TWO RAILWAY DEPOTS AT RODNEY ROBBED

Thieves Secure Some Cash and Clothing From Trunks.

ST. THOMAS, Oct. 21.—The railway stations of the M. C. R. and Pere Marquette at Rodney were burglarized early this morning, and the cash in the tills removed. A couple of trunks at the Pere Marquette station were broken open and goods valued at about $100 taken. The robbers in each case forced an entrance by means of a crowbar through a window.

Neither of the depots are occupied after 11 o'clock. The robbery is supposed to have been committed by a gang of strangers who were around the neighborhood during the day.

CITIES WILL FIGHT FOR SHARE OF POLICE FINES

Matter To Be Discussed With Premier Drury.

The cities of Ontario are going to make a strong effort to secure a share of the police court fines levied within the province.

On Wednesday, Nov. 2, Premier E. C. Drury will meet representatives of the different centers to discuss the matter. Delegates from the cities will gather in Toronto on Nov. 2, and after choosing a speaker, the case will be presented to the premier in the afternoon.

For years the cities have been battling with the Provincial Government in an endeavor to secure a share of the fines. The cities have contended that as they are being forced to maintain the police systems they should be allowed to use the fines to lighten the burden.

So far, however, all such appeals apparently have fallen on deaf ears.

"THE COAL SITUATION, as far as we are concerned, is quite satisfactory," declared Superintendent Charles Forrester of the London division of the rand Trunk on Saturday. "We have 80,000 tons of coal stored at Fort Erie at the present time, and each day that stock is augmented. We also have 2,500 tons in stock at Sarnia, and that pile is being added to daily." Mr. Forrester stated that the daily consumption of coal on the London division was 800 tons just now, and on the Ontario lines some 2,500 tons.

THE FEDERAL DEPARTMENT in charge of elections is experiencing trouble finding ballot boxes. Locally they have appealed to Mayor Little, but will get but little help. The city has more than enough ballot boxes for its own election the day before the federal contest, but not enough for both. And there is small prospect of the county helping out. The federal contest will tie the ballot boxes up for several weeks, and, if there is a protest, for months. Thus if the county was to lend its ballot boxes, there would be the chance that when the county elections came around in January, no boxes would be available.

THE COM-TEC CLUB was organized at the Y. M. C. A. Friday night-supper hour. It was the result of a feeling on the part of the technical commercial students, under the leadership of A. D. Hone, that there was a need for a social and spiritual objective in the school. Representatives of the students and faculty met at the 4:30 p.m., with the boys' secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and drew up a constitution. This constitution and a slate of officers was voted upon by the 50 students present at the supper. The club plans to have eminent speakers address the boys on helpful subjects. One night a month they will divide into four study groups under the leadership of technical masters, for the purpose of studying life problems. The officers: Hon. president, A. D. Hone; president, Jack Appleford; first vice-president, C. Bradshaw; second vice-president, P. Birch; secretary, A. Penn; treasurer, C. Mills.

TYPHOID FEVER, which broke out last August at the Ontario Hospital and caused several patients to succumb to its effects, has again manifested itself at that institution. Dr. George Stevenson, a member of the medical staff of the above institution, is suffering from this dread disease, according to a report received by The Advertiser Saturday morning. Dr. W. J. Robinson, medical superintendent of the Ontario Hospital, could not be located Saturday morning to confirm the report, and his subordinates refuse to discuss the matter for publication. The outbreak of last summer was attributed to contaminated drinking water, resulting from the heavy storm of July 10 flooding the hospital wells. Following this epidemic city water was utilized at the hospital, and no explanation is forthcoming for the latest outbreak. Dr. Stevenson's condition was reported to be satisfactory Saturday.

COULD NOT CONVICT ON EVIDENCE GIVEN

Charge Against Otto Nesbitt and Wm. Ross Dismissed.

Harriston, Oct. 21.—Charged with being under the influence of liquor a week ago Saturday, when the truck they were driving crashed into a buggy on Main street, Palmerston, injuring Mrs. Thomas Sleeman of Wallace Township, Otto Nesbitt and William Ross, Jun., appeared before Magistrate Rabb on Friday.

The case aroused considerable interest, and was one of the longest and hardest fought O. T. A. cases heard in the district. The defendants, who had sixteen witnesses to swear they were not intoxicated, declared they did not have a drink any time during the day in question, and that when the accident occurred the steering gear of the truck had been out of order.

Lawyer Clarke of Mount Forest put up a strenuous defence, and on several occasions locked horns with Solicitor Beckett, who conducted the prosecution.

Magistrate Rabb, in giving judgment, said that in view of the evidence given he could not convict, and dismissed the case.

