ONE PRICE ONLY,

The above principle is carried into practice at the business carried on under the Molsons Bank and Ontario Loan Company's building, west corner Market Lane.

This policy has made business boom with us during the past two months.

Value in footwear at 100 cents on the dollar is what we are giving, and the public appreciate our efforts to give customers the best value in the market. We do not advertise in coupon books and have two prices on our goods, charging our customers an extra 5 per cent. to pay for our speculation, and we do not ask $1 25 for goods that can be sold for $1.

THE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS.

Closing Sessions—Cleveland the Next Meeting Place.

NEW YORK, July 9.—Missionary morning, as the third day's session of the Christian Endeavor is called, opened at 6:30 with a prayer meeting conducted by E. S. Miller, of Portland, Oregon, president of the Oregon Christian Endeavor Union. At 9 o'clock the large hall was again filled with delegates. The regular order of singing and prayer and Bible reading was pursued. Rev. Josiah Strong, secretary of the Evangelical Alliance, addressed meeting on "Our own country for Christians."

The nominating committee of the convention reported the nominations of vice-presidents of the international society for the ensuing year. It was decided to honor Cleveland is the next place of meeting in 1894. Loud cheering followed, and the whole Cleveland contingents started up their rally song "Cleveland '94," to the tune of "Bring in the Sheaves." The Denver and San Francisco delegates joined in the chorus.

The meeting was concluded by a duet entitled "We Shall Meet Beyond the River," with echo by the choir of 500 and from different parts of the hall. Dr. Noble, of Chicago, closed with prayer.

NEW YORK, July 10.—To-day's morning session in Madison Square Garden consisted of a prayer meeting coducted by H. E. Pennell, of Boston. The rest of the morning was spent in attending regular divine services throughout the different churches of this city. About 15,000 delegates filled the garden in the afternoon. G. F. Ferguson, of Toronto, reported for the Social Committee.

Ira D. Sankey addressed the meeting on "Christian Endeavor in England." An address on "Gospel Temperance" was given by John J. Woolley, of Rest Island, Minn., followed by singing, and a paper, "Among the Northwest Indians," by E. R. Young, Toronto, Ont.

Madison Square Garden was crowded to-night—the final session of the Christian Endeavorers' convention—and many persons could not get standing room. The resolutions, besides expressing words of praise for the officers and societies, were such as to show the stand taken by the organization on the subjects important to religious bodies. Tremendous cheering greeted the reading of the resolution touching the close of the World's Fair on Sunday.

Rev. P. S. Rose, president of the Montreal Christian Endeavor Union delivered a lengthy address in closing. President Clarke took occasion to congratulate the convention upon the harmony which had marked each meeting. The convention services were a fitting close to the convention.
