Sammy Smith had ample revenge for the unkind things the umpire did to him Wednesday, handing a beautiful beating to Naughty Lee's Kolts yesterday afternoon at Tecumseh Park. The Londoners walloped home, with the score 9 to 1 in their favor. About 500 fans enjoyed the pastiming to the limit, as it gave the home folks the first real opportunity to cheer lustily this week.

About all there was to the game was Sammy. The big boy had a rare assortment of curves, and great control. He had his salivated slant working like a bit of greased machinery, and he rarely was in danger. It was about as impressive a bit of twirling as has been seen here in many moons. The big boy pitched shut-out ball, and only the worst kind of luck prevented him decorating the visitors with the order of the white wings. An unfortunate error by Bierbauer on a nasty bounder, paved the way for a tally, marring an otherwise perfect record. However, Sammy was there, and did some swell heaving. In the ninth inning, just to show the gallery some regular steam roller work, he disposed of three Hamilton hitters on strikes.

Sammy Some Hitter.

Sammy broke into the picture from the offensive point of view also. Once he laid down a perfect sacrifice, but some bad heaving followed, allowing a run to ooze across. He followed this up with a base knock that scored a run. According to statisticians this is the first healthy wallop Sammy has had credited to him since Cain struck out Abel. Then came the climax—he actually stole third. This is some feat, believe us, and when the visitors saw him do this trick they almost collapsed. Sammy just did this to show his versatility.

However, there were eight other gentlemen in the doings, from a London point of view. The team for the first time in some days showed consecutive hitting, that was a delight. It was a field day for Hynes, who played left field. Long Tom had four healthy hits on five times up—some binging. Reske played the most sensational game since coming to the city. He caught Smith perfectly, and his pegging to second was certainly some treat. He had three knocks, two of them for two stations. Bierbauer, at first, got in the limelight, making some great stops, and hit like a veteran. He had the only error credited to the local outfit, but his brilliant fielding and batting atoned for any misplay he made. Andrews was great. He was always handy with the bat that counted, and fielded cleverly. Hynes fielded well, while Brant and Nichols handled the infield in fancy fashion. Jo-Jo and Pancratz did all that was required of them.

Hams Fail to Bat.

Hamilton was shy on the bingle, and also played a somewhat ordinary game in the field. Keating, a nice-looking lad, did the trundling, and he was comparatively easy. He was nicked often, and seemed to have little but a smile. Carey and Rose made some catches in the outfield that were some class, believe us.

The visitors scored their only run in the second inning. Grieves hit a bad bounder to Bierbauer, who played it badly, allowing it to go through his legs. Killilea sacrificed him to second, and he was rescued by Carey's base knock to centre. After that, Barton and Kolseth got as far as second, but were anchored. Keating made a fine drive to left, but failed to touch second base and was called out. It was an easy two-base drive.

The Scoring.

London started scoring in the third, Keeman hit for two sacks, Bierbauer laid down a perfect bunt, beating the throw. He stole second, and both scored on Reske's two-base drive to left. Barton let a pitch get away from him, and Reske scored when Barton tossed the ball to left field to get him.

Another was added in the fourth, three in the fifth and one in the seventh and eighth.

It was a great game, and the team looks 100 per cent better than it has any time this year. With fair pitching it is more than good, and with good pitching the bunch will be hard to beat.

HADLEY TOO MUCH FOR MAPLE LEAFS

Brantford Twirler in Great Form—Holds Visitors to 5 Hits, All of Scratchiest Variety.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Brantford June 9—The Maple Leafs never had a look-in here today against the superb pitching of Hadley, who struck out twelve men and held the visitors to five hits, all of which were of the scratchy in-field order. Only two balls were batted to the outfield off Hadley's delivery, and these were flies gathered in easily. Hadley's pitching was a shade better than that shown by Orth here on Wednesday, in that the Brantford portsider allowed only one base on balls and was never in difficulties. In the seventh inning Guelph scored one on Jeffries and McWhirter's scratch hits, being advanced by infield outs.

Harvey Muir lasted four innings against the Red Sox. A single by Duffy, Kane's double and Barry's liner to centre, scored two. Orcutt sacrificed, and Harrison scored Barry. Mason was called in, and a hit, a sacrifice, followed by two more singles, drove two more in.

Brantford will pitch Joe Jerger against the Leafs at Guelph today.

