THE WEATHER PROPHET.

TORONTO, May 14—11 p.m.—To-night the pressure is a little above average from the lake region to the gulf, and also in the Northwest Territories. The depression, which was near the Nova Scotian coast last night, has moved out to sea, and that which was west of Manitoba is now in Northern Minnesota, moving quickly east. The weather has been fair throughout the Dominion. Minimum and maximum temperatures: Battleford, 42°—66°; Qu'Appelle, 44°—66°; Winnipeg, 32°—76°; Toronto, 43°—57°; Montreal, 48°—62°; Quebec, 40°—60°; Halifax, 42°—68°.

Local temperatures—Highest, 68°; lowest, 49°.

TO-DAY'S PROBABILITIES.

TORONTO, May 15—1 a.m.—The indications for the next 24 hours for the lower lakes region (covering the peninsula and as far east as Belleville) are: Fair and moderately warm during the day, followed by cooler northerly winds and some showers at night or early Saturday.

—Warm days and cool nights are in order now.

—John McKay, South London, has gone to Manitoba.

—M. Mountjoy, of San Antonio, Texas, is visiting in the city.

—Captain Foster's steamer Thames is being fitted up at the Dundas street dock.

—Dr. Leonard, U. S. consul, will conduct the services at Union the Congregational Church for the next month.

—The late Deputy Reeve Thomas Wyatt, of East Williams, whose remains were buried Tuesday, was a cousin of Ald. Wyatt, of this city.

—It is not very hard to go trout fishing, but it is extremely difficult for a conscientious man to fish up to the promises that he makes to his friends before he starts.

—Several good-sized sturgeon have lately been caught down the river near Delaware. Nothing larger than the festive perch have honored London fishermen with their attentions.

—The household effects of Rev. G. T. Carr will be sold by auction to-day, and he will leave on Saturday for Chicago. He will preach on Sunday in Sarnia and lecture there Monday. Mrs. Carr will remain in the city for a short time.

—The inquest on the body of the infa[illegible] found on the river bank on Friday by W[illegible] Beaton, teamster, was resumed beto[illegible] Coroner Flock Wednesday. A verdict w[illegible] rendered as follows. "The body was th[illegible] of a full time, newly-born female child, an[illegible] from circumstances connected with th[illegible] affair the jury are under the impressio[illegible] that there was some foul play in connectio[illegible] with the birth of the child."

—Lawyer J. Farley, of St. Thomas, was in the city yesterday.

—They have formed an anti-treating society in London, Ont. It's a good move.—[Duluth Tribune.

—The plan is filling rapidly for "Queen Esther" cantata to be presented to-morrow evening at the Grand.

—The contract for the Collegiate Institute uniforms has been awarded to Messrs. Burns, the clothiers, of this city.

—There is but one way of obtaining business—publicity; but one way of obtaining publicity—advertising.—[Blackwood.

—The "Gathering of the Clans" at the Grand Opera House was again a success and was the last of the performances. The entire company will go to St. Thomas tomorrow night.

—Large crowds from all parts of Western Ontario are expected to attend the great Sons of England demonstration in this city on May 25. Reduced rates are being offered by all the railways.

—"I think that a little concerted actio[illegible] would induce the City Council to get th[illegible] center of Queen's Park ring leveled up an[illegible] improved," said an admirer of athleti[illegible] sports yesterday. "We would then hav[illegible] recreation grounds equal to any in th[illegible] entire country."

—Jessie Willis, an old woman, was before the police magistrate yesterday, charged with trespassing on the G. T. R. She was discharged on Tuesday for drunkenness, and without money or ticket boarded a train going west, but was stopped at Komoka and sent back to this city. She was allowed to go again.

—A 16-year-old girl named Jessie O'Toole had Joseph Kelly before the police magistrate yesterday, charged with assault. The plaintiff said that she and a girl companion were walking accross Victoria Park Tuesday about noon, and were laughing as Kelly and another passed them. The defendant accused her of laughing at him, and this led to words. Kelly then kicked her in the side, also slapping her face. Magistrate Parke imposed a fine of $10 or one month. Kelly complains that the girl is a source of constant annoyance to him.

—A well-known citizen living on Wolfe street secured all the doors of his house Wednesday as usual and retired. This morning his servant girl and the citizen's small son were found to have spent the night locked in the cellar. They had been doing some work in the laundry and were innocently fastened in by the head of the household. They crawled out through the cellar window two or three times during the night and tried to awaken the family by ringing the door bell, but they finally had to retire to the cellar again and spent the night in sleeplessness and indignation.

