CUBAN REBELS AT IT AGAIN.

Outposts at Havana Attacked and the Suburbs Ravaged.

New York, July 30.—The Herald's special from Havana says: "Havana's outposts have again been attacked by a large body of rebels, who, before the Spanish troops could be gathered to resist, had swept through the suburbs, carrying all before them. They used, it is believed, rapid firing guns and a large quantity of dynamite. The attack was made last night. To-day there is an inclination among the Spanish officials in Havana to deny the fact that rebels have evaded the forts and swept into Havana limits. The facts, however, remain, and the path left by the rebels through the suburbs southeast of the city may be plainly traced."
