PRIVATE FRED YOUNG CHEERS UP AT PROSPECT OF GETTING BACK TO THE FIRING LINE

Interesting sidelights on passing events in England, and elsewhere, are contained in a recent letter from Pte. Fred Young, who again favors Advertiser readers with his whimsical observations on the happenings of the day. The British jacktars have begun to get the upperhand of the U-boats, according to Fred Young's letter, who states that meatless days have been abolished in England, and that fresh meat rations are being issued to the men occasionally. The arrival of a budget of Advertisers brought great joy to the boys in camp, joy that was only clouded when the news of the death of Joe Walters was read.

Pte. Young has again "interviewed" the medical board, with the result that he has been given a higher rating physically, and states that his prospects of going back to France are much brighter. He writes as follows:

News Worth the Price.

Dear Friend,—Although there has been no news of spectacular advances at the front this week, we feel that the sixpence spent in newspapers fully justifies its expenditure.

Cable news from America, announcing the success of registration day in Uncle Sam's land, and reports that conscription was becoming a vital question in Canada, made interesting reading to the boys from the western hemisphere, while the king's birthday anniversary, the personal decoration of heroes by his majesty, and the anniversary of Kitchener's death, were main topics of conversation with the man on the street.

News from France that her rulers had demanded with calm dignity that Alsace and Lorraine must be restored and full reparation be made for damage done in the present war, before a question of peace can be entertained, shows that the Russian propaganda is not taking root on the bloodstained soil of France.

The Socialists who hired a hall in Leeds, Yorkshire, in order to utilize their headgear as megaphones, seemed to belong to the same lodge as the Ford "flivverites," and accomplished just about as much. We have no objection to the word "social" when used in conjunction with the noun "glass," but outside that there's nothing doing. We feel that the real, present-day, spirit of Britain was expressed by the archbishop of Canterbury, at a memorial service at Folkestone, for the victims of the air raid, when he said that the people of that vicinity would not be terrified by Hun frightfulness, but would prove to the world that they were worthy of the honor of living in that bit of England that was nearest the enemy. No flivverism about that.

Meatless Days Abolished.

Today's papers show that Fritz's daylight air raids are far too costly to him to be repeated very often, as his aviators meet the fate of the zepps of former days. This week's list of vessels sunk by the U-boats show that the old sea dogs of Britain are still gaining on the Hun pirates, food supplies are reaching these shores in larger quantities, and meatless days have been abolished. We get fresh meat rations occasionally, but our irrepressible pal declares that the bovines which furnish the carcasses for army consumption all die of rheumatism, or some equally painful death. Here's hoping that they will soon abolish sugarless tea, cowless milk and springless bedboards. We should feel almost human again if they did.

We regret to report that the deplorable rivalry amongst unscrupulous storekeepers as to who can be the most unpatriotic food profiteers, has shot the price of necessities out of the reach of everyone except munition workers. We have heard of "class distinctions" in England, in which the nobility refused to have any dealings with people who had made their money as tradesmen." At one time we attributed their actions to snobbishness, but actual contact with storekeepers has caused us to change our mind, and we have decided that we will not attend any church where they employ storekeepers as church wardens to take up the collection.

For nearly three weeks our inquiries, re the arrival of Canadian mail, were answered in the negative. Pessimists whined about U-boats, but our unshakeable faith in the British navy was rewarded this week, when home letters of May 1st, 8th and 15th, accompanied by "Tisers from April 26th to May 18th, inclusive, were placed in our hands. Home news is always eagerly devoured, and the arrival of the home town paper hailed with delight.

News of Joe Walters' Death.

We have sometimes thought that familiarity with carnage and sudden death had somewhat calloused our nature, but a thick mist swam before our eyes as we read that "Joe" Walters, of the "Tiser staff, had paid the supreme price on the field of honor. Sorrow and pride struggled for mastery in our feelings as we thought of the words of Horatius at the Bridge of Thermopylae.