FLYING DUTCHMEN ARE TOO MUCH FOR SAINTS

Tracey Is in Great Form, Shutting Chawser's Crew Out and Allowing but Five Hits.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

St. Thomas, June 8.—The Flying Dutchmen were too much for the Saints, handing them a lovely coat of kalsomine. The final score was 4 to 0, and Chaucer Elliott's bunch never had a chance.

Tracey, Deneau's best bet, was in great form, allowing but five hits. They were scattered as widely as the ten tribes of Israel, and did no damage. One man reached third base, and he died there.

Howick pitched a fair game, but some slow fielding on hints made easy outs go for hits. There was some brilliant fielding, the game being the best of the season. The score:

OVERTIME STRUGGLES IN EASTERN LEAGUE

Skeeters Take Ten Innings to Win, While Baltimore Needs Twelve to Scratch Out Victory.

Providence, June 8.—Jersey City took the first of the series this afternoon in a loosely-played game of ten innings from the locals, the score standing 6 to 4. Errors were responsible for all the Jersey City runs, except the home run of Dolan, which Elston misjudged badly on an ordinary drive. Dumb playing was mixed with the errors. Bartley was batted off the mound in the ninth after pitching a splendid game up to the eighth. The Providence pitchers worked well, but received miserable support. Score:

SILVER JOE THIRD AT CHATHAM RACES

Dan McEwan's Colt Cannot Carry Speed a Mile as Yet—Dr. Wood's Fair Hazel Fourth in Trot.

Chatham, June 8.—The third and final day of the Chatham races was brought to a close here today and proved to be the only day of the meeting that a record did not fall by the wayside, although fast time was made. Another large crowd was present and enjoyed the sport.

Canadian horses were conspicuous in four events, and managed to get a big share of the purses in two of the pacing events and the running race.

Lou Jean won the 2:15 pace in easy fashion from a good field, including Countess Marie, the Colorado mare, driven by Ramey Macey, who failed to get near the coin and was flagged in the last heat.

The 2:10 pace went to Bushnell King, the Toronto horse that made such a remarkable showing earlier in the season on the Toronto track. Ian Bars and St. Anthony both made him step to win.

Gertie T., the mare owned and driven by Jacob Fisher, of Lexington, Mich., after losing the first heat in the 2:18 trot, went out and won in easy fashion.

The best time of the day was 2:14¾, made by Lou Jean and Bushnell King. From here the campaigners go to Tillsonburg, where the circuit holds forth next week. The summaries:

WILL SETTLE PROTESTS

The executive of the East End league will hold a session tonight at 8:30 in the store of Secretary Simmons, 666 Dundas street, to finally dispose of the protests now in hand.

The games on Saturday promise to be good. In the first session the Ramblers and St. John's hook up, while the Jubilees and McClary's take the sunset session. All the teams are in good shape, and there should be some fun.

DAILY HISTORY OF BASEBALL

JUNE 9.

1881—The Buffalo Nationals defeated Boston, 1 to 0, in thirteen innings, Jim Galvin pitching against "Grasshopper Jim" Whitney, who held the Bisons to three hits. Not another thirteen-innings 1 to 0 game was played in the National League until nine seasons later.

1883—The Boston Nationals vanquished Detroit, 30 to 8, the pounded pitchers being Weldman and Mansell.

1890—The Brooklyn American Association Club played a championship game with Syracuse on the Polo Grounds, in New York, the switch from the Ridgewood Park being due to the fact that the grounds were hard to reach.

1890—First professional baseball game played in Montreal, the International League team of that city defeating Toronto, 11 to 10.

1893—In the Baltimore-Chicago National League game, the outfielders caught 23 fly balls.

1896—Ed McKean, of Cleveland, obtained four singles and a triple in the game with Philadelphia.

1899—Eustace J. ("Doc") Newton, of the Indianapolis American League Club, twirled a no-hit game against Milwaukee.

1901—The Giants made 25 runs and 31 hits, for a total of 39 bases, off three Cincinnati pitchers—Bill Phillips, Amos Rusie and Barney McFadden. "Kip" Selbach, now managing Harrisburg, led in the attack, garnering 4 singles and 2 doubles.

1906—The Philadelphia Nationals attempted to delay a game with Pittsburg, and Umpire Bill Klem, declaring it forfeited to the Pirates, was almost mobbed, and ever since has been persona non grata in Quakerdom.

1910—The Giants rallied in the ninth inning of the game with St. Louis, when the score was 4 to 0 against them, and made five runs of Pitcher Sallee.
