20 YEARS ECZEMA CURED BY ZAM-BUK

Mr. W. H. Leason, of Wychwood, Ont., says: "For 20 years I suffered from Eczema. My body and legs were covered with spots which itched and irritated terribly. My legs down to the knee were like one mass of sores. These discharged and were very unpleasant apart from the pain. I had tried all kinds of remedies (salves, ointments and embrocations) and came to the conclusion that nothing would cure me. A sample of ZAM-BUK was given to me one day, and I applied it to a small patch of the eczema. This did me some good and I obtained a full supply of the balm. The first box was a revelation to me as to ZAM-BUK'S power. It took away the smarting and reduced the irritation and itching. It took several boxes of ZAM-BUK to work a cure, and I am glad to say that in a few weeks it cured me completely. In my opinion, ZAM-BUK IS WORTH ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD."

CORTELYOU'S PLAN BRINGS OUT HOARDS

Wall Street Now Able To Stop the Importation of Gold.

New York, Nov. 18. — Gratification was the prevailing tone in banking circles today over the Government's plan for relief for the money market by the issue of $50,000,000 in Panama bonds, and $100,000,000 in one-year treasury certificates.

The issue of Panama bonds had been counted upon as a probability since it was first referred to some ten days ago. The issue of short-term certificates was more of a novelty and as such attracted more discussion.

The general opinion in banking circles was that both measures would tend to draw idle money from private hoards and thereby break the premium on currency and restore normal conditions in the money market. So strong is this feeling that it is thought all gold engagements will cease today.

International bankers declared that the gold already engaged is as much as New York can justly take from Europe under the strained conditions which prevail there and that to take more will only compel its return later on. The amount already taken or engaged approaches $70,000,000, which is much more than the most sanguine predicted at the beginning of the movement about three weeks ago.

It is not considered desirable to force the Bank of England to raise its discount rate to eight per cent as has been talked of in London, nor to force the German rate any higher than the seven and a half per cent, which it has already reached. If more gold were desired the issue of short-term certificates would afford just the sort of security which the Bank of France has been disposed to insist upon during the recent negotiations through Mr. Morgan's house.

The issue of short-term obligations, bankers declare, will admirably meet the demands of the present, because they can be taken up and paid for on the expiration of their term from the treasury cash balance, which can then be withdrawn from the national banks.

An excess of cash will be on deposit in the banks, according to all past precedent, in event of business depression in periods of depression for which there is little call for investment in new enterprises.

It is declared by bankers that financial and political conditions are infinitely more favorable at the present than they were when the gold reserve was almost wrecked and the possibility of a change of money standard was confronting the country. It is their belief, therefore, that subscriptions for the certificates are likely to be large and likely to draw out much hoarded capital. Secretary Cortelyou is counted upon to deposit the proceeds of both classes of securities at once in the national banks, where they will be available for general circulation. The premium on currency showed signs of weakening today, being quoted at from one and a half to two and a half per cent. Bankers declared that it would disappear before bids closed for the treasury certificates and that the monetary phase of the crisis would then tend to pass away.

BANK MERGER RUMOR

Montreal, Nov. 18.—For some time past there have been rumors that the Quebec and Union Banks would amalgamate, and today it was stated in well-informed circles that negotiations are now in progress. A prominent Montreal financier, who is pretty familiar with all that is going on, said: "So far as I know, there has been no particular hitch in the amalgamation plan, and to the best of my belief the deal will be consummated. Some time ago I heard that there was a little difference of opinion over the selection of a name for the combined bank, as, very naturally, neither bank wanted to lose its identity. The Quebec Bank is the second oldest in Canada, in fact is only one year younger than the Bank of Montreal. The Union, on the other hand, considers its name a very valuable one, as it is extremely well known and has a very extensive and profitable system of branches, especially throughout the west. However, this matter will scarcely block the project, and I believe the two banks will be brought together in a short time. Their union would make the new bank the fourth largest in Canada."

