LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—May has her little eccentricities like the rest of us.

—Mr. Charles Simpson, formerly of this city, is visiting friends here while on his way to Maryland, Indiana.

—Rev. Wm. Hayhurst, of this city, is to preach educational sermons in the Melrose Methodist Church at 10:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m., and at Duncrief at 2:30 p.m. next Sunday.

—After all, there is a Rev. Mr. Russell living in London. He is a new-comer, and was not here in time to get his name in the directory. His home is in the sixth ward, and he is an estimable citizen.

—A number of tramps have been hanging around the Rectory street crossing of the Grand Trunk Railway. Several of the outlying portions of the city are troubled with these knights of the road, and steps should be taken to have them looked after.

—Mr. Hyman will ask in the House of Commons to-day whether it is the intention of the Government to make a new issue of saddlery to the First Regiment of Cavalry, in lieu of that condemned by the board of officers appointed for the purpose of examining the same.

—Alfred Joyce, of the firm of Drake & Joyce, Windsor, is in the city this week supplying the calcium light for the Gathering of the Clans exhibitions in the Opera House. Mr. Joyce is an old London lad, as also is his partner, Mr. Drake, and many of his old acquaintances here have been glad to greet him once more.

—The first effects of the anti-huckstering bylaw were evidenced at the Police Court yesterday. Edward Ross, John Eggett and Mrs. Fanny McCarty were charged with violating its provisions. A legal wrangle ensued between Ed. and T. G. Meredith, respectively respresenting the hucksters and the city, as to whether the defendants were obliged to enter the box and give evidence on their own cases. Magistrate Parke adjourned the examination until Monday, the bearing of the bylaw on this technicality so be meanwhile ascertained.

—At Osgoode Hall Tuesday, the case of Griffith & Co., vs. Crocker was dealt with. Judgment on appeal by the defendants, John Crocker and Geo. K. Crocker, from the judgment of Street, J., delivered at the London Assizes on the 17th of May, 1890, in favor of the plaintiffs in an action to have a chattel mortgage made by the defendant Demare to the appellants set aside and declared to be fraudulent and void. The appeal was brought upon the question whether the chattel mortgage had been paid by the defendant Demare prior to the commencement of the action, a question turning upon the law as to the appropriation of payments. Appeal allowed with costs. Coyne (St. Thomas) for the appellants. Gibbons, Q.C., for the respondents.

—Mr. T. A. Mara, of Galt, has purchased the Levy stock of tweeds and clothing and is busy checking off stock. When completed he will announce the opening sale, and the public can look out for startling bargains.

—George Munro, manager of the Oriental Bank, India, son of C. Munro, Dufferin avenue, and brother of Samuel Munro, of John Marshall & Co., having been in India for the last fifteen years, has been here on a two months' visit. He left for England the other day, where he will remain for a short time and then return to India to take charge of the Calcutta branch of the same bank. While here he made a great many friends and was delighted with his first visit to Canada.

Where Is Fred. McKay?

At Osgoode Hall, in Chancery Chambers, Mr. Frank Denton made a statement in connection with the case of McKay vs. McKay. Fred. B. McKay, son of Gilbert McKay, Delaware avenue, Toronto, left home in September, 1882, when he was 17 years old. In 1887 Philip McKay, of London, Ont., grandfather of Fred. B., died and made his grandchild his residuary legatee. After paying all the bequests and expenses of Philip McKay's estate a residue of $13,777 was left, of which Fred. was entitled to $3,444. They have been trying to find Fred. or some trace of him, but so far all search has proved unsuccessful. The Pinkertons followed him as far as Buffalo, where he was working as brakeman on the D., L. and W. R. R. Next he shipped on board a New Bedford whaler, and that is the last known of him. Mr. Denton held that F. B. McKay was legally dead, and moved for payment out of the $3,444 standing to his credit in court. Judge Meredith refused to make an order until someone was appointed to represent the absent person.

Women's Work.

Eighteen teachers present at the W. C. T. U. meeting Tuesday afternoon were admitted into the union. Their plea that they could be of little active service in promoting the interests of temperance, as their time is fully occupied, was overruled by the argument that they are the most influential class among our citizens, and that their work lies along the more hopeful line of prevention rather than attempted cure. Several interesting reports were read, among them that referring to Police Court cases in this city. In December, 1890, 63 persons were charged with being drunk and disorderly, and the offenses of 8 additional cases were due to drink. In January, 1891, 36 persons were charged with being drunk or drunk and disorderly. In February there were 23 such persons; in March, 69; in April, 60. In December last there were 11 cases of violation of the License Act. In January there were 6 cases, in March 2 and in April 2. From May 1, 1890, to April 30, 1891, there were 75 cases of violation of the License Act before the court. Thirty-three were convicted, 42 dismissed, and $924 in fines collected.

