LONDON AND GLENCOE PLAY SEMI-FINAL GAME TONIGHT

Locals Play First of Home-and-Home Series at the Jubilee Rink This Evening—London Line-Up Will Remain Unchanged.

The semi-final intermediate O. H. A. game will be played at the Jubilee Rink tonight between Glencoe and London teams.

London intermediates won the group honors by defeating Simcoe, and will play the first of a home-and-home series, with goals to count, this evening.

The ice is good, and a fast game of hockey is expected. The Glencoe boys have been playing first-class hockey this season.

Glencoe will bring a referee for tonight's contest, and the locals will be permitted to pick their choice for the game at Glencoe.

The winners of the London-Glencoe series will likely meet the winners of the Hamilton-Seaforth series at the end of this week or the first of next.

There will be no change in the line-up of the local team tonight.

The probable line-up:

London.		Glencoe.
Sutter	Goal	Pearson
Ferguson	Defence	Doble
Kelly	Defence	Hamilton
Davenport	Centre	Weaver
Gillilles	Wing	Payne
Elliott	Wing	Wall
Lougheed	Sub.	Phillip

STRATFORD GIRLS LIKELY TO PROTEST GUELPH'S BASKETBALL VICTORY

STRATFORD, Feb. 16.—There is a possibility of Stratford girls protesting the game in the John Whyte intermediate series played last night with Guelph, when Guelph won 13 to 12. The grounds for the protest came at the end of the first period, when the timekeeper was unable to make the referee hear him call time, and a basket was scored by Stratford before the whistle went. These two points should have been credited to Stratford.

The Official Basketball Guide gives a ruling on the matter and declares that a game is officially in progress until the proper signal is sounded, either by the timekeeper or referee.

POLISH CHAMPION WINS.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 15.—Wladek Zbyszko, Polish wrestling champion, tonight defeated Arvid Andersen of Boston in two straight falls.

KITCHENER GIRLS TAKE FAST GAME FROM WOODSTOCK

WOODSTOCK, Feb. 15.—By a score of 14 to 12, the local collegiate basketball girls were beaten Friday night, when they visited the Kitchener team. All through the game was very exciting, and the Woodstock girls displayed by far the better combination. At half-time the score stood 9 to 7 in favor of Woodstock, while Woodstock got five field baskets and two foul shots. Kitchener scored two field shots and ten fouls. Of the latter, Miss Winnie Snyder made eight, and she was easily the star player for the home team. Owing to the fact that Kitchener gymnasium is little better than half the size of the Woodstock gymnasium the local girls found themselves at a disadvantage. According to the Kitchener rules when the ball struck the wall it was not counted a foul. Nevertheless Woodstock is still in the running, and has two more games in which to make good. Guelph has three games. Stratford and Woodstock each have two and Kitchener one. Next Friday Guelph plays here. The game Friday night was umpired by Mr. McLeod of the local Y. M. C. A., and Mr. Erb of Kitchener acted as referee. The lineup:

Woodstock—Forwards, L. McCrimmon and Mary McKay; centre, Isobel Fraser; defence, Grace Hill and Jean Douglas; spares, Jean Douglas and Jean Thornton.

Kitchener—Forwards, Elva Carmichael and Jessie Cochrane; centre, Winnie Snyder; defence, L. Bender and Lillian Snyder; spares, Eileen Clark and Florence Mueller.

JACK DEMPSEY EXPECTED TO PUT UP A GREAT FIGHT FOR THE TITLE

Young Contender For Heavyweight Title Is Real Fighting Man—Big Boxing Bout Will Take Place in the United States July 4.

There will be a great difference in the matter of height and weight when champion Jess Willard and his young challenger, Jack Dempsey, face each other in the ring on July 4, but the difference in their temperaments will be even greater. Dempsey is everything that Willard is not. He is the direct antithesis of the champion in nearly every respect.

Willard is slow to make friends and regards every stranger with intense suspicion. Dempsey greets everyone with a smile and is your friend before you have finished shaking hands with him. If he succeeds in winning the title, he will be a wonderfully popular champion.

Willard is old as fighters go and he lacks enthusiasm. He gives one the impression, and in fact makes no attempt to hide it, that he is bored with the boxing game. Dempsey is boyishly enthusiastic. He is pugnacious in the extreme. He likes to fight for the excitement of the game as well as the money there is in it.

