A TRIPLE MURDER

Tragedy at Sackett's Harbor, N. Y., Creates a Sensation—Two Women Dead in a Carriage.

Sackett's Harbor, N.Y., April 16.—A horrible crime was committed in the vicinity of Madison Barracks, where the 9th U.S. Infantry is stationed, some time last night. During the afternoon or evening, George Allen, a steward at the barracks, hired a horse and carriage and took two women out driving. One of his companions was a young lady, Miss Bailey, and the other a divorced woman, Mrs. Crouch. At 2.30 this morning, the horse came back to the livery stable, drawing the carriage, which first the liveryman believed was empty, but on going up to the rig he found the corpses of the two women in the bottom of it. He at once notified the authorities. About this time Allen came staggering into the barracks in a weakened condition and he, too, is expected to die. He has made an ante-mortem statement to the effect that Crouch, husband of the divorced woman, assaulted the whole party, murdered the two women and threw him (Allen) into a creek. Crouch is under arrest. Crouch formerly lived in Canada.

Allen Says Crouch Did It.

Watertown, N. Y., April 16.—As the day wore on suspicion pointed more and more toward Wilbur Crouch, as the murderer. Allen, the man who was with the two women, came back to the mess hall about 4.40, when he fainted, but not before saying: "Get the women out of the creek." He was wet from head to foot and showed signs of having been in the water. For some time it was impossible to get any statement from him, so low was his condition. Stimulants were given and, as soon as he was aroused, the following statement was given, but only in answer to questions, he saying that it hurt his throat to talk: "Crouch did it. It was done by the creek. Crouch grasped the reins of the right horse and I leaped out of the rig. I was struck by a lash and then shot. I tried to get out my revolver, but before I could do so was shot again. In getting out my revolver I accidentally shot myself in the throat. The women were shot and fell on top of me."

Shot Five Times.

Allen was asked how many times he shot and would hold up his hand with fingers outstretched, meaning that five bullets had pierced his body. After the shooting occurred Allen says he was driven a long distance by Crouch, and afterwards fell out of the buggy. He has now partly recovered, but grave fears are entertained for his recovery. Allen has been keeping company with Miss Daly, and it is said they were to be married tomorrow.

A coroner's jury was empanelled and rendered a verdict to the effect that the two women came to their death by bullet wounds believed to have been administered by Wilbur Crouch. Crouch has been arrested, and is in the county jail in Watertown.

TORONTO'S GREATEST TAILORING STORE.

WE EXCEL

In making Garments calculated to impress you with the fact that we are "Canada's Greatest Tailoring Store" in every sense of the word.

Nothing can show this clearer than the great and sweeping changes effected this last few years. When doing the old credit business we charged $28 and $30 for a Cheviot or Llama Overcoat, now we sell them for $22 and $24, which includes a corded silk facing.

In Genuine Scotch Tweed Suitings we have a variety of patterns and designs that cannot be matched for number, diversity or rich colorings on the continent—$20 and $22 50 is the price now for what formerly sold at $26 and $28.

We have vegetable-dyed Irish Serges, blue and black, price $23—and $30 was formerly paid for no better quality and workmanship.

Our cash system in buying and selling has effected this great reduction in prices.