You will probably be interested to learn that our last interview with the "medical board" raised our category to B III., and we are now posted to full duty at Canadian headquarters, Hastings, "on command." Our chances of returning to France are very much in the ascendancy, and as an old friend you won't mind if we once again reiterate our old slogan that "a fellow isn't beaten till his shoulders touch the mat," will you?

This doesn't mean that we have sold ourself body and soul to militarism. Nix. For nearly three years we have cheerfully and voluntarily borne the yoke of military necessity because we feel that our cause is just.

And we have had the unspeakable privilege of hearing the dying words of pals who freely gave their life that "justice" might be maintained on earth. Some day, perhaps, we shall be able to grip your hand and make you feel the thrill we experience in calling those men "pals," whose dying words breathed the spirit expressed by Kipling, when he wrote:

"I'd not give room to an emperor,
I'd hold my road for a king;
To a triple crown I'd not bow down,
But this is a different thing.

Yours as ever,
FRED YOUNG.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Regina, June 26.—The Liberal Government has been returned in Saskatchewan in a sweeping victory.

Premier W. M. Martin was elected in this city over J. F. L. Embury by 926 majority, the vote being: Martin, 3,410 to 2,484.

The Liberals swept Saskatchewan, although Minister of Agriculture Hon. W. R. Motherwell may be defeated in Kindersley.

The Conservatives have won Moose Jaw and Qu'Appelle.

Hon. C. A. Dunning, provincial treasurer, carried Moose Jaw County by five hundred.

Hon. J. A. Calder had a large majority in Saltcoats.

Willoughby Is Elected.

Conservative Leader Willoughby was elected in Moose Jaw by 300, while J. H. Bradshaw, his lieutenant, was defeated in Prince Albert by 500. Donald Macklean, Conservative, was elected in Saskatoon over F. H. MacKenzie by 700 majority.

Lieut.-Col. Glenn of South Qu'Appelle was elected over Railton, Independent.

The Case of Moose Jaw.

Interviewed at Moose Jaw tonight, W. G. Ross, defeated Liberal candidate, said to your correspondent: "Undoubtedly the cause of Conservative victory in this city was the Labor vote. Of the thousand votes cast for the Labor candidate, 75 per cent would have gone Liberal, as the Martin Government policy was favorable to the Labor men. The federal situation at the present time also had some influence, the Conservative candidates having enjoyed twelve years in this city. Nevertheless, I am not downcast, as, instead, my opponent going to Regina with a clear majority of 102 over all opponents, as he did last time, he now represents a minority.

"Moose Jaw's combined vote against him as sitting member gives a majority against him of 758."

GREEK KING WILLING TO GRANT DEMANDS OF ENTENTE POWERS

Venizelos To Be Premier of New Ministry.

Athens, June 27.—The resignation of Premier Zaimis was occasioned by his decision that he could not assume responsibility for convocation of the Parliament of May 31, 1915, which King Constantine dissolved. M. Jonnart, diplomatic representative of the Allies, demanded the assembling of this Parliament, in which M. Venizelos had a majority. In resigning, M. Zaimis announced that King Alexander was willing to comply with all the demands of the Entente. It is understood that M. Venizelos will be premier, Nicholas Politis, foreign minister of the Provisional Government, set up at Saloniki by M. Venizelos, probably will have the foreign portfolio in the Venizelos cabinet. It is expected Admiral Coundouriotis will be minister of marine, and Gen. Danglis, minister of war, or chief of the general staff.

Neither the archbishop of Athens nor members of the holy synod, who took part in the anathematizing of M. Venizelos, will be present at the administration of the oath. They will resign. Cretan gendarmes will act as a bodyguard for M. Venizelos. Proceedings have been instituted against the ringleaders in the recent demonstration.