—A pleasing event took place at the residence of Mr. Richard Adcock, 713 Richmond street, Wednesday, being the marriage of his eldest daughter Agnes to Mr. Richard Bickley, of Westminster. Rev. Archdeacon Marsh tied the knot that made them man and wife. Miss Annie Adcock and Mr. Peters supported the bride and groom. After the ceremony the guests were invited to partake of a nicely-prepared wedding supper, only the immediate friends of the family being present. The many costly presents testified to the high esteem of the bride's numerous friends.

School Board Finances.

At the meeting of the Finance Committee of the Board of Education held last evening at the City Hall the question of exhibiting school supplies and work at the International Teachers' Convention in Toronto was referred to the inspector. Kindergarten assistants will hereafter be made to attend to their duties more closely than heretofore. The raise in salary asked by R. Graham was refused, while Mr. Andrews and Miss Hanson, of the Collegiate Institute, were each given $100 increase. The promotion of Miss Yates to the position vacated by Miss Coyne was decided on. Requests of the following for more pay were laid over: Messrs. McQueen, Learn, Wright, Althouse, Misses Yates, Pitcher, Coyne and Geeson. Applications for positions as kindergarten assistants were handed over to the inspector, with power to place Misses Dennis and Gore. Miss Jeffery was appointed to a vacancy in Waterloo street north school. Owing to the illness of Mr. Somerville, of the Collegiate, Miss Wilson, of Toronto, will temporarily fill his position. Accounts were passed and a few other minor matters attended to, subject, of course, to the approval of the Board. Trustees Yates (chairman), Jeffery, Durdin, Stephenson, McElheran, Allaster, Dewar, McRobert and Vining were present.

What Funny Things We See.

The person who chews gum.

The comic dances at the "Gathering of the Clans."

The alleged poet reciting to his friends.

The number of men who get down to work before 8 o'clock now that early morning street car tickets are ten for a quarter.

The way a bibulous beggar, who says he is hungry, receives food instead of cash.

The man who starts out in the morning wearing an overcoat and returns in the evening swinging a palm-leaf fan.

The look of the man who puts his umbrella in a corner before lunch and does not find it after the food has been eaten.

The patent leather shoes which a porter on a sleeping car has polished with blacking.

The way some mothers have of failing to see their children's faults—when referred to by any but themselves.

The musical expressions momentarily used by the young person who has taken lessons on the piano for a week or two.

The man who scatters hand bills on the pavement, but does not advertise in a newspaper, which talks to every member of the family.

The sandwich sign man who forms one of the crowd at the windows of the man who thrives owing to newspaper advertising.

The man who knows that London is the brightest and prettiest city in Canada, yet does not say so.

In Affectionate Remembrance.

The magnificent demonstration in honor of Wor. Bro. Ford, the master of St. John's Lodge, No. 20, A. F. and A. M., in which he was the recipient of several tokens of esteem from the the brethren, has been fitly supplemented by the worthy master himself. As Wor. Bro. Ford leaves to make his home in New York, he has presented the members of his lodge with an elegantly-framed portrait of himself in full Masonic regalia, for which, on the motion of Bro. John Smith, S. W., he received the warmest thanks of the brethren. Wor. Bro. Ford, who has been a resident of London for 21 years, leaves many warm friends in London, and in no circle more than in the Masonic Order. No d[illegible] will soon take high rank in h[illegible]

Baptist Church Reopening in Lobo.

The First Baptist Church, Lobo, which has been closed during the last few weeks for repairs, was reopened last Sunday. It now looks beautiful and is inspiring to both pastor and people. Rev. J. B. Kennedy, B.A., of Norwich, preached two able and eloquent sermons to large and appreciative congregations. His morning text was II. Chronicles, xxix., 30; and evening text, Isaiah, lx., 11. In the afternoon Rev. J. M. Smith, of Poplar Hill, preached an able sermon from Matthew, xiii., 33. On the following evening an entertainment was held in the church, at which music was furnished by the Strathroy Baptist Church, Miss L. Tuckey and Mrs. G. Edwards. The church feels deeply grateful to the members of the Strathroy choir for the very excellent music they provided. Short, spicy speeches were delivered by Revs. J. M. Smith, J. B. Kennedy, P. K. Dayfoot, H. C. Speller and A. P. Kennedy, pastor of the church. The opening services and the entertainment were to the satisfaction of all.

St. Patrick's Ward.

A wealthy citizen of St. Patrick's Ward, Queen street west, Toronto, Ont., writes as follows: "St. Jacobs Oil is certainly a very efficacious remedy, as it cured me of a severe burn on the hand, after other remedies had failed to relieve me, and it has been used by other members of my family with very good effects." THOMAS MURRAY.

"When does a man discover that his wife is hard to please?" When he brings the first of his bachelor day friends to the house for dinner.
