POLITICAL DRAMA IN OLD COUNTRY

Chamberlain to Let Liberals Have an Inning.

GOSSIP OF THE METROPOLIS

Connection of Clergymen With Liquor Traffic Causes Surprise in English Temperance Circles.

London, May 28. — Last week was essentially a political week. The big debates on the licensing bill in the House of Commons, the speech of Mr. Chamberlain at Birmingham, and the great gathering of the National Liberal Federation at Manchester, and the speeches last night on the platform of the Free Trade Hall, of Mr. John Morley and Mr. Winston Churchill, have given the politicians more than enough to digest. There can be little doubt that the speeches have done much to hurry on a big change in the political situation, and to shape the policy of the contending parties.

Mr. Chamberlain's big speech, the first since his return from Egypt, has abundantly fulfilled the hopes of his supporters. He is game as ever, and as confident of the ultimate success of his policy. He is not dismayed by recent reverses, and he is not disposed to surrender or compromise. Protectionists and free traders alike are grateful for his plain speaking — now the man in the street need not perplex himself by distinguishing between any halfway houses, and the ultimate goal which Mr. Chamberlain is leading to. The Prime Minister may go on refining, but Mr. Chamberlain is a "whole hogger," and the complete reversal of the present system and colonial preferences and protection for the British Empire is his policy.

Mr. Chamberlain has captured the majority of the Unionist party, and he is content to let the Opposition, within a reasonable time, have a short and inglorious innings, during which he hopes to capture the majority in the country. If the Liberals have a small majority, say early next year, they will, as Mr. Chamberlain believes, be at the mercy of the Irish on the one hand and the Nonconformists on the other. Then, when Mr. Chamberlain has forced a dissolution he and his protection policy will come out victorious. Meantime, he appeals to Imperialists like Lord Rosebery and the Duke of Devonshire, and to the workingman, in whose interests he claims to be working, to strive for a self-contained Empire, and a fiscal system which will bring Britishers together.

The majority of 157 for the second reading of the licensing bill on Wednesday night was a nasty blow to the temperance people in the country, who are expected to agitate against it with the same vehemence as the Nonconformists opposed the education bill. If the Prime Minister really means temperance reform he will agree to some compromise, and it is rumored Mr. Chamberlain will intervene at the right moment to bring about a modus vivendi. Neither Mr. Chamberlain nor his son has voted for the second reading, and Mr. Chamberlain, it is suspected, has a proposal which may satisfy the more reasonable members of the temperance party, and of the liquor trade alike. Many who voted for the second reading are prepared to be critical enough in committtee, and if the public outside during the next week utters a strong protest against compensation to the publican without any time limit, it is likely enough that drastic changes may be made in the bill, and then if the bill be so mutilated as to be no longer acceptable to the trade, the chances are that Mr. Balfour, taking Mr. Chamberlain's hint that the general election should not be unreasonably delayed, may go to the country. If temperance people are alive to the situation this licensing bill may yet bring about the final appeal to the only tribunal which should decide so momentous an issue.

If the time limit to a scheme of compensation, which the Solicitor-General hints may yet be accepted, be ultimately resolved upon, the bill will be probably as good a temperance measure as either party is likely to pass in our time. Mr. Balfour's plea for moderation on the part of teetotalers, and respect for the moderate drinkers, and the rational use of the public-house, may advance temperance more than fanatical zeal can ever do.

A SOUND STOMACH MEANS A CLEAR HEAD.—The high pressure of a nervous life which business men of the present day are constrained to live, makes draughts upon their vitality highly detrimental to their health. It is only by the most careful treatment that they are able to keep themselves alert and active in their various callings; many of them know the value of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills in regulating the stomach, and consequently keeping the head clear.

Germans claim that "poker" is an old German game which for more than one hundred years has been played, and is still being played, in some districts of Westphalia. Emigrants took it to the United States, where its name of "Scharwenzel" was changed into "poker."

"FORCE" keeps the brain "waked-up" all day. No matter whether you write or figure or saw wood or pound stone: You'll do it the better for eating "FORCE."

FLYING MACHINE FLEW

Successful Test Given Mechanism of the Wright Brothers,

Dayton, Ohio, May 28. — The Wright flying machine, invented by Orville and Wilbur Wright, brothers, of this city, who made a successful flight at Kitty Hawk, N. C., in December last, was given another test near this city today, which the brothers say was successful. Secrecy was maintained about the test and few witnessed it. The machine, after being propelled a hundred feet, rose twelve feet in the air and flew thirty feet, when it dropped. This was due, the navigators say, to a derangement of the gasoline engine that furnishes the power. In the fall the propellers were broken and the test could not be repeated. The Wrights decline to give any information when asked as to their future purposes.

