About three years ago Mrs. Lottie Lainhart of Hamilton, Md., attended a festival at her church, and as she opened her pocketbook a little bag containing a $5 gold piece fell out, and could not be found. A few days ago a woman was to be baptized and on such occasions weights are attached to her skirt before immersion. When the box containing the weights was taken out from under one of the front pews, the missing bag containing the coin was found at the bottom of the box.

POTATO FLOUR

The bureau in Washington is experimenting with combinations of potato flour and wheat flour in bread-making. The most satisfactory loaves are those that contain thirty per cent or less of potato flour. The bread, so made, retains its moisture and freshness and is appetizing in flavor. American housekeepers have long used some potato flour in bread-making, principally for the reason that the loaf retains moisture and freshness longer than if made wholly of wheat flour. Potato flour is far superior to wheat flour for making sponge cakes and puddings. Ask your grocer for Dearborn's Old Homestead Potato Flour. Made in Canada. Receipt on every package. 4-7.

PICTURE SERMONS.

A special series of picture sermons, illustrating the last week of the Lord's life on earth, is being given at St. Luke's church this week to large congregations by Rev. R. P. McKim. He has secured from London a rare collection of pictures taken from the old and modern painters on sacred subjects and these are shown by electric lantern reflexion to splendid effect. The narrative is told in plain language with the lessons appropriate to each picture and the idea is to show the daily movements of Christ and His apostles during the week that preceded the crucifixion. The series will be continued to include the crucifixion on Friday. Hymns suitable for the series are sung, such as Rock of Ages, Abide With Me, etc., and solos are given by members of the choir, including Willard Smith, Charles Wheeler (now of the Army Service Corps), Arthur T. Brown, John Armour, William Mitchell, and Howard Behren, with the Misses Ellen Brigden, Dorothy Daye and Edith Taylor.

"MRS. DOT"

One of the most pretentious theatrical productions of the present season is the coming presentataion of "Mrs. Dot", a comedy by the well known English author, W. Somerset Maugham, which is to be staged at the Opera House Thursday and Friday nights of next week, under the auspices of De Monts Chapter, Daughters of the Empire. The entire net proceeds of the two performances go to the fund for equipping ten hospital beds at Cliveden, the Duchess of Connaught hospital for wounded Canadian soldiers. Quite a large sum of money is needed for this work and needed at once. Here is an opportunity for everybody to rally to the standard and contribute their little mite in aid of our brave boys at the front, and at the same time get something in return in the way of an excellent play, splendidly acted and staged. The cast is made up from some of the best amateur talent in the city. Tickets go on sale at the box office next Monday morning.

The keynote of a genuine life is always sursum corda, "Lift up your hearts!"
