenditure was $35,994,031.

During their first period the Conservatives increased the yearly expenditure by $9,830,223, and during the second period they have increased it by a further sum of of $12,490,873. During the Reform period the increase of yearly expenditure was only $186,842.

The public expenditure of the United States in 1845, when the population of that country was 20,000,000, was $23,000,000.

In Canada in 1890, with a population of 5,000,000 the expenditure was $36,000,000.

Expenditure of Canadian Government in 1890, with a population of 5,000,000.....$36,000,000
