Redcoats at the Cape

Chamberlain Speaks of Tremendous Military Preparation

Made by the Transvaal Government on the Border.

No Liberty for Dreyfus—Another Success for Wireless Telegraphy—Mayor and Council Carry on Forgery in the Town Hall Cellar.

London, April 25.—In the House of Commons John Dillon, Nationalist member for county Mayo, called attention afresh to the large increase in the British force in the Cape, within a comparatively brief period—an increase which Mr. Balfour, when the matter was brought up last week, said was in no wise intended as a menace to the Transvaal. Mr. Chamberlain, secretary of state for the colonies, answering Mr. Dillon's interpellation, explained that the increase was due to the fact that the Transvaal Government had been making "tremendous military preparations" on the borders of Cape Colony. Henry Labouchere, Radical member for Northampton, reproached the colonial secretary with "following a defiant action by a defiant speech."

LADY SCOTT.

Lady Scott, wife of Sir Samuel Edward Scott, Conservative member of parliament for West Marylebone, and daughter of Earl Cadogan, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, who disappeared somewhat mysteriously while out shopping April 17, greatly alarmed her family, has been found and is now with her relatives. The Daily Chronicle, which makes this announcement, says the matter is being amicably arranged.

SUCCESS OF WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY.

Signor Marconi, the electrician, whose experiments in wireless telegraphy are attracting international attention, has successfully communicated with South Foreland, Kent, England, to the French armored dispatch vessel Ibis, while sailing in the English Channel. In conducting the experiment he was accompanied by a French naval officer. The feat marks also his first success in concentrating messages at one point, to the exclusion of all others.

TRIPOLI.

In the Italian Senate, Admiral Canevero, minister for foreign affairs, replying to questions about the Anglo-French arrangement on the Nile, and its effects on Tripoli, said that Great Britain and France had given ample assurance that they had no designs either for present or future execution on Tripoli, and that the commercial routes between Tripoli and the hinterland would be kept open.

MUNICIPAL FORGERY.

Some of the Vienna newspapers published a story that the mayor and the whole municipal council of eight members of the town of Boseec, Hungary, have been allied for two years in forging currency notes. They worked in the cellar of the town hall, and to guard against intrusion they stationed policemen at the doors to refuse permission to anyone who desired to enter while they were engaged in their unlawful occupation. When arrested the accused men fought furiously.

TO CHANGE RUSSIA'S CALENDAR.

In reply to inquiries made by the committee that was appointed to consider a reform in the Russian calendar, the foreign office and the departments of the interior and finance have sent communications to the committee expressing themselves as favorable to a change from the style, which is twelve days behind the calendar used by other civilized nations.

NO LIBERTY FOR DREYFUS.

Mr. David Christie Murray publishes the statement that he has learned from trustworthy sources in Paris that the superior council of war, including Gen. de Negrier, Gen. Zurlinden, Gen. Giovannelli, Gen. Duchesne and Gen. Jamont, its vice-president, none of whom, except, perhaps, Gen. Zurlinden, has heretofore been implicated in the Dreyfus affair, have decided that, under no conditions whatever shall Dreyfus be liberated. He understands also from the same source that negotiations are now proceeding from the intelligence bureau and the judges of the court of cassation to secure a rejection of the request for revision. More than this, he learns that everything is arranged for a sham trial of Col. Picquart, who is to be degraded and sentenced to imprisonment for ten years.

The Paris Figaro continues its publication of testimony offered before the court of cassation. Capt. Cuignet, who described the discovery of the forgery of Lieut.-Col. Henry, told the court that in his opinion Henry was only an accomplice of Col. du Paty de Clam, the pricipal author of the forgery, inasmuch as Henry was never before accused of wrong-doing, while du Paty de Clam was known to be guilty of shady practices.

COUNTESS ESTERHAZY SEEKS DIVORCE.

Paris, April 25.—The Matin this morning announces that Countess Esterhazy will today begin proceedings for a divorce from her husband, Commandant Esterhazy.

Mr. Strong, the Paris correspondent of the London Observer, was yesterday attacked on the street by an English journalist named Sherard. Mr. Strong broke his walking stick across his assailant's back and punched him severely about the head.

CABLE NOTES.

The Sultan of Turkey wants a couple of American agricultural experts to develop the farming resources of the empire.

The Portuguese Cortes has approved a project for laying and working a cable from the Azores to North America, Great Britain and Germany. The undertaking will be carried out by the European and Azores Telegraph Company.

A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Berlin says that Emperor William's new drama, "Der Eisenzahn," founded upon the history of Bradenburg, will probably be staged during his forthcoming visit to Wiesbaden.

