PRINCE OF WALES AND ALBERT TO PAY THE DOMINION A VISIT

Unofficially Stated That the Imperial Princes Will Cross to the Dominion Next Summer, Take in Big Cities and Do Some Hunting.

London, Aug. 15.—It is stated unofficially, but on good authority, that arrangements are being made for the Prince of Wales and his brother Albert to pay a private visit to the Duke of Connaught in Canada during the summer vacation next year under the charge of their tutor, Henry P. Hansell.

The imperial princes are expected to remain in Canada for a month, during which time they will see something of the rising cities of Western Canada, and indulge probably in a short big-game shooting expedition.

The two youths may return home by way of the United States, staying for a few days at New York before embarking on a steamer at that port bound for England.

DIVER MEETS TRAGIC DEATH UNDER SCOW AT PORT BURWELL

Craft Overturns While Men Are at Work Forty Feet Below the Surface—One Hauled Out by Life-Line, but May Not Recover.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Port Burwell, Aug. 15.—Richard Webb, aged 40, a diver, whose home is in Port Huron, was instantly killed here late this afternoon when a sunken scow on which he was working unexpectedly toppled over on him as air was being pumped in in an effort to raise it. The body was not released until after midnight, and was found horribly crushed. Death had resulted instantly.

Webb was one of the best-known divers on the Great Lakes, and was employed by the Great Lakes Towing Company, of Cleveland, in raising a scow loaded with stone, which had sunk in forty feet of water. With another man he had been working on the submerged boat for some days, and had succeeded in getting the hatchways off on one side. Yesterday it was decided to try and float the vessel by pumping air into it.

The craft lay on its side and soon after the air was pumped in toppled over pinning Webb beneath it. His companion was caught by the rush of water and carried some distance out into the lake, but escaped with little injury.

Webb leaves a wife and six little children in Port Huron. The oldest child is only six years.

The scow belonged to M. J. Hogan, who is building th big breakwater at Port Stanley.

The work of raising it will be proceeded with at once.

ROUSED BY TREATY EVASION NEW YORKER ADVISES BOYCOTT

Wants Canadians to Refrain From Purchasing Goods in United States.

Montreal Aug. 15.—Montreal is now being flooded with circulars emanating from New York, and calling for retaliating measures against the United States for its proposed discrimination against the shipping of the world in the way of Panama Canal tolls.

The circular is signed by Mr. Murdo Roderick Macleod, and is dated New York, Aug. 12. Among the suggestions are that a systematic boycott of American products be put in operation, and that cards with the note: "We don't sell American goods here" or "We don't use American goods here," be posted in stores, public buildings and other prominent places.

That all Canadians refrain from purchasing the product of American capital, whether employed in or out of the Dominion.

That all stores displaying or stocking American products be boycotted.

That postal cards be printed for the use of importers of American produce, reading: "Do not trouble to solicit business from us by mail or salesman until the United States Senate repeals its present dishonest measure applying to Panama Canal tolls."

That all policyholders in American insurance companies promptly borrow the full limit of their policy, and invest their loans in Canadian enterprises.

Mr. Macleod closes his appeal to Canadians by predicting that the movement will be entirely successful, and that some time within the next two years the United States Senate will repeal the law, thereby placing themselves in the very humiliating position of the little boy detected stealing an apple from a store, and being made to go and put it back where he got it from.

Two Government Medical Officers Going to Assist Local Health Department.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Aug. 15.—Five living and two dead is the definitely known total of infantile paralysis in this city and the bordering section of Stamford Township. The fact that the disease was epidemic in this section was not disclosed until this morning, when Viola, the infant daughter of Arthur S. Andrews, of Victoria avenue centre, died a victim of the dread malady. The child was three years old, and had been sick but four days. The other death was that of an Italian child, living on Stanley street, just inside the city line.

The living cases are scattered throughout the city, and across the border in Stamford Township. Dr. W. W. E. Wilson, the city health officer, stated tonight that there are a number of suspected cases, both in the city and in Stamford, which will be closely examined by the provincial inspectors when they arrive in the city tomorrow.

The death of Viola Andrews, which was the second within three days, thoroughly aroused the people of the city, and the matter was at once called to the attention of the provincial health authorities at Toronto. Dr. J. W. S. McCullough, provincial health officer, was notified, and he at once ordered Dr. Bell, the health inspector for the Niagara district, and Dr. McClennan, of Toronto, to come at once to Niagara Falls and make a thorough investigatin.

The Andrews child became ill the first of the week. She was attended by Dr. H. Logan, who has three of the other five known cases under his care. The Italian boy died Tuesday. There are two additional cases in the township, according to Dr. Wilson, that have not been attended by a physician.

Dr. Wilson stated that only a mild state of quarantine has been enforced here, and that the treatment in most cases has been the open air. "In most cases," he said, "this means the front yard, and the children of the neighborhood pay frequent visits to the little patient, in many instances coming close enough to expose themselves to the disease."

The first known case of the disease in this city was that of a child that moved to Hamilton, where it recently died.

FLORENCE.

Florence, August 15. — Miss Alice Smith and Mr. Ross Walker, of Florence, were in Dresden recently.
