ERRATA.

In the absence of the Editor last week a v errors were overlooked. In the Editol, for "respector," read respecter—for ractical service," read practical science— the poetry on 196th page—for "age" read e. The Poetry on the first page, being ndred in, in MS. was supposed to be origil, and was by mistake headed "For the esleyan." It was selected from a small lume of choice poetry, entitled "Scenes in e West Indies, &c., By Adeline."

The reader will also please correct as folws a typographical error that occurred the Rev. E. Evans's Letter which appear- in the number for Decr. 22nd.—After e words—"The Rev. John Wesley's Four olumes of Sermons, and his Notes on the ew Testament," in the 2nd column of the 57th page, place a period, instead of a mma, making the sentence end with those ords.

"OF INTEREST TO ALL."

Mother's Relief—Indian Discovery.

All mothers anxious to avoid pains, distress and ngers are earnestly entreated to calm their fears d allay their nervousness by the use of this st extraordinary vegetable production. Those o will carefully observe its virtues, must approve of it in their hearts; and will feel it a most lemn duty to alleviate distress by a safe and rtain method, which is, the use of the Mother's lief.