The charge against A. Nichol was also dismissed, there being no evidence presented to prove he was under the influence of liquor at the dance on Oct. 5, as alleged in the charge.

GREAT DIFFICULTIES IN PATH OF GREEKS

Roads in Asia Minor Compared To Pioneer Trails.

WITH THE GREEK ARMIES IN ANATOLIA, Oct. 19.—(The Associated Press).—When the Greek army set itself the task of capturing Angora it had little conception of the enormous difficulties of travel that would beset it in the remote reaches of Asia Minor.

The army has had to traverse roads which may be best compared to the pioneer trails that existed on the western plains of the United States in the early 40's. Where thoroughfares have existed at all they have been of sand or rough broken stone.

In order to avoid Kemal's powerful defensive position along the Sakaria River, to the southwest of Angora, the Greeks undertook a great detour to the southeast of Eski-Shehir, intending to flank the Nationalist army and cut off its retreat. In this desolate southern area they encountered deserts of sand and great stretches of rock. For twenty days the soldiers marched over the arid plains, finding little water and rest.

General Papoulas, commander-in-chief of the Hellenic forces, declared to the correspondent of the Associated Press, who accompanied the army that not even in the ancient days of Xenophon and Alexander were such obstacles and hardships encountered. He added that no army in modern history had equalled the achievements of the Greek troops, who covered a distance of 435 miles in less than 30 marching days.

Over the wretched roads which the country afforded all except the most powerful motor trucks broke down. To overcome some of the enormous difficulties the Greeks employed thousands of camels and oxen. But the progress of these patient animals was necessarily slow. It took weeks and weeks for supplies of munitions and food to reach the front. Then the path of the drivers was continually menaced by roving bands of Chetas, highwaymen of the East, who killed the men on sight, and captured their caravans.

LABOR IN AUSTRALIA DESERTS GOVERNMENT

London, Oct. 22.—(Canadian Press Cable.)—The Australian House of Representatives has been debating all week the movement of the Country party to enforce economy by a test vote on the estimates.

The Labor party, which proposed to vote against reduction, has now decided, under outside pressure, to support the Country party by placing the government in a precarious position.

Constant manoeuvring has been indulged in to obtain stray votes, but the present position gives the government a majority only by the casting vote of the chairman, with the Speaker voting.

The debate will be continued next week.

FORMER EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA PLANS COUP?

Vienna, Oct. 22.—Former Emperor Charles of Austria-Hungary arrived at Oedenburg, Burgenland, Friday afternoon in an aeroplane from Switzerland, according to an Oedenburg message today and is reported to be proceeding towards Budapest, escorted by Oedenburg troops.

A provisional government, the advices state has been formed in Burgenland in the ex-emperor's interest, under Count Julius Andrassy, former Austro-Hungarian foreign minister.

The district of Burgenland is disputed territory lying along the frontier between Austria and Hungary. It was awarded to Austria, but was occupied some months ago by Hungarian irregular troops, the situation there being similar to that in Fiume when that city was under the control of Captain Gabriel d'Annunzio.

CHATHAM LIBERALS ORGANIZE. Chatham, Oct. 21.—The Chatham City Liberal Association was organized at a big meeting of the city supporters of A. B. McCoig tonight. J. A. Marie Lohr Proves Winsome Marquise in The Marionettes

[By Helen McMillan.]

"After all, aren't we all Marionettes, pulled this way and that without knowing why?"

This from the lips of Marie Lohr, the lovely Marquise of last night's play at the Grand Theatre "seemed" to state the theme of the whole production, for "The Marionettes" is a society drama concerning the doing of men and women who drift hither and thither, thinking lightly of marriage bonds and repelled by virtuous modesty, which they term hypocrisy. Only "seemed," however, for the play is not allowed to come to an end without the comforting solution, "You hold the string that works the marionette," uttered by the good fairy of the play, Monsieur de Ferney.

It is hardly conceivable to think of one actress playing two such distinctive roles as "Fedora" and the "Marquise" with the success which Marie Lohr achieves. While Fedora is passionate and bold in her desire for revenge, carrying destruction in her wake, the Marquise is modest and virtuous, unable to hurt the feelings of even the lovers who follow in her train.

In only one or two instances, when for a moment the Marquise rises out of herself and confronts her husband to charge him with his lack of love for her, came glimpses of the strong emotional acting which was thrown into "Fedora." Yet Miss Lohr proved herself just as great an actress in the lighter role.

"The Marionettes" doesn't begin to compare with "Fedora" as a play. It is more loosely woven. But it has this advantage over the other. It could be played with success without a Marie Lohr, while "Fedora" would utterly fail without the presence of a great emotional actress in its cast.

