

REVIEW: THE TRAINING OF PETER AND JOHN

Selection for Reading: I John 1:1-9

For three months we have been learning about two of Jesus' dearest friends, Peter and John. To-day we are to see how much we can remember about them, and we are going to see what kinds of memory pictures we have of them.

The first memory picture will be this: Think of a great many people listening to John the Baptist beside a river. Then tell how Jesus came to know John and Peter.

Think of two boats on the Sea of Galilee in which fishermen were busy. Who were two of these men, and why did they leave their boats that day?

What happened one Sabbath Day when Jesus and some of the disciples ate dinner at Peter's house?

Think of a boat out on the sea in a terrible storm, and tell what happened.

Why did Peter say one day, "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God"?

Think of the three disciples on a mountain top; a wonderful light brighter than the sun; and God's voice speaking from a cloud. Tell the story of the transfiguration.