PREMIER'S NEW AUTO

Ottawa, Nov. 18.—Sir Wilfrid and Lady Laurier have joined the ranks of the automobilists, and are now possessors of probably the finest motor car in Ottawa. A new English touring car, valued at about $8,000, arrived in the city a few days ago for Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and is now in commission. It was manufactured at Newcastle-on-Tyne, England, where Sir Wilfrid inspected the works last summer. The car is one of 30-horsepower, and a speed capacity of 50 miles per hour. The closed apartment in the rear of the car will accommodate five persons. It is very finely upholstered, and illuminated with electric lights, the current for which is supplied from a storage battery.

WALL STREET GOT CANADIAN MONEY

Dominion Banks Put a Large Amount of Money Where Readily Realizable.

Ottawa, Nov. 18.—The loans by Canadian bansk in the foreign markets (mostly in New York) amounted in September to $63,158,601, and are understood to have been slightly reduced during October. Although the banks are criticised in some quarters for loaning money in New York when it is so difficult to obtain it in Canada, the defense of the Canadian bank managers for their course in this matter is that New York call loans can be realized on much more readily than those of a similar nature in Canadian stocks and bonds, and that their New York loans therefore constitute a sort of cash box upon which they can draw whenever they require funds.

Government Aiding.

Ottawa, Nov. 18.—Hon. W. S Fielding is in Montreal today for the further discussion, it is understood, of the arrangement with the banks to relieve the money stringency in the west. This arrangement between the Dominion Government and the banks to assist in getting out the damaged portion of the crop will go into effect without further delay.

Montreal, Nov. 18. — The Canadian chartered banks now have $63,158,691 out in call loans in Wall street; of this amount the Bank of Montreal has $32,000,000. Owing to the peculiar conditions existing in the money markets they are unable to accomplish the one particular purpose for which it is placed there. Usually quite a large amount is carried in Wall street because the Canadian banks find that under normal conditions they can call any portion of their loans and secure the desired cash. In the present crisis they have not been able to get the cash, as where they would call loans they would get clearing house receipts, and the clearing house has not had enough gold with which to meet these receipts. On this account the Canadian banks, in their endeavor to straighten their position, have not been able to realize on their call loans, and instead have been forced to cut down their current loans in Canada.

NEW RATES JANUARY FIRST

Railways Are Given Until Then To Arrange the New Schedule.

Ottawa, Nov. 18.—The board of railway commissioners has given the railway companies until Jan. 1 to file the new rates on eastbound traffic from Windsor, Sarnia and other points, as ordered by the board last July. When the order was issued to the railway companies to make a substantial reduction in freight rates, so as to do away with the present discrimination in favor of traffic originating at Detroit, Port Huron or other American points, no definite date was set for the new rates to come into force. It was hoped that the railways could have their new schedule made up and in force by now, but the task has been found to be a very complicated and difficult one, in view of the immense number of commodities to be classified, etc. The request of the railways for an extension of time to Jan. 1 is regarded by the board as being reasonable under the circumstances. The Canadian Manufacturers' Association last week addressed a memorial to the board, complaining of the delay in putting the new rates into force.

It took 44 men 35 days to count the $267,836,166 26 in the New York sub-treasury. The cash balanced to a cent.

BENNETT'S HAVE THE REAL THING

Big Attractions Being Offered at the Popular Play House.

There are two acts on Bennett's bill this week which should pack the theater to its capacity at every performance. One is the act of the Eight Bedouin Arabs, and the other is that of Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Crane.

Beyond a doubt the Arabs have the best act exhibiting feats of strength and marvelous tumbling ever seen in Canada, or for that matter in the whole of America. To say this is to but feebly attempt to convey an idea of how good the act is. It is simply marvelous, astonishing. Such whirlwind work appeals to all. It is magnificent. To particularize in one instance, it may be pointed out that one man in the party is able to support the other seven, and he never quivers a muscle. All former acts of the kind are made to appear as amateurs. The Arabs are surely kings.

"Am I Your Wife?" the sketch of Mr. and Mrs. Crane, is the most ludicrous, laughable uproar it is possible to imagine. It is built around a case of mistaken identity of two brothers. As Mrs. Munroe, Mrs. Grane gets mixed as to which of twin brothers she is married to. Mr. Crane plays the dual role of Tom and Jack Monroe. It's a breezy, lifey act, with a roar in every line, and it is put on in a finished manner by Mr. and Mrs. Crane, both of whom are artists of much ability. They don't overdo it. They have too much talent for that. They know their business, and Monday afternoon and night, the audience laughed itself tired, at this cyclone of humor. Manager Elms is to be congratulated upon securing this attraction.

