EIGHTEENTH YEAR | TEN PAGES—SATURDAY MORNING JULY 10 1897—TEN PAGES | ONE CENT

PLEASED THE IRISH.

Mr. Gerald Balfour's Scheme of Development SUITS THE NATIONALISTS.

They Effusively Thanked the Irish Secretary in the House.

He Proposes the Construction of Light Railways Through the Congested Districts of North Donegal—Steamboats and Coaches Will Help to Make a New Tourist Route Right Across the West of Ireland—The Situation in the East—General News by Cable.

London, July 9.—In the House of Commons to-day in the course of a discussion on the Irish estimates, Mr. Gerald Balfour, Chief Secretary for Ireland, after a fierce attack by Timothy Healy on the Irish Board of Works, made a statement as to the manner in which the Government proposed to expend the half million pounds voted by Parliament last year for the development of the resources of Ireland.

"The scheme," said the Chief Secretary, "proposes the construction of light railways through the congested districts of North Donegal, and to open up by means of steamboats and coaches a new tourist route right across the west of Ireland. A steamer service 100 miles up the Shannon will begin on Aug. 1, while other lines of steamers and coaches will connect Killarney district with Connemara."

Then occurred a curious scene. The Nationalists, who had previously been abusing the Government for its wanton disregard of Ireland, arose one after the other, and effusively thanked Mr. Gerald Balfour for the broad and generous manner in which he had dealt with the problem, all admitting that he had done the best possible with the funds at his command.

BIKES GO DOWN.

The Rudge-Whitworth Company Suddenly Makes a Slaughter.

London, July 9.—The Rudge-Whitworth Cycle Company yesterday took the cycle industry by surprise by suddenly, and without the slightest warning, either to their London managers or agents, reducing the price of their bicycles from £30 to 16 guineas for the highest grade and from 20 to 12 guineas for the second grade. Something like consternation has been caused in the cycle trade by this action, and it took every rival concern by surprise, as only a couple of days previously the London manager stated that his company had no intention of making a reduction in response to the Columbia Company's action. The London managers of the Swift, Premier, Humber, Rover and other leading companies express the belief that a general reduction is inevitable, and the consequence of this will be that American machines will have no chance of selling here, even at reduced prices, as the English machine will probably be sold at the same value.

The Rudge-Whitworth Company's action is generally regarded as suicidal by English companies and certain to create a considerable fall on the Stock Exchange in the value of shares, terminating with many companies liquidating and others amalgamating.

The Number Killed in Calcutta.

London, July 9.—Lord George Hamilton, the Secretary of State for India, replying in the House of Commons to-day as to the number of persons killed during the recent rioting in the vicinity of Calcutta, said that about seven persons were killed and that about 20 were wounded during the riots.

According to native reports, no less than 500 persons were killed during the disturbances about Calcutta.

FOUR DISCONSOLATE WOMEN.

They Were Dressmakers in Paris and Shuffled Off of Their Own Volition.

Paris, July 9.—A great sensation has been caused by the discovery that four dressmakers have committed suicide by inhaling charcoal fumes in a flat belonging to the well-to-do Mme. Marechal, in the Faubourg Poisson-Rere. Mme. Marechal had long suffered from melancholy because of the insanity of her husband, and it is supposed that she instigated the act and persuaded the others, who were deserted either by their husbands or their lovers.

The four met in the evening, partook of a sumptuous dinner, with wine, sang and smoked until late, and concluded life with the statement in writing, signed by all: "We die deliberately and without any regret."

When the bodies were discovered the tables and floor were strewn with cigarets and cigar ends. On the centre table were letters addressed to their relatives. In the room with them a pet dog was found dead.

A Fire at Buckingham Palace.

London, July 9.—At 10 o'clock last night, while the guests were assembling for the state ball at Buckingham Palace, a fire broke out on the second floor. The stream of carriages entering the palace grounds was stopped and an enormous crowd collected. The fire engines arrived promptly, but found no difficulty in extinguishing the flames, which were due to the accidental igniting of a window curtain. An hour after the fire broke out the engines had departed and the reception of guests was resumed. Among the guests were many of the Indian Princes still remaining in London. The Prince of Wales entered the salon soon after 11 o'clock and dancing began immediately.

