Chinese School Boys

The Chinese school children have instill d into them at an early age habits of hard, steady stud, At the age of five a boy begins his schooling At day light he rises, and after dressing as quickly as possible he starts breakfast bless to school He is given a task and after it is completed he is allowed an hour for breakfast again, later he has an hour for luncheon but he is at his study nearly twelve hours a day, seven days in the week All his time, when he is not reciting his lessons, he is studying aloud at the top of his voice He is under the eyes of his master both in school and on his way to and from school The lad is taught rudimental astronomy physics, and natural history, but greater stress is put upon writing and his literary studies. A Thousand Letters, a poem is the study that forms the backbone of his literary education In it are taught the duties of children to parents and all such matters. Whatever the study may be, history classes or science every lesson is learned and repeated word for word

The Snow Helper

With a soft white [illegible]
It covered mamma's roses
It assisted papa greatly
With his logging [illegible] the year
Aunt Dinah laughed [illegible]
For it whitened on her [illegible]
It took the snow so quickly
From Mary's frost bit [illegible]
It made the day all [illegible]
For poor lame Brother Ned
By giving him a ride upon
His double runner sled
Most everything gives [illegible]
To some one [illegible]
Say now you all take notice
To see if it isn't so

PUPILS' LOCALS

From the Girls' Side of the Institute

BY EDITH WYLIE

We have had changeable weather lately.

Spring will soon be here [illegible] are so glad.

We are sorry to say that [illegible] son, the youngest son of our [illegible] confined at home with la grippe [illegible] hope for his speedy recovery

On the 30th ult. Miss A. H[illegible] was much pleased to get a photo [illegible] friend Mary McGillivray her [illegible] her brother Neil We don't think [illegible] is much changed

A few days ago one of our ladies, Annie Gilleland, received [illegible] of candies from a friend of hers [illegible] here three years ago She says [illegible] much pleased with them

Mr and Mrs C. Barlow [illegible] Institution, are the proud fathers [illegible] mother of a little son which [illegible] to them on February 8th We [illegible] to them our congratulations.

On the evening of Feb [illegible] Douglas kindly gave us a magic [illegible] exhibition in the chapel On [illegible] of being so rainy all the afternoon [illegible] course, we enjoyed seeing the [illegible] over again

On the 5th inst Florence H[illegible] called home on account of her father's death His body was [illegible] Napance for burial on Monday [illegible] sympathize with Florence in [illegible] her dear grandfather

One of the girls got a letter [illegible] Jessie Brown who remained [illegible] this year on account of not being [illegible] good health. She says that her [illegible] is improving very much and she [illegible] to be at school next year

On the 29th ult., Miss Ella [illegible] a sister of Ida, came here to [illegible] and Ida was greatly surprised [illegible] had not expected her She stayed [illegible] Ida for a few days and left on M[illegible] last. We all hope she had a [illegible] visit Ida's foot is improving much

Say, now, we girls are [illegible] headway Why, only two we[illegible] some of us attempted to play [illegible] and the boys said we did splendid [illegible] Only one or two were more frequent on their knees and back than on [illegible] feet, but I am sure that was the [illegible] the ice and not want of skill [illegible] Just wait a wee and you will [illegible] we can very well bear comparison [illegible] our American sisters.

The 30th ult. was the birthday [illegible] one of our teachers, Mr Denyes [illegible] girl pupils gave him an address [illegible] follows