At first sight Dempsey looks to be little bigger than middleweight. He is so compactly built that one is surprised to find that he is really 6 feet 1½ inches tall. Most of his weight is in his chest and broad shoulders, which are tremendously developed.

Dempsey has the ideal fighting face. His jaws are so broad that his face is rather round than oval. His eyes are set well back in his head, while his mouth is wide and firm and equipped with a set of teeth as even as those displayed in tooth paste advertisements.

Dempsey's nose is the most striking feature of his face. It is a sharp little snub, and it gives him a jaunty cocky look. It is a real fighting nose, such as has been carried by all the great ring-men who have liked fighting for fighting's sake.

While waiting to sign articles for the bout Dempsey was pelted with questions by the newspaper men present. He had a ready answer for each, his replies showing him to be naturally smart and intelligent, although without the advantage of much schooling, for Dempsey worked on the farm and in the mines from his early boyhood. He succeeded in leaving the impression that he is wonderfully confident of his ability in the ring, and yet was not in the least boastful.

In telling of how glad he was to get the match, Dempsey said:

"I certainly was tickled to death to hear the news. I would have come on at once if I had to walk it if I had known that I was wanted to sign articles. I thought my manager, Jack Kearns, could attend to that. I thought he must be kidding me when I got the line from him that I was needed here to sign.

"I want to say for all time that Jack is my one and only manager. We have a contract that runs for five years and he is the only one that can talk for me. I never listen to Curley and Floto and others who have been mentioned as having an interest in me. Of course you know the trouble that I had with Reisler. I broke the contract with him because he did not treat me right or I still would be with him.

"I think Tex Richard is the greatest promoter in the world, and I am well pleased with my share of the purse. In fact I don't think anything of the money at all. It's the chance to fight for the title that appeals to me. I think Willard is doing me a great favor to fight me, and if necessary I would have taken the match for nothing.

"How will I fight Willard? Just the same as I fought the others. I always go in to win just as quickly as I know how, the same as though I were fighting in the street. There's nothing to be gained by waiting and fooling around. I just get in there and fight until something drops.

"I don't think Willard's size will help me to any great extent. It's been my experience that the bigger they are the easier they were. Those big fellows fall all over themselves they are so slow. Fred Fulton and Carl Morris were the biggest men I met, and both went out in the first round. There was so much of them I could not miss. It's the smaller fellows who are fast and clever that give you the most trouble. Anyone I hit is going to drop no matter how big he is, but when you can't hit them just right it's a lot harder.

"They say I'm not very clever myself, but you'll notice that I have no marks on me. Both my ears are as good as they ever were and I haven't got a scar of any kind. In my last six fights I have not had a nose bleed or a black eye, which, I thought to prove that I don't get hit much."

CHAMPION FIGHTER GOES TO CHICAGO TO SEE PROMOTER

Jess Willard and Tex Rickard To Discuss Plans for Fight.

Chicago, Feb. 17.—Jess Willard, champion heavyweight, who is matched to fight Jack Dempsey for the title on July 4 next, was here today to meet Tex Rickard, promoter of the contest, who is expected to arrive from New York during the day.

While it was said that the conference between the promoter and the champion was to be for the purpose of discussing affairs connected with the proposed fight, Willard declined to give any information as to the object of the meeting.

Willard said he had no idea where the fight would take place, but that he would even be willing to go to South America if necessary to find a suitable battleground.

WORLD SERIES GAMES WILL BEGIN AT COAST WEDNESDAY, MARCH 19

VANCOUVER, Feb. 15.—Future world's hockey series will be decided in the best two out of three games, instead of three out of five, as at present if the N. H. L. magnates desire to make a change. An announcement to this effect was made today by Frank Patrick, president of the Pacific Coast Hockey Association. Mr. Patrick always desiring to improve the game on the coast and the conditions governing world series, is agreeable to a change if the easterners express a desire to reduce the world series schedule to the best two out of three matches.

The first world series match this year will be played in the west on Wednesday, March 19, and every second day thereafter until the championship is decided.