A GAME OF FREEZE OUT.

The Powers Will Keep Things Dangling Until Winter Expels the Sultan

London, July 9.—Eastern affairs show but little change during the last 24 hours. A sensational newspaper in Paris published a rumor yesterday that M. Hanotaux, Minister of Foreign Affairs, has informed the Cabinet that matters in the East were very serious, and that Admiral Besnard, the Minister of Marine, had instructed the admiral in command of the Mediterranean fleet to mobilize his forces with a view of making a naval demonstration in the Bosphorus; but this is regarded as unnecessarily alarmist.

More to the purpose is the fact that Austria-Hungary has presented a note to the Porte declaring that unless the Turkish Government appoints a day for the Turkish military commission to discuss with the European attaches the strategic frontier proposed by Europe, the ambassadors will request their respective governments to adopt energetic measures.

What It Would Mean.

According to the best information obtainable this strategic frontier would give Turkey about 200 square kilometres of territory in the district of Metsovo and some villages in the Tyrnavos district.

The indemnity would be £4,500,000 Turkish, £1,500,000 to be paid on the departure of the Turks from Thessaly, and an equal amount in the course of a year, a Franco-English company raising the money by farming the Greek customs. These concessions are made with a view of enabling the Sultan to overcome the objections of the war party.

Playing a Waiting Game.

It is the general belief that the negotiations are likely to continue until the end of the year, when winter will compel Turkey to withdraw her troops from Thessaly. Just now, while the weather is good and food abundant, it is comparatively easy to keep them there. An Imperial order has been issued to the commandant of the Dardanelles to prepare for the sailing of the Turkish fleet under sealed orders.

SIR LOUIS DAVIES' MISSION.

The Canadian Minister of Marine Expected to Discuss Pelagic Sealing.

London, July 10.—The Daily Mail publishes this morning a brief interview with Sir L. H. Davies, the Canadian Minister of Marine and Fisheries. Sir Louis has come to England to consult the Imperial Government with reference to the treaties with Belgium and Germany, and to obtain an opinion from the Privy Council as to whether the control of the inland fisheries of Canada lies with the Dominion Parliament or with the parliaments of the provinces in which the particular fisheries exist. He also expects to discuss the question of pelagic sealing with John W. Foster, the special commissioner of the United States on the sealing controversy. The length of his stay here is uncertain.

The Porte Called Down.

Constantinople, July 9.—Acting under instructions received from their respective Governments, the ambassadors of the powers to-day presented a collective note to the Turkish Government, demanding a cessation of the obstruction of the peace negotiations.

Must Follow the Majority.

London, July 9.—The Committee of Engineers of the Allied Unions has issued a notice to the members of the unions, instructing these latter that wherever 25 per cent. of the unionists are locked out on Tuesday next the remaining 75 per cent. are also to go out on strike.

The Old Lady is Still in It.

London, July 9.—Baroness Burdett-Coutts gave a garden party to-day at Holly Lodge, Highgate, to over 200 guests.

A Swell Captain's Suicide.

London, July 9.—Capt. Francis Yorke McMahon of the First Royal Dragoons, the brother and heir-presumptive of Sir Horace Westropp McMahon, Bart., has committed suicide by shooting himself at his brother's residence. He was financially embarrassed.

The Kaiser's Hopes.

Berlin, July 9.—The Frankfort Zeitung to-day publishes a despatch from Constantinople saying that Emperor William, through the German Ambassador there, Baron Saurma von Jelisch, has expressed the hope that the Sultan will not resist the desire of the powers for the evacuation of Thessaly by the Turkish troops.

Mr. Balfour's Good Promise.

London, July 9.—In the House of Commons to-day, in response to appeals by Irish members, that the Government should make some provision for a Catholic University in Ireland, Mr. Balfour, the First Lord of the Treasury, in a very sympathetic speech, admitted that the absence of a university was a hardship for Ireland, and said he would do his utmost in the direction of such an institution, but he said he was not in a position to make a definite promise.

