MILLIONS

Physicians Cornered!

I SUPPOSE there is not in the whole of a physician's experience, anything in human suffering which calls forth his sympathy, and pity, to such an extent, as to witness the excruciating pains of a poor mortal, suffering from that fearful disease,

RHEUMATISM!

Heretofore there has been a considerable diversity of opinion among medical men, as to the true character of this disease. Some locating it in the fibrous or muscular tissues of the system, and others viewing it as an acute nervous disease: but it is now generally admitted to be a disease arising from a poison circulating in the blood, and further it is admitted that Rheumatism can never be thoroughly cured without exterminating such poisonous matters from the blood, by a constitutional internal remedy. We feel confident that none will feel better satisfied, and rejoice more, than the conscientious physician, who has found out that a cure for this stubborn disease has been discovered. The following testimony from a gentleman of standing, and high respectability, and well known to the Canadian public, cannot fail to satisfy all that the

is a wonderful medical discovery.

MR. ISAACSON'S ENDORSATION.

MONTREAL, 21st March, 1874.

Messrs. DEVINS & BOLTON,

Dear Sirs,—I, with pleasure, concede to the agent's wish that I give my endorsation to the immediate relief I experienced from a few doses of the Diamond Rheumatic Cure, having been a sufferer from the effects of Rheumatism. I feel now, after taking two bottles of this medicine, entirely free from pain. You are at liberty to use this letter, if you deem it advisable to do so.

I am, sirs, yours respectfully,
JOHN HELDER ISAACSON, N. P.

FURTHER PROOF.

I AM ANOTHER MAN!

ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 29, 1874.

A. CHIPMAN SMITH,

Dear Sir,—I have suffered for fifteen months with Chronic Rheumatism, and could not find any relief, after trying every medicine that I saw advertised to cure it, until I was told about the Diamond Rheumatic Cure. I have used three bottles of this valuable remedy, and now can say that I am another man to what I was. I would advise anybody suffering with this terrible disease to to try it, and see if it does not do as the same for them that it did for me.

Yours,
JAMES L. BARNES,
Indiantown.

BARNES' HOTEL,
ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 29 1873.

A. CHIPMAN SMITH,

Dear Sir,—I have great pleasure in stating that I put every confidence in your Diamond Rheumatic Cure. I have suffered for the past two years with Rheumatic Pains, during which time I have had the advice of some of the most prominent medical men in the Province, and experienced no relief, until I tried the Diamond Rheumatic Cure. I have now taken three bottles, and I feel greatly improved, and now am confident of a permanent cure.

Yours truly,
JAMES O'BRIEN.

There is no medicine which so promptly relieves the depressed vital action, restores the general and local circulation, allays the pain, dissipates the congestion, prevents inflammation, and restores the healthy action as the

NOTES AND NEWS.

UNITED STATES.

Mrs. Vibbard suggested, in the Chicago Woman's Convention, that the danger of wearing corsets be obviated by the ladies having their husbands rub them after taking off the garments aforesaid. The idea is a good one. We have sent Mrs. Vibbard's husband a ream of sand-paper.

Mark Twain says that since he has become a Director in an accident insurance company, the Hartford, "accidents have assumed a kindlier aspect. I look upon a cripple just now with affectionate interest, as an advertisement. To me there is a charm about a railroad collision that is unspeakable."

GENERAL.

In view of the Arctic expedition about to be fitted out by the British Government, Lady Franklin has renewed her offer of a reward of $10,000 for the recovery of official records of Sir John Franklin's expedition.

If the old man will insist on taking a smoke after going to bed at night, the sooner the house is insured for twice its value the more complacent will be the feelings of the relatives who stand by when the firemen hunt among the ruins for his bones.

It is reported from Madrid that the Spanish Government has expressed a willingness to pay an indemnity in the Virginius case to the United States on the same basis as that with which Great Britain was satisfied for the outrage perpetrated on her subjects.

A popular clergyman says it is interesting to observe how many people go to the circus "just to please the children," and very curious to notice that sometimes it takes several able-bodied men and motherly women to look after one little boy or girl on such an occasion.

La Tribuna of Para, Brazil, contained an article in its issue Tuesday morning grossly insulting to the officers of the Portuguese corvette Sagres, which is there for the purpose of protecting the interests of the Portuguese subjects. The Tribuna subsequently issued a supplement inciting a revolt by the populace, who were already greatly excited in consequence of the arrival of the Sagres. The President of the Province has asked the Government for means to suppress riotous demonstrations. There are great fears of a general rising against all foreigners.

Some ten years ago Miss Mulock wrote a story for an English magazine, which was so good that it was copied in Harper's Monthly. It was forgotten in English society than it deserved, but a Frenchman kept his eye on it. Two or three years ago he translated it, changed the names, and appended his own signature to it. A reader of the Revue translated it from the French for Every Saturday, in which it was published with something of a flourish before the real origin of the story was discovered. It is a curious circumstance that another reader of the Revue in a New England city also translated it, with a change of names, and sent it to a Boston editor as an orignal story.

Editorial Office Seekers—From Blackadar to Brother Bill.

From the Borderer.

Nothing has disgraced journalism so much as the greed of office that has characterized many of its professors. No journal can exercise its legitimate influence on public opinion if a doubt exists as to its independence. When an editor holds an office under Government it is not possible for him to write impartially, as justice to his readers requires that he should, of the acts of that Government. No editor can serve two masters—the Ministry and the people—as God and mammon were never further apart than these two often are. To be a seeker for office is even more demoralizing than to be an office-holder, and we fear that several of the newspapers of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia have been kept silent on vital questions by the desire of their editors to get quartered on the public. What could disgrace journalism more than the acceptance of the Halifax Postmastership by Mr. Blackadar of the Recorder, and what a despicable position does that paper hold to-day! "I give you, my dear Blackadar, an office with a good salary and little to do, and I expect that your paper will work diligently in the interests of the Government, its candidates and its friends as long as you keep it," says the Premier as he hold the commission in his hands, and "I will be faithful," replies the editorial mendicant as he reaches for the document. An offer of office to an editor is an attempt to bribe the press, and the acceptance of such an offer is a selling out of the acceptor's journal. The Recorder is now a mere hired party hack, has ceased to be a ligetimate newspaper, and will have no influence whatever with the public. It will, in fact, sink into insignificance to be compared only with the Moncton Times, whose editor holds a snug office in the Inland Revenue service and is forced to suppress his convictions to save his salary. And then there are the cases of certain St. John papers. Look at them for examples of the demoralization of office seeking. The editor of the News is in the Government, and the News has sunk into a mere Government organ. The editor of the Telegraph has been dividing his time between trying to get into Parliament and trying to get office under the Government, and see how the paper is despised and its utterances regarded with suspicion. The Globe, which was once supposed to be the pattern of independence, has been debased by the office-grabbing propensities recently displayed by both of its proprietors. The Freeman is, of course, bound hand and foot by the official position held by Mr. Anglin. Even the Christian Visitor, has been sunk into a paid eulogist of the powers that be by the going abroad of good Brother Bill as an emigration agent. If journalism is to be restored to its former respectability there must be a cessation of editorial office-seeking.