STOMACHS MIXED

And as a Result the Wrong Man May Have Been Sentenced to Die.

St. Louis, April 25.—Gov. Stephens, of Missouri, has been requested by Eph Houston to commute the death sentence of Thomas Shackleford, now in the city jail for the murder of a man named Taylor.

Houston was an attendant at the morgue at the time Taylor's body was brought there, and the doctors who held the post-mortem examination gave him the stomach of the man to set aside. Soon after another dead man was brought to the morgue. There was some doubt as to how he came to die, and on the doctor's order his stomach was also put aside.

Houston says he believes he got the stomachs mixed. Shackleford was convicted of murder in the first degree on the evidence adduced from the stomach, which was kept by Houston for the court.

CUBAN CROPS.

Havana, April 25.—The sugar crop for 1899 is officially estimated at 307,903 English tons, against the total for 1898 of 232,032 tons. The tobacco crop is said to be of good quality and more abundant than for two years past. The planters in the Province of Pinar Del Rio are very cheerful as to the outlook.

HALF THE CREW OF A CRUISER SICK.

San Francisco, Cal., April 25.—Nearly half the crew of the battleship Iowa are on the sick list, and the men are loudly protesting. All of them seem to have more or less malaria and they are clamoring for the removal of the ship to better quarters. The stench from the sewers which enter into the bay is said to be the cause of sickness on board.

KIPLING'S SUIT FOR $25,000.

New York, April 25.—It is said that Rudyard Kipling's suit for $25,000 damages against G. P. Putnam's Sons, alleging violation of copyright, came about from the publication by the Putnams of his "Departmental Ditties." These consist of Mr. Kipling's earliest poems, and he is so far prejudiced against their perpetuation that he has not included them in the "Outward Bound" edition of his works, which is being compiled by himself. It is said the Putnam firm also incurred his displeasure by including in their edition "The Ken of Kipling," which is a short history of his life.

CALUMPET TO BE ATTACKED

Americans Meet With a Fierce Opposition From the 'Pinos.

Strong Force Under Aguinaldo Await the Assault—No News of Dewey's Missing Men.

Manila, April 25.—Gen. MacArthur's division left Malolos yesterday, apparently intending to besiege Calumpit. Before daylight the Fourth Cavalry, with three guns belonging to the Utah Battery, the Nebraska Regiment and the Iowa Regiment, under Gen. Hale, were proceeding in the direction of Kuinchua, where the Bagbag is fordable, but commanded by trenches. Gen. Hale, at 4 o'clock p.m., had crossed the Bagbag and reached a position a quarter of a mile from Calumpit, commanding the ford.

Prisoners captured by Gen. Hale's troops say Aguinaldo, Gen. Luna and the Filipino staff are at Calumpit with a great force of Filipino troops.

Gens. MacArthur and Wheaton, with the Montana Regiment, advanced to the left of the railroad, and the Kansas Regiment moved forward to the right, north of Malolos. They had with them a long supply train, with two armed cars in front, carrying two Gatlings and Colts, rapid-fire guns, and a 6-pounder.

The insurgents attempted to destroy the railroad bridge outside of Calumpit, and succeeded in badly warping the iron framework.

As soon as the soldiers left the Filipino capital, the natives began flocking in as they did at Santa Cruz before the last boat of Gen. Lawton's expedition had sailed. The United States army is compelled to abandon all towns when an onward movement is commenced, because of insufficient men to garrison them. This gives the Filipino leaders a framework upon which to spin stories of American defeat.

The rebels before Calumpit have recently been reinforced by bodies of men from Pampanga Province, and are now well entrenched in the strongest position on what is practically an island formed by a tributary to the Rio Grande.

Report says Gen. Otis keeps himself strongly guarded to escape the knives of expected Filipino assassins in Manila.

London reports from Hong Kong charge American merchants in China with supplying arms and other necessaries to Filipino rebels.

Admiral Dewey's dispatches to Secretary Long indicate that he is still in the dark as to the fate of Lieut. Gilmore and the fourteen captured sailors of the Yorktown at Baler.

Several ex-Spanish army officers in Cuba are said to have begged Gen. Brooke to accept their services to fight the rebels in the Philippines, offering to raise a regiment of their compatriots.

Col. Remie and Major Lasseras, Spanish commissioners, tried to enter Aguinaldo's lines near Calumpit to treat for the release of Spanish prisoners, but were compelled to return, not being able to get past the outposts, who threatened to fire on the flag of truce carried by the commissioners.

IN FRONT OF CALUMPIT.