NEURALGIA OF THE HEART

AN AILMENT WHICH TERRIFIES ITS VICTIMS—INDICATED BY PAINS ABOUT THE HEART AND QUICK LOUD BREATHING — CURED BY Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

It is quite natural to be alarmed when the heart becomes affected, but there is no reason to despair of being cured.

The great majority of heart derangements are due to exhaustion of the nerves and a watery condition of the blood. By overcoming these causes of trouble with the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, the heart will be restored to health and its action again become normal.

Mr. James G. Clark, Fosterville, York County, N. B., writes: "I have been a great sufferer from what the doctors said was neuralgia of the heart. The pain started in the back of the neck and worked down into the region of the heart. Though I had taken a lot of medicine of one kind and another, I could not get anything to help me until I used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

"When I began this treatment I could not rest in bed, except by sitting upright, on account of the dreadful pains about the heart and the quick, loud beating. The change which Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has made in my condition is wonderful. It has entirely overcome these symptoms and is making me strong and well. If this statement will help to relieve the suffering of others, you are at liberty to use it."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, six boxes for $2 50, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. To protect you against imitations, the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every box.

EACH JILTS OTHER

Bridegroom Backs and Later Bride Follows Suit.

Kalamazoo, Mich., May 28. — His wedding set for 7 p.m. yesterday, Lee Long, of Marcellus, one of South Michigan's most prominent merchants, appeared at the home of his bride-to-be, Miss Etolie Mumford, daughter of the Rev. A. W. Mumford, of Pawpaw Methodist Episcopal Church, and stated to her that he had decided not to marry.

Later when the guests had all assembled he came back and said he would marry her, but the bride refused to listen to his appeal, and despite the insistent pleadings of her parents, remained obdurate in her refusal. The wedding feast was served, but there was no bridegroom or wedding. The return of a lover who figured in a school-day romance almost at the hour set for the marriage is said to be largely responsible for the incident.

BURNED 43 VILLAGES

Details of the Recent Armenian Massacres Coming to Hand.

Paris, May 30.—The Government advices concerning the details of the Armenian massacres are not yet definite, but the official view is that the depredations are very grave.

Deputy Depressense (Socialist), who has confidential relations with the foreign office, has received a telegram from Baku saying the Turkish forces operating against the Armenians consisted of 12,000 regulars and 16,000 Kurds, with 15 guns.

The dispatch further asserts that 43 villages were burned and that their inhabitants were killed. The Armenians are said to have made a desperate resistance on the summit of Mount Antok.

STEAD ON SOUTH AFRICA

Prophesies That It Will Become Great and Prosperous.

London, May 28. — Mr. W. T. Stead has returned from South Africa, and he is enthusiastic about the country. He was surprised and delighted at the richness and beauty of the scenery, and the possibilities of future comfort and prosperity for the people which he observed. It will be something more than a mere gold mining camp when society and government have become settled. Mr. Stead was probably no lover of South Africa when he arrived, but his experience of the country has made him regard it very highly as a field for British settlers. But before we can have peace and prosperity he insists we must redeem the promises of payment made by our officers. There are millions still due to the Boers as compensation for goods taken for which receipts were given by our soldiers. The promises to pay signed and countersigned must be duly honored before the Boers can be expected to be trustful and friendly as fellow-citizens of the Empire should. The present attitude of the Boer leaders is irreproachable, but they are waiting in expectation of our officers' receipts and promises to pay for value received being redeemed — remembering that Mr. Chamberlain declared a British officer's receipt as good as a Bank of England note.

Mr. Stead, as might be expected, has no faith in Chinese labor being a success. Outside interested circles nobody wants it. It is a passing craze which the magazines will rue. On the whole, Mr. Stead is hopeful for the future. South Africa will be great and prosperous when we have set up a responsible and representative government in the Transvaal, and when we have paid our debts to those who have been despoiled by the war.

DOCTOR HAS THE PROOF.

That Dodd's Kidney Pills Are a Sure Cure for Urinary Complaints.

St. Mary's Ferry, York County, N. B., May 16.—(Special).—"Some years ago I began to suffer from pain in the back accompanied by a lethargy impossible to overcome," says Mr. Thos. Harrison, of this place, in an interview. "I was attended by a physician, but continued to grow worse and started to pass bloody urine.

"On the advice of a friend I started to use Dodd's Kidney Pills and by the time I had taken one box I passed a stone that is now in the doctor's possession. Three boxes cured me completely."

Dodd's Kidney Pills cure the Kidneys, and with sound Kidneys you need never have urinary complaints.