"The Kountry Kids," an act put on by a dozen girls and boys, is fair, but appears amateurish. Probably it's not in working order as yet.

Ed. Grey, the story teller, tells tales for twenty minutes, and judging by the applause he received, the audience would be willing to listen to him for twenty hours. He has good stories, and he tells them well.

Steely and Edwards have a good musical act, with a piano imitation of the Galveston cyclone, which would alone stamp the act a success. Some of the comedy is crisp and catching.

Shields and Rodgers, the lasso throwers, are all right, and so are Adamini and Taylor, the Italian street musicians.

It is a truly big vaudeville bill, and should not be missed.

Professor Stevens' orchestra renders a dainty musical programme worthy of mention.

TO EXCLUDE HINDUS FROM UNITED STATES

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 18.—J. H. Clark, American immigration commissioner for Canada, with headquarters at Montreal, has decided, after investigation here, to recommend to the Government at Washington the enactment of legislation to exclude Hindus from the United States. In view of the recent riots at Bellingham and Everett, Washington, the Government has been given much concern by the Hindu problem. Thousands of Hindus have gone from Vancouver south this year to logging and railway camps in Washington and Oregon, and the fruit ranches of California.

THE LIGHT COMPANY OFFERS TO CONFER

Toronto, Nov. 18.—The Toronto Electric Light Company has offered to confer with the city in an attempt to make some arrangement to avoid a duplicate distribution plant in Toronto.

It is understood that the suggestion will be made that some arrangement similar to that with the Consumers' Gas Company be entered into, giving the city representation on the board of directors, and limiting the dividend of the company by reducing the price of power and light. This view of the matter was confirmed by Sir Henry Pellatt this afternoon.

"The city," said Sir Henry, "would be represented on our directorate, and the rates would be reduced according to a regular scale, to be decided by the profits of the previous year."

PORTLAND'S WHISKERS

More Startling Evidence in the Druce Case by American Witness.

London, Nov. 18.—The venue in the Druce case, involving the claim to the Duke of Portland's estates, was transferred from the Marylebone to the Clerkenwell police court today.

Robert C. Caldwell, of New York, who continued his testimony, made the somewhat astonishing statement that the fifth Duke of Portland, wearing the whiskers in which he is said to have disguised himself as the late Thomas Charles Druce, was walking about the Baker street bazar, talking to residents, just before the coffin supposed to hold Druce's body left the premises.

Miss Mary Robinson, said to be the daughter of a southern planter, testified that the diary which figures in the case, was stolen from her in the street on Nov. 2.

The magistrate was informed that a certified copy of the diary had been taken by counsel before the book was lost.

Continuing, Miss Robinson said she was introduced to T. C. Druce, whom she also knew as Welbeck, and later as the Duke of Portland.

The case was again adjourned.

POOR OLD TORONTO

Toronto, Nov. 18. — The judicial committee of the Privy Council has dismissed the appeal of the city of Toronto vs. C. P. R., and orders that the appellants pay the costs.

A cablegram to this effect came from London this morning, announcing the defeat of the city in its attempt to force the Canadian Pacific Railway Company to pay the full cost of protecting the level crossings at Bathurst street (north), Dufferin street and Avenue road.

The immediate effect of the judgment is that the city must pay a bill of $4,677 11, its share of protecting the crossings from Dec. 31, 1901, to March 31, 1906.

It also means that the city must pay $1,100 a year for the future to the C. P. R.

But not only the C. P. R. but the Grand Trunk is involved, and the city must pay nearly $2,800 a year to this railway company also.

If the city had won every level crossing in Ontario would have been affected, and the railway companies, it is estimated, would be liable for fully $1,000,000 a year, which the municipalities now pay.

The city had lost in the high court and court of appeal, and had gone direct from this latter court to the privy council.