ENORMOUS PROFITS IN THE SALE OF SULPHITE BY NEWS PRINT MILLS

Ottawa, June 27.—Before the Pringle commission of inquiry into the newsprint situation today, George Millen of the E. B. Eddy Company was further examined on the question of sulphite, on which it is evident the mills are getting an enormous profit. Mr. Millen stated that his company manufactured for its own use, but did not sell sulphite, but the price would be $70 or $80 per ton. Sulphite costs from $45 to $50 per ton, and is being sold at from $70 to $100. In answer to a question by the commissioner the witness said that in his opinion 25 to 30 per cent would be a fair profit. Mr. Pringle remarked that according to figures quoted by some companies the profit was from 50 to 100 per cent.

WOMEN RESPOND TO LADY BECK'S CALL TO HELP "POILUS"

Enthusiastic Workers Organize French Soldiers' Day.

MANY READY TO HELP

Captains of Teams Quickly Volunteer at Meeting Held Today.

Patriotic women of London have decided to do their part in a Dominion-wide effort on "France's Day," Saturday, July 14, to raise funds for the sick and wounded soldiers of the French nation engaged in active operations in many parts of the world, and also for the French prisoners of war.

This decision was reached at a large, enthusiastic and representative meeting of women's organizations of the city held today in Cronyn Hall, called together by Lady Beck. Some days ago, Lady Beck, president of the London Branch of the Canadian Red Cross, received a communication from Col. Noel Marshall, chairman of the executive committee of the Canadian Red Cross Society, stating that having received an urgent appeal from the London committee of the French Red Cross to take part in an Empire-wide appeal for assistance, the executive was advising its branches throughout the Dominion to take such steps as might appear advisable for the purpose of raising funds.

Many in Attendance.

Presidents of patriotic, charitable, educational and church organizations were notified some days ago, and asked to bring their members out in as full force as possible. A splendid response was made, and practically all departments of women's activities were represented, the Imperial Order of Daughters of the Empire in large numbers, the Red Cross Society and its various auxiliaries, the Women's Christian Temperance Union, the Women's Canadian Club, the Union and individual school Mothers' Clubs, the Woman's Music Club, the Young Women's Christian Association, the Women's Christian Association and many church societies.

After the object of the meeting was explained by Lady Beck and the urgent need of giving assistance to France, which has borne the brunt of the war since the beginning, it was unanimously decided to hold a flag day on Saturday, July 14th, "France's Day."

Lady Beck Convener.

By unanimous consent, Lady Beck was made convener of the general flag day committee, and Mrs. Cameron, regent of the Municipal Chapter, I. O. D. E., her assistant.

Mrs. A. E. Miller was appointed secretary and Mrs. A. E. Cooper and Mrs. Cl. T. Campbell, joint treasurers.

Mrs. Fred White and Mrs. B. C. McCann were named conveners of team organization and Mrs. J. B. McKillop and Mrs. Spry of the motor committee.

Mrs. D. C. MacGregor is to be convener of the advertising and publicity committee, with Mrs. E. C. Bowker and Mrs. R. M. Graham and Misses Armstrong, Wilson and Hamilton as her assistants.

Volunteer Services.

This meeting differed from other organization meetings for campaigns that have been held even in London. There was not the slightest need to urge anyone to act as a captain of a team or in some other responsible capacity. One after another rose to offer her services.

Unlike the usual "tag day," for which badges are sold in the downtown streets, not a corner of the city will be overlooked in the grand canvass on "France's Day." The city will be divided into districts, and the plan followed which made possible the covering of the entire city in record time in the "Big Heart" house-to-house canvass of Sunday last for the Byron Sanatorium for Tuberculous Soldiers.

Twenty-five teams are already in sight, with the following captains: Mesdames A. T. Edwards, T. G. Dochstader, Gerald Pearson, Gemmill, A. C. Joseph, Marlatt, Donald McLean, Greenaway, Frank Fallon, C. R. Somerville, Cairncross, Dignan, John Stevely, Howard Higgins, C. B. Edwards, Sage, Campbell, D. L. McCrae and Misses O. White, Jean Waugh, McVicar, Gertrude Bapty, Priddis and Wardrope.

In addition Mrs. W. E. Coles will be in charge of a team of returned soldiers.