The Government of Holland has introduced a bill to reduce drunkenness. Persons under 18 are prohibited from entering a public house unless accompanied by an adult.

The Russian Government has elaborated statutes on general life insurance by the state. The business is to be intrusted to the Government savings banks. All kinds of policies will be issued, and the insured will participate in the profits of the business.

KNOWN TO THOUSANDS.—Parmelee's Vegetable Pills regulate the action of the secretions, purify the blood and keep the stomach and bowels free from deleterious matter. Taken according to directions they will overcome dyspepsia, eradicate biliousness, and leave the digestive organs healthy and strong to perform their functions. Their merits are well known to thousands, who know by experience how beneficial they are in giving tone to the system.

HERE COMES THE SAW FLY

Strawberry Vines Its Prey, and It Works Rapidly.

Egg Harbor City, N. J., May 28. — A new insect in this section, called the saw fly, has made its appearance in great numbers, and is threatening to destroy the strawberry crop here and at Pomona.

The insect, which resembles an ordinary fly, has a bill with which it attacks the stems of the strawberries, severing them from the plant. The farmers are at a loss to find means for fighting and destroying the new insect.

A large field here was destroyed in two days. The state will be asked to co-operate in seeking a remedy against the new destroyer.

How it Spreads.

The first package of Hem-Roid (the infallible Pile cure) that was put out went to a small town in the State of Nebraska.

It made the cure of a case of Piles that was considered hopeless.

The news spread and although this was only two years ago the demand prompted Dr. J. S. Leonhardt of Lincoln, Neb., the discoverer, to prepare it for general use. Now it is being sent to all parts of the world.

It will cure any case of Piles. There is a month's treatment in each box.

Sold for $1, with absolute guarantee.

It is for sale by druggists.

RENOUNCE THE WORLD

Two Descendants of Ponce de Leon Enter on Religious Lives.

Albany, May 28. — Miss Josephine Ponce de Leon, a lineal descendant of the discoverer of Florida, has renounced the world and taken preliminary steps to enter the life of a recluse as a member of the community of St. Dominic. The ceremony was performed in the Dominican convent in this city.

Miss Ponce de Leon is 21 years old, gifted, refined and fascinating, possessing the beauty of the dark Spanish type. She has a brother who is a member of the Order of Servites of Mary and now in a convent at Delta, Col. His name is Brother Bernard, of St. Mary. As he has taken a perpetual vow of celibacy, the celebrated name of Ponce de Leon will die with him.

LOST SINCE 1859

Search for Survivors of Wrecked U. S. Warship Begins.

Honolulu, May 30.—The United States cruiser Tacoma left on May 26 on a remarkable voyage in quest of possible survivors of the United States sloop of war Levant, which sailed from Hilo in 1859, and was never heard of afterward.

The only ground for hope of rescuing survivors lies in the chance that the Levant was wrecked on Captain Degreaves' Island, discovered a year before the wreck, but unvisited since. This island is in latitude 19° north, longitude 186° west. Degreaves found it about a mile and a half long and half a mile wide.

Degreaves tried vainly to get capitalists to advance money to explore the island for guano deposits. Two years ago, Captain Lawless, of the Oceanic Steamship Company, reported that he sighted an island which he believed was Degreaves' Island. This report induced James Duncan Hague, of Honolulu, a friend of the commander of the Levant, to urge the Navy Department to send out an expedition.

Degreaves, who is now a leper at Molokai, was seen, and gave an accurate location of the island. Hague learned that a spar of the Levant came ashore on the south coast of Hawaii. This indicated that the vessel was wrecked, not foundered, and showed the possibility of survivors. He also figured out that the course of the Levant would bring her in the vicinity of the island.

SENATOR QUAY DEAD

Famous Pennsylvanian Politician Passes Away, Aged Seventy.

Butler, Pa., May 30. — Col. M. S. Quay, senior senator for Pennsylvania, died at 2:48 Saturday, after an illness more or less persistent for the last year, which took a turn for the worse 10 days ago, and which the doctors diagnosed as chronic gastritis. The funeral will be held on Tuesday and the remains will be interred in the family burial plot in Beaver Cemetery.

Senator Quay's illness began about a year ago. It was a recurrence of the trouble that beset him during the latter part of 1900, and the early days of January, 1901, when he was undergoing the strain of a desperate fight for re-election to the senate. Col. Quay, in health, was a great eater, and his troubles of later years dated from overdraughts on his vital system, due to heavy eating, smoking and the great nervous strain which he underwent. For a long time he had complained of weakness and continued loss of strength. He began to lose flesh—at first gradually, but later pound by pound. His stomach refused to assimilate food, and nutrition failing, weakness followed. Senator Quay celebrated his 70th birthday last fall.