"The Gathering of the Clans."

The clans of Scotch lads and lassies with their wonderful dancing, singing, marching and natty costumes, gathered again on the stage of the Grand Opera House last evening and delighted a much larger audience than that of the previous evening, many of those who went the first night being present a second time. In addition to repeating a few features of the first night's entertainment, a number of new choruses, dances and specialties were introduced. Miss Aggie Gilmour's solos were "Killarney" and "Doon the Burn, Davie." Zella, Frank, and John Gibson gave a comic Irish dance in addition to their ministrel speciality. The chorus, amazonian match with flowers, mountain scene with clans at rest, the Dutch dance, Jack O'Tar dance, the Highland fling, gypsy dance, Spanish dance, and the terpsichorean efforts of Misses Taylor, Galbraith, Master Frank Gibson, Messrs. Rattray, Templeton, Hodgins and Professor Walker were all good. Those who took part were: Bertha Wilson, Maggie Templeton, Lillie Meaden, Teresa Kelly, Mary Drew, Rose Austin, Jenny Adair, Mary Adair, Jessie Coffey, Bernisha Boake, V. Mainsbridge, Annie Greer, Zella Frank, Mary Templeton, Mary McDonald, Nellie Bayly, Jennie McHarg, Nellie Justice, Mamie McDonald, Maggie Johnston, Annie Jackson, Valida Taylor, Ada Phipps, Mable Addison, Lucy Ash, Kate Ash, Ethel Doidge, Minnie Poole, Lena Roberts, Ethel Colquhoun, Ida Adams, Flora Clark, Blanche Cruickshank, Cora Fairbairn, Jessie Fairgrieve, Carrie Cave, Minnie Sharpe, Bella Galbraith, Charlotte Geary, Christina Perry, Gertie Hyslop, Allie Galbraith, Maude Cruickshanks, Ellie French, Jean Galbraith, Maggie Gibson, Sarah Geary, Mabel Freeman, Lily Cave, John Dewar, Herman Rudd, Tom Bonser, Tom Fairgrieve, Lizzie Robinson, Sarah Putland, Minnie Dewar, Hattie Dewar, Maggie Fairgrieve, Maud Gibson, Aggie Gibson, John Gibson, Eva Denahey, Mabel Lenox, Dora Johnston, Lea Tomlinson, Lizzie Robertson, Edith Hodgins, Florence Mason, Lillian Shad, Minnie Kay, Maud Austin, Freeland, Nora Mainsbridge, Sarah Pitman, John Rattray, Wm. Walker, Gracey Munson, Pansy Cave, Howard Templeton, Pearl Deacon, Elsie Deacon, Becky Deacon, Allie Stinson, Maud Stinson, Alice Pugh, Annie Robinson, Lizzie Connors, May Meaden, Grace Addison, Nora Robertson, Hattie Finch, Emily Kelly, Maud Cruickshank and others. The energetic committee was composed of the following: John Robertson (chief), Thos. D. Gray, Alex. J. McRae, John Fairgrieve (secretary), John G. Jones, Thos. A. Gray, Dr. Balfour.

Stand Your Ground.

When you make up your mind to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, do not be induced to buy some other preparation instead. Clerks may claim that "ours is as good as Hood's" and all that, but the peculiar merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla cannot be equaled. Therefore have nothing to do with substitutes and insist upon having Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier and building-up medicine. w

A TRAVELER.

I have traveled the wide world over. In India, where I lived for years, I became afflicted with corns and bunions, and that more terrible disease of the feet by which so many natives are crippled, and known in India as "SAND FEET!" I have lain in the hospitals for weeks under the best medical treatment, from which I received little or no benefit, and was all but reconciled to suffer for the remainder of my life, when happily I came across that great benefaction of this 19th century, popularly known as "BARKWELL'S SURE CORN CURE." You will say I am very loud in my praise, Mr. Editor, but I have every reason to be so, and would be very ungrateful if I were not. I got a bottle three years ago and it cured me completely when everything else failed. I have every faith in Barkwell's Sure Corn Cure, and my wife and I publish it as far as we can. If Mr. Barkwell lived in India he would make a fortune out of his Corn Cure; and I am happy to subscribe my name.