ANXIETY ON ALL SIDES

In Regard to the Outcome of the Strike,

COL. REND SAYS ARBITRATE

And He Believes a Compromise at 60 Cents Would Go.

President Gompers Had a Conference With Colonel Rend, and a Suggestion for a Meeting of Arbitration Boards Was Favorably Thought of—Situation Becoming Desperate at Cleveland—Steel Company Closed Down for Want of Fuel—Chicago Railroad Companies Issue Orders to Confiscate—All Miners in Wilmington District of Illinois Are Out.

Pittsburg, July 9.—The developments of the next 12 hours promise to have a most important bearing upon the miners' strike, and anxiety as to the outcome prevails on all sides. The result of the conference of prominent labor leaders in this city to-day to consider a proposition of co-operation of various trades is awaited with anxious interest. President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor arrived in Pittsburg from Washington this morning, but at 10 o'clock he had not yet met President Ratchford or any of the other leaders. He expressed himself as desirous of aiding the strikers in every possible manner. The conference is scheduled to be held at the Monogahela House at 2 p.m. Just what is proposed is not known. It is thought that the meeting is to outline plans for making the strike general, and possibly to have the other trades organizations refuse to handle or use coal mined during the strike.

President Gompers was in conference with Colonel W. P. Rend, the wealthy coal operator of Chicago, this morning. The latter advocated arbitration. He stated that he believed the strike would terminate in the course of two or three weeks and that the men would compromise at 60 cents. The suggestion that a joint meeting of the Arbitration Boards of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Pennsylvania be held in this city next week in an effort made to settle the strike, was received with favor here and it is believed that both operators and miners would welcome it. Striking miners are beginning to find their way into town, and dozens of them visited the headquarters of the United Mine Workers' this morning.

The operators point to the fact that all the mines on the Pennsylvania Railroad within the 40-mile limit have resumed operations and are shipping coal west. One operator brought in from the Keystone Coal Company 125 cars, which had been standing on a siding, at five cents a ton advance. The firm also contracted for 25 carloads a day as long as the strike lasts.

Situation Desperate at Cleveland.

Cleveland, July 9.—The situation in this city over the coal strike is becoming desperate. The Cleveland railroads are growing bolder in confiscating coal, and those who depend upon a regular supply are becoming anxious. Several boats were delayed to-day owing to the difficulty in securing fuel. The Inter-Ocean Coal Company, one of the heaviest firms on the lakes, has only coal enough to last its customers a few days. Several other fueling firms have nearly exhausted their supply. The Pennsylvania and Ohio Fuel Company has suspended business altogether in Cleveland. There is considerable fuel in the upper lakes, and some of it may have to be brought down here. It is generally admitted now that the coal dealers and mine operators were very poorly prepared for a strike. The Morris Coal Company has ceased shipping coal altogether, and in fact coal dealers as a rule have delivered nearly all their coal. The vessel men say that the strike will cause all but the exceptionally large boats to lay up. The Cleveland Steel Company closed to-day for want of fuel.

Not a Man Answered the Call.

Wheeling, W.Va., July 9.—It had been announced by the Wheeling & Lake Erie management that its Dillon No. 2 mine at Dillonvale would resume this morning, with the miners protected by a numerous posse of United States marshals. At the blowing of the whistles not a man entered the mine. The men had met the night before and decided that if it was necessary for them to be protected by United States marshals they would not work.

Just across the river in the Wheeling Creek Valley, and back of Bellaire, on the Baltimore & Ohio road, all is quiet, there being a general observance of the strike order except at two or three banks where the operators have conceded the 60 cent rate demanded by the men.

Victory for the Strikers.

Cleveland, O., July 9.—The coal miners on the Wheeling & Lake Erie district won a great victory to-day. Col. Myron T. Herrick, receiver for the Wheeling & Lake Erie Railroad, received a private despatch at noon today, saying that only one man went to work at Dillonvale. This is the place where the receiver for the W. & L. E. decided to make a test. Mr. Herrick said that he was led to believe that the men wanted to work, and that, therefore, he secured protection for them. He fully expected that 1000 miners would go to the mines and was considerably astonished to learn that only one man reported. Twenty-five deputy marshals were on hand to protect the miners.