BATTLE IN COURTS MAY RESULT FROM TAXING BECK'S LINE

Westminster Council Has Assessed Railway Property.

NOTICES ARE SENT BACK

St. Thomas and Yarmouth May Assist Other Corporation in Fight To Collect.

There is the possibility of a legal battle between the township of Westminster and the London Railway Commission over the payment of taxes to the township.

The latter some time ago assessed the property of the commission running through the township, and fixed the tax rate on it.

The notices were sent to the commission, and by the latter referred to City Solicitor Meredith. The latter told the commission to send the tax notices back, and not to pay, as the railway was owned by the municipality. The township, on the other hand, will assert its rights. A peculiar angle is given to the situation in that M. D. Fraser, K.C., of the firm of Fraser & Moore, the township's solicitors, is a member of the London Railway Commission.

The question as to whether or not the city of London does legally own the railway or not will be brought out, if the matter goes to court. It is claimed on one hand that the city's bonds have legally ceased to exist, through lapse of time, and as a result the shareholders, of whom there are many, have claims against the road.

There is a possibility that the city of St. Thomas and the township of Yarmouth may assist the township of Westminster in case of a legal battle.

ALD. DYER GETS RAISE ON JUNK MEN'S LICENSE

Apparently Ald. Dyer is of the opinion that the junk dealers of London are getting wealthy, for he introduced a resolution at the meeting of the police commission Tuesday, and had it passed, which requires that junk and second-hand dealers pay a license fee of $20 per year, instead of $10. Pedlars will have to pay $10 for the privilege of collecting junk, instead of the customary $2.

It was proposed by Mayor Stevenson that the policemen wear numbers on their collars, the same as Toronto cops do. No definite action was taken in the matter.

The Greene-Swift Company was awarded the contract for heating the cheerless cells of those who run foul of the law at about a 40 per cent increase over last year's contract.

FRED SHMULTZ HURT AT BECK'S FACTORY

Fred Shmultz, 425 Ridout street, had his back injured at 7:45 this morning at Beck's box factory when he slipped on a gangway while carrying some lumber. Dr. Tillmann was called and had the man removed to his home. The doctor stated this afternoon that the injuries would not prove serious.

PTE. HARRIS BEATS MISSOURI RECORD

Long-Distance Recruit Came To City From Paris, Texas.

Seeing an Advertiser bulletin to the effect that man had come from Missouri to enlist in the Canadian expeditionary force, Private Harry Harris came into the office to inform the staff that he had that record beaten by a considerable amount.

"I've got that fellow beaten by 500 miles," said Pte. Harris, who then explained that his home was in Paris, Texas, and that he had come from there to enlist on account of an acquaintance he had formed with an officer here some years ago.

Pte. Harris is a member of the Army Medical Corps, and enlisted in Windsor on June 6.

WOODMEN FROM STATES ARRIVE IN ENGLAND

London, June 27.—Ten units of American woodmen, sent over by New England states and organizations, to turn various forests of the United Kingdom into lumber, have arrived in England.

The woodmen brought with them not only the necessary machinery, but were fully equipped in every way, even to lubricating oils. Their arrival found them ready to establish their sawmills and begin work at once.

GRAIN.

Chicago, June 27.—Wheat prices showed a decided downward tendency today as a result of assertions that immediate embargo restrictions on wheat shipments from the United States were likely, and that the Canadian surplus would be given preference in supplying European needs.

Opening quotations, which ranged from the same as yesterday's finish to 1c lower, were followed by a sharp general descent and then something of a rally, which, however, failed to last.

WINNIPEG TRADING RESTRICTIONS ON

Winnipeg, June 26.—The market was again a restricted one today, and is liable to be more so, in view of the announcement of the board of supervisors that they keep it closed until such time as they see fit to open it. There was a moderate cash trade, mainly on Government account, with good prospects from eastern farmers for contract cars. The report was again general that farmers were holding back wheat, and that but a small percentage of the wheat coming forward is for sale. There was nothing new in the gossip. Weather conditions in the west were, on the whole, favorable.