"The Marionettes" is the type of play which appeals to a popular audience, and Marie Lohr, as the leading character, but adds to its success as a drama. The play is built up on the rather hackneyed theme of a quiet, unassuming wife winning the love of her husband from other women through his jealousy. Throwing aside her quiet ways, adopting the methods of these other women of the world, she soon attracts a train of followers who precipitate the love of her husband by their very attentions to her.

The play is by no means a poor one of its kind, however. Indeed, it is rich with witty repartee, and bound together with the thought that the world is filled with marionettes who are controlled by the pulling of the strings. Indeed, this thought is most humorously brought home by the actual introduction on the stage of two of the little wooden dolls.

Herbert Marshall, as the Marquis, again played opposite Miss Lohr with very great success. His role was lengthier than in "Fedora," and he played it with skill. Herbert Ross, too, had a big part in last night's play. As Monsieur de Ferney, the kindly old uncle of the Marquise, a delightful character part, he exhibited great ability as an actor, and the other members of the cast were well selected.

That a one-horse delivery wagon can make a mess of a "Tin Lizzie" was clearly demonstrated on Elora street here at noon today, when a car operated by Ward Bros. collided with Geo. Wallsey's delivery wagon in front of H. G. Lemoris'. The car was turned completely over, the windshield broken to atoms, and the two front wheels badly twisted. Apart from getting a sudden and severe shaking up the occupants of both the car and the wagon escaped unhurt.

INSPECTOR LUKEWARM OVER FRUIT ON MARKET

Fruit Inspector George Connor paid the London market a visit on Saturday and examined a number of packages that were for sale.

Mr. Connor was only lukewarm in his praise of the quality of apples offered, but stated that they were of uniform pack, with just as many culls on top as in the bottom of the baskets.

"The greater part of the apple crop is already in the hands of the buyers," declared Mr. Connor, and many carloads have been shipped to the west.

"I just saw a few potatoes that looked as if they had been put through a milk strainer," continued Mr. Connor. However, they are not all that way. I will have a better idea of the potato situation next week after a trip through Western Ontario.

Ten-Year-Old Girl Saves Street Car and Its Passengers

ST. Thomas, Oct. 21.—Standing in front of an approaching street car, and waving her hands for the conductor to put on brakes, the 10-year-old daughter of Mr and Mrs. Michael P. O'Brien, Wilson avenue south, yesterday saved the car and possibly the lives of the motorman and passengers on the avenue near Elm street.

A hole, formed by the earth caving in over the catch basin, and big enough to almost hold the car, was discovered by the child, and she managed to stop the car before it reached the danger zone. The observant and brave little one will receive some substantial recognition from the council.

W. C. T. U. WAR ON USE OF CIGARETTE

stuffs is an injury to the Canadian farmer, resolved that the Canadian buyer be urged to buy Canadian goods, and that the buyers be encouraged to insist upon satisfactory value for their money by lodging complaints of inferior quality in Canadian goods with the Women's National Bureau of Information, 193 Sparks street, Ottawa.

Whereas, persons guilty of capital offences are confined in county jails poorly equipped for their safeguarding, and where such a prisoner is to pay the extreme penalty in a community where he is known and suffers from morbid excitement and high nervous strain, resolved that the Government be petitioned to enact that such a prisoner after sentence has been given be removed to some central place properly equipped, and that he suffer the penalty in that place and not in the county towns as heretofore.

Resolved, that we reiterate our petitions regarding the sustenance of a prisoner's family during his term of imprisonment, and that we urge that he be compelled to earn his living, and at least aid in supporting those who are dependent on him by some system of personal labor.

Want Women Censors.

Whereas the movies are here to stay, for the recreation of thousands, resolved that we appoint a deputation to interview the Legislature to protest against any reduction in the censorship board and request that more women be appointed on said boards.

Because of the necessity that exists for continuous and increased attention to the study of scientific temperance, that the coming voters, who are now in the school may be prepared to intelligently and steadfastly support, enforce and perfect our prohibitory laws, resolved that we prepare ourselves for helpfulness along every line in and out of the schools, both with teachers and pupils, also school boards.

Resolved that we desire to express our gratitude for the untiring efforts of the premier and Government through the services of Attorney-General W. E. Raney, who, in the face of the sharps and malicious criticism hurled at his department by men in high places, withal stood, and still stands, for the enforcement of the Ontario temperance act.

Oppose Racetracks.

That we stand unflinchingly opposed to racetrack gambling and its degradinfi influence on our people and commend the attitude of Attorney-General Raney.

That we appeal for legislation to have women jurors in cases concerning women and children.