The B. and O. Statement.

Baltimore, Md., July 9.—The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad officials to-day gave out the following statement relative to the coal miners' strike:

"The strike situation of the Baltimore & Ohio road this morning is as follows: All mines in the Finlayville district, Willostock and gas coal region are out this morning, except Shaner. These people have enough men working to-day to load eight or ten cars for the East.

"On the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern, the conditions are as follows: Jackson County, O., miners are all out, but from the best information obtainable it is probable they will soon return to work, provided the West Virginia miners do not strike. About one-half of the Indiana and Illinois miners are out, the other half continuing at work."

The Outlook at Gloster.

Columbus, O., July 9.—W. C. Pierce, secretary of the United Mine Workers, left to-day for Gloster, O., one of the points through which West Virginia coal is passing, en route to the lakes and large western cities. He believes the miners at Gloster will not attempt to stop trains from West Virginia, but has gone there to more carefully study the situation and advise with the local committee, and also to see what there is in the pretty well authenticated stories that some of the Gloster miners have gone to West Virginia to dig coal. It was at Gloster where trouble occurred in 1894 by stopping trains.

They are All Out.

Moweaqua, Ill., July 9.—Authentic information received here to-day is that the miners are all out at Pana, Taylorville, Assumption and Decatur, as well as this place. The Pana mines will close down. Over 2000 miners are idle and not a shaft is operating in this section.

A Concession of 12 Cents.

Danville, Ill., July 9.—At a meeting of the Danville operators the mine owners agreed to offer the miners of the Danville district an advance of 12 cents per ton, if they would agree to remain at work. An advance in coal prices enables them to do this, and it is hoped that it will prevent the miners striking at their meeting next Sunday.

Confiscation at Chicago.

Chicago, July 9.—Railroad companies have issued orders to confiscate all coal being carried over their lines. The order carried confusion in its execution and local coal companies, who expected to receive special shipments to meet the demand of the day, were thrown upon their resources to overcome the difficulty. In addition to the confiscating order the price of common soft coal jumped 40 cents a ton, while the soft screenings were rated at just double the customary value. Fully 15,000 tons are loads from the mines in Southern Illinois were confiscated by the railroad companies. The seizure is made because of a recent Supreme Court opinion, when says that in case of strikes the railroad companies have the right to confiscate any coal on the property, regardless of the consignee. The railroad companies claim they are exercising their just rights in the confiscation, as they maintain their contract with the coal companies calls for a mutual understanding between them when strikes prevail they are simply taking their balance due in the contract instead of waiting until the bins were nearly empty, as heretofore.

Price is Going Up.

Cleveland, July 9.—An advance of 25 per cent. in the retail price of bituminous coal was announced yesterday, and the increase will doubtless soon reach 50 per cent. All lake shipments of bituminous coal have stopped.

Situation in Illinois.

Springfield, Ill., July 9.—The miners' strike situation in Illinois is as follows:

All the miners in the Wilmington district, 3000 in number, are out. In Springfield district most of the miners are working. In Peoria district the mines are still working, but will stop to-day. The miners at Staunton and Mount Olive have given assurance that the Bellville miners would strike, but the Bellville men at their meeting decided to go to work. At Carlinville there is no strike. Virden and Auburn mines are struck weeks ago. The miners at Assumption are out, but at Pana and Taylorville are working. At Westville, Vermillion County, the miners are out, but are at work at Danville.

PREMIERS AGAIN BANQUETTED.

Mr. Reid of New South Wales Gives Evidence of a Little Pique on the Favors Shown Laurier.

London, July 9.—The London Chamber of Commerce gave a banquet this evening to the Colonial Premiers. Owing to a slight indisposition, Sir Wilfrid Laurier was absent. The speeches were notable for the varying opinions expressed regarding the representation of the colonies in the Imperial Parliament.