BIG BOWLING TOURNAMENT LIKELY FOR ST. THOMAS

ST. THOMAS, Feb. 16. — There is every possibility of a bowling tournament being held in this city at the Strand bowling alleys early in the month of March. Local bowling enthusiasts have been considering the matter for some time and arrangements are now practically completed. If held on the above date it would be possible to have the bowlers from Toronto who would be attending the tournament in Toledo stop over in this city either on their way to, or, as they are returning. Such an event has not been held in this city for many years, and consequently it would be a very interesting one.

TORONTO ATHLETE WINS IN BROOKLYN MEETING

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—A new national junior record in the standing high jump was made by Theodore S. Clark of New York, unattached, with a mark of 5 feet 1½ inches, at the national junior A. A. U. championship in Brooklyn tonight, which opened the indoor athletic season. The former record was 5 feet 1-4-inch.

The 2-mile walk was won by Carl Mertens, Toronto, Ont., unattached. Time, 16 minutes, 48 3-5 seconds.

WOODSTOCK JUNIORS ARE READY FOR SEMI-FINALS

WOODSTOCK, Feb. 16.—The hockey fans are all on edge awaiting the first of the semi-final O. H. A. Junior games to be played in Stratford on Tuesday night. Secretary Hewitt of the O. H. A. has appointed Tackaberry of Toronto to handle the games. The fans would have had Tommy Munroe, still they feel that "Tack" can be relied upon to make a good job of this important series. Another large crowd is expected to follow the team. The Juniors have not had a workout since the game with Kitchener last Wednesday, but are all in good shape, and confidently waiting the referee's bell.

SEMI-FINALS TONIGHT IN SOUTHERN COUNTIES LEAGUE

TILLSONBURG, Feb. 16.—On Monday evening, the semi-finals in the Southern Counties' League will take place at the Electric Rink if the ice is in good condition. Tillsonburg Electrics will meet Mount Elgin, and Richmond will meet Springford. It is very probable that Richmond and Tillsonburg Electrics will meet in the final game, and a win for Tillsonburg this year will entitle them to hold the silver trophy, which they have won two successive seasons.

JACK BRASSO BADLY BEATEN BY JACKSON

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 15.—Willie Jackson of New York punished Jack Brasso, of Hazelton, Pa., so badly that scheduled 6-round fight here tonight that his seconds threw up the sponge in the third round.

ARENAS LOOKED LIKE BUNCH OF AMATEURS TO THE CANADIENS

Montreal Team Had Little Opposition in Contest.

MONTREAL, Feb. 6.—Canadiens played with the Toronto Arenas Saturday night at the Jubilee Rink as a cat with a mouse, and the score at the end of the hour's time was 8 to 2 for the locals. Whatever chance Torontos had of tieing with Ottawa for the second half of the race was killed by the loss.

Both clubs started with the regular line-ups, and for a short time in the first period Torontos put up an argument, but when Canadiens scored the first goal, through the efforts of Pitre, Torontos faded so that their club looked like a bunch of amateurs. The forward line, composed of Skinner, Noble and Crawford, did well, but the defence was practically useless.

Randall played a fair game and showed flashes of speed, but he was weak on the defensive. Two shots went through his legs in such easy fashion that the crowd hooted him. Even his own team-mates laughed at him when he allowed a shot to get past from a face-off near his nets.

On the other hand, Vezina gave a clever exhibition, and this, perhaps, accounted for the Arenas' forwards becoming discouraged.

Noble showed a flash of speed at times, but seemed to be out of condition and faded away. He missed several chances in the second period. The visiting forward line had to play as the defence most of the time. Mummery and Randall often leaving their posts on a rush and loafing offside on the way back. There was little or no combination attempted by Torontos, and they were never in the running.

Canadiens had little trouble in accumulating their score of eight goals, and used combination play with good effect.

So easy was the Canadiens' victory that Newsy Lalonde retired at the close of the second period. He watched the third session from the bench.

The teams:

Canadians (8).		Arenas (2).
Vezina	Goal	Lindsay
Hall	Point	Mummery
Corbeau	Cover	Randall
Lalonde	Centre	Noble
Pitre	Wing	Crawford
Berlinquette	Wing	Skinner
Malone	Sub	C. Denennay
O. Cleghorn	Sub.	Adams
McDonald	Sub.
Couture	Sub.

Referee, Harry Hyland.