Manila, April 25—10:30 a.m.—Although the sticky condition of the ground, due to a rainstorm, seriously impeded its progress, Gen. Lawton's column left San Jose today, and is expected to reach Norzagary this evening. Col. Summers is marching across from Bocave, with two battlions, each from the Oregon and Minnesota Regiments, three troops of cavalry and two guns. In the meantime Gen. MacArthur's division is in front of Calumpit, preparing to attack the rebel stronghold, and Gen. Hale, with several guns, is threatening the enemy's flank.

A few rebels between Novaliches and La Loma have persistently interfered with telegraphic communication, but the signal corps has repaired the breaks and captured several prisoners. A small body of rebels at Taktay was discovered this morning by the armored launch Napidan. A few shots scattered the rebels and drove them inland from the lake. All is quiet along Gen. Hale's and Gen. Ovenshine's lines

FIFTY FILIPINOS KILLED.

A dispatch to the New York Herald from Manila says: The movement of the American forces on Calumpit has begun, Gen. Hale's brigade crossing the river at Quingua and moving down the bank of the river toward Calumpit. Many insurgents were driven from in front of the line of march. Fifty of the enemy were killed, while the American loss was only one killed. It is reported that Gen. MacArthur, with Lawton's brigade and an armored train, is waiting at Malolos, for the strategic moment for an advance on Calumpit. This advance from Malolos is momentarily expected to begin. The town of Malolos will be evacuated, only the railway station being held. The natives are returning there in great numbers. All are professed non-combatants. The army gunboats, being unable to ascend the river to co-operate in the movement on Calumpit, have returned to Manila.

MET FIERCE OPPOSITION.

Washington, D. C., April 25.—The following has been received at the war department from Gen. Otis: Manila, April 25.—Adjutant-general, Washington: Hale's brigade, MacArthur's division, moved down the right bank of Quingua River yesterday to the vicinity of Calumpit; now joined by Wheaton's brigade on the left bank. Hale encountered fierce opposition, driving the enemy with heavy loss, taking his entrenchments in flank. Hale's casualties, six killed, thirteen wounded. The division has now invested Calumpit, which will be taken today. Lawton, with part of his command, reaches Norzagary this evening, where he will be joined by the central column from Bocave. Extreme heat, rain, high streams and bad roads made the march very difficult. He has not met opposition since leaving Novaliches, the enemy retreating in his front. South of and near Manila the enemy has a force of 4,000, making demonstrations daily; can be easily taken care of. It cannot communicate with the north.

Capt. Coghlan's After-Dinner Remarks Create a Breeze—The Incident Not Considered Serious.

Berlin, April 25.—The afternoon newspapers here contain few comments upon Capt. Coghlan's remarks, and they generally take a calm view of the after-dinner speech and consider the incident closed, particularly in view of the semi-official note published here announcing the strong disapproval of United States Secretary of State John Hay with the captain's conduct, coupled with the dignified tone of the American press on the subject.

NOT SERIOUS.

Washington, April 25.—After the conference between Secretary Hay and the German ambassador, it was stated in an authoritative quarter that there was no reason to view the Coghlan affair in too serious a light, or as presenting grave international complications. The meeting, it was stated, had been mutually agreeable. The main feature of the state department conference was in establishing that Germany expects the United States Government to deal with the Coghlan affair, according to the gravity of the offense, and the United States in return gives assurance that every just expectation in this respect will be performed.

The after-dinner remarks of Capt. Joseph E. Coghlan, of the United States cruiser Raleigh, which have given the Germans umbrage, included the singing of the following, which was published in the Paris edition of the New York Herald:

HOCH, DER KAISER.

Der Kaiser of der Vaterland
Und Gott on high all things gommand,
Ve two! Ach! don'd you understand
Meinself—und Gott!

While some men sing der power divine,
Mein soldiers sing der "Watch am Rhein,"
Und drink der healt, in Rheinish wein.
Auf me—und Gott.

Dere's France dot swaggers all around,
She's ausgespieldt—she's no aggoundt;
To much, ve dinks she don'd amoundt,
Meinself—und Gott.

Dere's gra'ma dinks she's nicht schmall bier,
Mit Boers und dings she interfere—
She'll learn none owns dis hemisphere
But me—und Gott.

She dinks, dot frau, some ships she's got,
Und soldiers mit der scarlet coat—
Ach! Ve could knock dem—pouf—like dot!
Meinself—und Gott.

In dimes of peace brebared for wars,
I bear der held and spear of Mars,
Und care nicht for ten dousand Czars—
Meinself—und Gott.

In short, I humor every whim,
Mit aspect dark and visage grim;
Gott pulls mit me and I mit him—
Meinself—und Gott.