Mr. G. H. Reid, the Premier of New South Wales, said there must be no misunderstanding. Any attempt to bring the colonies back into a position of relative insignificance by giving them some indefinite minor representation at Westminster would never be accepted in Australasia. He caused considerable laughter by reminding his hearers that New South Wales gave, two years ago, a freer tariff than Canada. "If this had only occurred in the Jubilee year," he said, "the Premier of New South Wales would have been the fiscal lion of the hour."

Sir Edward Brandon, Premier of Tasmania, and Mr. Richard Seddon, Premier of New Zealand, spoke strongly in favor of direct and adequate representation at Westminster.

London, July 9.—The American and Canadian librarians who have arrived in this country for the forthcoming International library conference, are being feted by the municipal authorities of Manchester, Birmingham and other large towns.

The regulations to collectors of customs in regard to the reciprocal tariff of Canada under the customs tariff, 1897, were issued to-day by the Minister of Customs, and are as follows:

"Persons making entry of goods under the Canadian reciprocal tariff of 1897 are required to furnish a separate invoice of the articles entitled to such entry, with a declaration annexed thereto from the exporter or his agent made before a notary public or a commissioner for taking oaths, or the chief municipal officer of a city or town, or a British consul, or before the president or secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, as to the origin and value of the articles. A declaration must be made that the sale invoice contains a full and true statement of the fair market value when sold for home consumption of the said goods at the time and place of the exportation thereof direct to Canada; that such fair market value includes any commissions, drawbacks, royalties, rents or charges that may have been or are expected to be allowed or paid on the said goods, or is payable on patent rights or because of the lease of such goods, or for the right of using the same, and that no different invoice or account thereof has been or will be furnished to anyone. Where invoices are made out at prices below the fair market value for consumption in the country of exportation, invoices must show in a separate column, or otherwise, by addition thereto, such fair market value."

A Vet Badly Injured.

A peculiarly distressing accident happened to Dr. W. W. Boucher, V. S., of the firm of Falls & Boucher the other afternoon. Dr. Boucher was called upon to attend a horse at Birchton. He opened his medicine case and, as he did so, a gaseous bottle of ammonia exploded, filling his eyes, nose and mouth with pure ammonia. He was thrown back at once, but his face is terribly burned. His mouth and nose were almost cooked, while his eyes have been terribly injured.

GAVE HIS CHILD DRINK.

Little Daughter of a Boston Actor Arrested and Fined for Intoxication.

Boston, July 9.—Maud Emmett, the 7-year-old daughter of Harry Emmett, the actor, was arrested and fined for drunkenness at Salisbury Beach yesterday, and to-day was brought to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children in this city. Agent Jay says that the child was with her father at the time, and that he was intoxicated also. Last winter the society found a guardian for the child, but the father, who is fond of her, had taken her away for an outing. She will be returned to the guardian's care to-morrow.

WILL ARREST MILLINERS.

The Massachusetts Legislature Made it a Crime to Sell or Wear Birds' Feathers.

Boston, July 9.—It has just been discovered that among the bills passed by the last Legislature was one making it a crime to sell or wear birds' feathers, so that every milliner in the commonwealth, and nearly every woman, is liable to arrest.

Chairman Martin of the Police Board said to-day that it would be the duty of the police to enforce this law, as well as every other, and the wholesale milliners are in high dudgeon over the prospective ruin of their business.

According to the lawyers, it makes no difference in what state the bird was killed.

JACK McLEAN IN LIMBO.

Detective Davis Makes an Early Morning Haul at Toronto Junction—A Supposed Burglar.

At 2 o'clock this morning Detective Davis went out to Mrs. Maloney's house, 24 Kingston-road, Toronto Junction, and arrested a man who has served a sentence for murder named Jack McLean. McLean is charged with being one of the men who shot at Detective Beardsley in Barrie on Wednesday, and is also suspected of being concerned in many safe-blowing cases that have occurred recently in the province. A few days ago he was ordered out of Detroit by the police authorities, and evidently came right on to Canada.