Whereas it has been found that no evil can be regulated and that regulation of evil is contrary to Divine Law, resolved that we press for Dominion prohibition and stand, as ever, opposed to any form of license or Government control, as being in opposition to the will of the people and direct opposition to God's plans.

Adopt Recommendations.

Recommendations from the plan of work committee were as follows:

"Recommended that in whatever way shall be deemed best that something be done toward procuring legislation upon the matter of treatment of alcohol used for manufacturing purposes to render it non-potable before it is shipped from the distillery.

Resolved, that the present laws of our country regarding the smoking of cigarettes by minors are not strictly enforced, hereby memorialize the Provincial Women's Christian Temperance Union to ask the minister of justice for a thorough enforcement of these laws now on our statute books.

Whereas, we realize with sorrow the deplorable consumption of cigarettes among the growing youth of our province, we recommend that the W. C. T. U. members manifest their loyalty to our principles by appointing a superintendent, taking up the subject educationally in one or more local meetings, seeing that every public and high school teacher is supplied, with copies of both Dominion and provincial statutes, reaching the children through any available avenue, and securing respect for the law by making complaint to the officers of the law where there is clear need of better enforcement.

Urge Use of Franchise.

That whereas the women of Ontario have been granted the franchise, that we use it to initiate and support laws that will protect women and children in the home and industry, and to work for the election of men and women who will stand for purity and political equality, and to the extinction of the liquor traffic and sale of cigarettes to minors.

Some discussion took place regarding the prevalence of smoking of cigarettes among women, especially young women. Two delegates reported that while on their way to London from Brantford they saw a young woman get on the train smoking a cigarette. When she took her seat among the passengers a man in the car asked her to go into the smoking compartment, and she finished her smoke there.

Leave Bilingualism Alone.

Mrs. Haskett of Ottawa endeavored to bring in a resolution urging the teaching of French in the schools, but was unsuccessful. She stated that she had been an enumerator in the last census at Ottawa, and was surprised to find that all the highly-paid positions were occupied by those who could speak and write French. The delegates decided that the bi-lingual question was a good one for them to leave alone.

Col. Magee, who is in charge of the Westminster Psychopathic Hospital, was introduced, and gave a brief address regarding the work that is being done for the soldiers.

It was decided to hold the next meeting at Oshawa.

The place was not overly clean and yet the members of the family were in a healthy condition, but had no place to go.

Executive Officer Appleyard of Children's Aid Society was notified by the police and he took charge of the children, placing them in the children's shelter in this city until the father can secure a decent place in which to house his family.

CANADIAN STOCKS

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, Oct. 22—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—Equipments and oils were active and strong at the opening of today's stock market. Haskell and Barker soon advanced 5½ points in connection with reports of a merger with the Pullman Company. Mexican Petroleum added 3 points to yesterday's 7-point rise. Houston Oil was 2 points higher. Rails were not materially strengthened by latest developments in the strike situation. Steels were irregular on the mixed trade conditions reported from Pittsburg and other industrail centers.

MONTREAL STOCKS

Montreal, Oct. 22.—Trading on the local stock exchange during the first half hour this morning was very interesting, more than usual activity being shown among the leaders, several of which registered substantial advances. Abitibi sold at 33⅝, after closing at 32¼ yesterday afternoon, while Atlantic Sugar was quoted ½ point higher at 28½. Brompton changed hands ¼ point up at 24¼. National Breweries rose ⅝ to 56½. Riordon appeared ⅛ higher at 51⅛. Spanish River gained a point to 63, and Wayagamack rose from its closing quotation at 44½ to 46¼.

WALL STREET REVIEW

New York, Oct. 22.—Business on the stock exchange this week was influenced almost entirely by the threatened railroad strike. Transportation shares of the better class lost 1 to 3 points, but selling relaxed later on news that the unions and executives were to come before the Railroad Labor Board next week.

Trading in other stocks was irregular and preponderantly professional. That element favored oils and equipments, and directed fresh pressure against steels. The latter were in disfavor because of the unsatisfactory earnings presented for the third quarter. There was a slight diminution in demand for high-grade bonds, and the ocasional liquidation of Liberty issues was attributed to the offerings of small wage-earners at centers o findustrial depression.

Money rates stiffened for a time on extensive federal withdrawals, but eased as funds came from interior sources. Many loans extending into next year were made at prevailing rates, and a better demand was reported for commercial paper.

Have You Burned Nukol

The Economical Fuel?

If not, you should order a ton at once. You will find it much easier to kindle than lump anthracite on account of the binder used. This binder has a higher fuel value than coal.

And remember, you have no clinkers with NUKOL.