The prisoner says he is 50 years of age, although he hardly looks it. Twelve years ago he was a prosperous saloonkeeper in Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., and had a good bank account. One night the sheriff demanded admittance to his place, and McLean shot him through the heart. There is no capital punishment in Michigan, and McLean was sentenced to 35 years' imprisonment in Jackson Penitentiary. He was pardoned after ten years, and has for the past couple of years been drifting from place to place.

McLean was at one time the champion prize-fighter of Michigan State and fought against such men as Harry Gilmore, Geo. Fulljames, Mark Cheesley and others.

When arrested this morning, McLean was laying on the floor in a back room of Mrs. Maloney's house. Among his possessions was a fuse such as is used by safe-breakers. He told Mrs. Maloney that her husband, who is a notorious criminal, was one of the men arrested on Wednesday at Barrie. McLean was taken by Detective Davis and a Junction policeman to the White Bridge patrol box and the wagon brought him to the city.

QUEEN-ST. RAILWAY EXTENSION.

A Meeting of Ratepayers in East Toronto Objects to the Company's Terms.

An excited meeting of ratepayers was held in the Y.M.C.A Hall, East Toronto, last evening to discuss the terms offered by the Toronto Railway Company for the extension of their trolley system to Victoria Park. This is a matter with which the council alone is competent to deal, but the Reeve had called the meeting to obtain the general opinion.

After protracted discussion the consensus of opinion appeared to be that the company's terms were not liberal enough. Rather than agree to these some would have the company discontinue the East Toronto service altogether; others said that all in the southern portion of the village wished the extension. Angry words were exchanged, and ultimately it was agreed to leave the whole matter in the hands of the council, which meets on Tuesday night.

The telegram concludes as follows: "The concert of the powers is firm and united in its decisions. Therefore, I request Your Majesty to take my advice into earnest consideration."

TIRED OF HER LOVER.

Two Low Characters of Montreal are Lying Dead.

THE WRONG WOMAN KILLED

Rose Ann Therein Was the Victim Instead of Mme. Ouellette.

Xavier Charbonneau, After a Drunken Debauch, Killed the Woman With a Revolver and Afterwards Put a Bullet Into His Own Brain—The Heat Caused the Death of Mr. Joseph Mulholland, Formerly a Prominent Politician in Winnipeg—A New Professor at McGill.

Montreal, July 9.—(Special.)—"Go away, you dirty dog; you have ill-used her and she never wants to see your face again."

The above words were followed by the report of pistol shots and in a few seconds two of the lowest characters in the city were lying dead. The story is a horrible one, as related this evening to The World.

A few weeks ago the police raided a house on Jacques Cartier-street, kept by a woman named Meladie Ouelette, 54 years of age, who, accompanied by a young tough, named Xavier Charbonneau, moved to Constant-lane. It appears that the woman had got tired of her lover and ordered him to leave the premises. He left, but returned this morning under the influence of liquor, and, going upstairs, went to sleep. This afternoon he came down, and, asking for Mme. Ouellette, a woman present named Rose Ann Therien answered. He immediately whipped out an American 32-calibre revolver and fired. The ball pierced the woman's heart and she fell dead at her murderer's feet. Charbonneau then ran to the corner of the yard and, placing the same weapon to his head, pulled the trigger, but the cap missed fire. He then fired two shots into the ground and again raised the weapon, this time with better success, as the ball entered the brain and Charbonneau was a corpse. The police being called, the bodies of these wretched people were taken to the Morgue and tonight they are packed in ice side by side. As Charbonneau had previously threatened the Ouelette woman, it is said that she too would surely have been a victim had she been in the house at the time.

Killed by the Heat.

The heat is getting in its work, the latest victim being Mr. Joseph Mulholland, one of the best-known men in the city. He formerly lived in Winnipeg, being president of the Liberal-Conservative Association of that city. Some years ago he returned to Montreal, and, marrying Miss Bagg, settled down in this city.

Addition to McGill Faculty.

Mr. F. P. Walton, B.C.L. (Oxon), has been appointed Professor of Roman Law and Dean of the Faculty of Law at McGill University, in place of Dr. L. H. Davidson, Q.C., who has resigned as acting dean. Mr. Walton is a member of the Scotch bar.

Sudden Death of Vicar-Gen. Bourgeault.

The Vicar-General and Administrator of the Diocese of Montreal, Mgr. Bourgeault, died suddenly at the palace this evening. He was over 70 years of age and had been ailing for some time, although the end was by no means expected so soon.

CHILDREN WITHOUT ARMS

Two Have Been Born to the Cloverly Family and Both are Strong and Hearty.

Laporte, Ind., July 9.—A child was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Cloverly of Noble County last night, without arms. The infant is strong and lusty and will live.

This is the second child born to the same parents without arms. The first child, which is now 3 years of age, has been taught to use its feet with the same facility that it would its arms.

The leading bicyclists use Adams' Tutti Frutti. It allays thirst and gives staying power. Don't be imposed upon with imitations.

That Police Order.

Mr. Gooch, one of the churchwardens of St. James', stated to The World yesterday that he knew of no orders having been given to prevent factory girls from eating their lunch at noon under the trees on the Adelaide-street side of St. James' Cathedral grounds. The other churchwarden, it appears, is Lieut.-Col. Grasett, and the order was given to the police to put a stop to it. The chief constable now has the floor to explain this order. It must not be forgotten that church property pays no taxes, and it is a small piece of business to have such an order given to the police even if the property in question was not exempt.

THE BIG CONVENTION.

Completing Arrangements for the Epworth League Gathering in Toronto—Flag Drill by 100.

Milwaukee has sent its third additional list of delegates, numbering about 100; La Grange, Ga., 150; Atlanta, Ga., 50 (additional); Cleveland, Tenn., 50; Columbia, S. Car., 100.

The weekly meeting of the Local Committee of Arrangements for the Epworth League Convention was held yesterday afternoon in the board room of Wesley Buildings. Rev. Dr. Carman occupied the chair. A communication was received from the Baptist Young People's Union of the city and province, desiring to convey greetings of their body to the Epworth League. The general secretary was instructed to reply, stating that the Epworth League would be glad to receive their greetings at the opening meeting on Thursday afternoon next in the Massey Hall and Metropolitan Church.

Arrangements were completed for telephones and postoffice to be put in to the headquarters building at the Armouries. The railway authorities have also consented to establish an office at the Armouries where all railway tickets will be stamped and exchanged. This will be a great convenience to the delegates. The authorities of the Union Depot have also placed a room at the disposal of the transportation and Reception Committees, which will be a sort of railway headquarters. The young people of the different churches where state headquarters have been established will be on hand to receive the visitors and give them any information that may be necessary.

The chairman of the Local Transportation Committee, Mr. R. H. McBride, was instructed to give his attention to the matter of transportation to the Exhibition grounds on Saturday afternoon. It is greatly to be regretted that the street railway track on Dufferin-street has been torn up so that no street cars can run over it. This will involve a walk from King-street to the Exhibition grounds for all who go by the street car. Possibly arrangements can be made for trains to run on the Grand Trunk, which will take delegates direct to the grounds.

Major Thompson is making preparations for his flag drill at the Saturday afternoon meeting. He expects that fully 100 young people will take part. During this patriotic exhibition the Royal Grenadiers' Band will play national airs. It is expected that this will be a very large and enthusiastic gathering.

A Windy Doctor.

Rev. Dr. Barrows, Baptist missionary to India, has written glowingly to the Toronto headquarters regarding the work there. In his opinion the objects most worth seeing are neither the Himalayas, nor the Tomb of Akbar, nor the Temples of Madura, but the triumphs of the missionary labor.

British Association.

Mr. Cannift Haight has been appointed the agent of the Toronto Executive of the British Association, to collect from the members of the Citizens' Committee of the Association their fees as members. Mr. Haight will call personally on the members, and upon such other persons as desire to join the British Association for the Toronto meeting.

Baptist Missions.

Mr. John Stark, president of the Baptist Home Mission Board, has just returned from a tour of Great Britain, regarding which he feels much disappointed at the lack of interest shown by the Baptists there for the home mission work.
