UNDERGROUND WIRES.

The Question Discussed by Aldermen and Electricians.

The Board of Works is anxious to arrange matters regarding underground wires on the streets where the new pavement is to be laid. Yesterday afternoon a conference was held with the representatives of the several companies holding pole and wire privileges in the streets.

Mr. H. P. Dwight of the Great Northwestern Telegraph Co. said that there were only four poles belonging to the company he represented in King-street, and these stood inside the kerb. He saw no reason why these should interfere with the paving of the street.

Mr. J. J. Wright of the Toronto Electric Light Company gave an account of the attempts he had made to get the necessary permission from the City Engineer to lay underground wires. He had opened negotiations with Mr. Jennings and he had resigned. Then Mr. Wright made arrangements with Mr. Cuningham and he resigned. Mr. Rust had now granted his permission and his situation was not permanent. It was an absolute necessity that the putting of electric light wires in conduits be experimented with before the company expend several thousands of dollars in putting the wires down all over the city. He was sure that the electric light wires could be put on the trolley poles provided, of course, that a special high pole be adopted.

Mr. K. J. Dunstan of the Bell Telephone Company explained that all the wires in King and Yonge-streets belonging to the company he represented were underground already according to agreement. There were many "dead" wires in Yonge-street, but the company's experienced linemen were busy at this season of the year, and he did not think it advisable to set them at taking down dead wires that might be removed at any time. The wires in no way interfered with the laying of the pavement.

Mr. H. A. Everett of the Street Railway assured the committee that his company would be very ready to come to any equitable agreement whereby the different companies may use the trolley poles.

Mr. D. Gibson of the City Fire Alarm Telegraph, Hugh Neilson of the Bell Telephone Company and F. Nicholls of the Incandescent Electric Light Company were present and concurred in the views expressed. They will meet in Mr. Everett's office this morning to further consider the matter and to come to some agreement.

ALD. SMALL'S SARCASM.

He Suggests a Crematory For Dogs Be Put Up Near Riverdale Park.

The Board of Health held a short session yesterday to finally settle which site should be adopted for the Isolation Hospital. City Surveyor Sankey explained a number of plans showing the exact position of the hospital. The site suggested by the Surveyor and finally decided upon by the board was a lot directly west of the jail, fronting on Gerrard-street, and not at all encroaching on the park lands.

Ald. Small wished to put himself on record as most decidedly opposed to the erection of such a building in the vicinity of the only park accessible to the 30,000 people living east of the Don. He expressed deep regret that the Mayor had used his influence to assist in carrying out such an outrageous proposal. He promised to lay before the council a resolution stating that steps be at once taken to secure a suitable park east of the Don. He exhorted the Board not to stint themselves in the matter of ground space, and sarcastically suggested that they consider the advisability of erecting in the neighborhood a crematory for the destruction of dogs.

THE COUNTY FATHERS.

Matters Miscellaneous Discussed by Them at Yesterday's Session.

The County Council decided yesterday to grant $125 to Newmarket for the purpose of building a new steel bridge there, and $1150 was voted to build an approach to the south flume at Sutton.

Timothy Day's case was discussed at length. He was an inmate of the Industrial, and when he died his body was taken to the dissecting table instead of the cemetery. The council is trying to find out who is responsible for this.

The Attorney-General has consented to the laying of an indictment against the City of Toronto and Gooderham & Worts for maintaining the Ashbridge's Bay nuisance.

Plot to Murder a French Legal Officer

PARIS, June 16.—M. Cruppi, the French Advocate-General, caused a great deal of sensation at the trial of three Revolutionist editors before the Assize Court of the Seine, when he announced that some foreign Anarchists had organized a plot for the murder of M. Quesnay de Beaurepaire, the Procurator-General of the Republic. Information has even reached the judicial authorities that a person is actually in Paris waiting for an opportunity to slay the Procurator-General, who is the best-guarded man in Paris at the present moment. The trial at which these statements were made was that of MM. Zo d'Axa, Mery, an Anarchist poet, and Maths, all connected with an inflammatory periodical called The En Dehors. In the newspaper with which they were connected there appeared from time to time the most virulent articles against officers of the army and the most inflammable appeals to soldiers to mutiny and desert. The prisoners were also charged with countenancing the dynamiter, inciting to murder and pillage and advising Anarchists to discover as soon as possible the whereabouts of Lherot, who had caused Ravachol's arrest. Mery, the verse writer, was ably defended, his lawyer pleading that he was only responsible for the articles on the army, which he wrote after having been shocked by the brutality evinced by several non-commissioned officers towards the soldiers under them. The lawyer also quoted a passage from the "Souvenir d'Enfance" of M. Renan, who said that had he been a soldier he would have deserted or committed suicide, and that the strict obedience required in the army after the German fashion killed genius and talent. Thanks to all this reasoning and quotations M. Mery was let off with three months' imprisonment. MM. Zo d'Axa and Maths were each sent to prison for a term of 18 months and condemned to a fine of £80.

New Publications of the Canadian Institute.

The latest issue of the Transactions of the Canadian Institute is a volume of great interest. "Some Effects of Christianity on Politics," by the Hon. W. Proudfoot, is the opening article, and is succeeded by an interesting paper by Mr. Arthur Harvey, "Celtic, Roman and Greek in France," a reminiscence of his visit to the Montpellier Congress of Romance Philologers. Rev. Prof. Campbell contributes a paper on "Siberian Inscriptions," and Mr. David Boyle an interesting biographical note on John McLean, the discoverer of the great falls of Labrador. "Electoral Representation" is an important contribution by Mr. Sandford Fleming, C.M.G., LL.D. Other interesting papers are on "Peach Yellows" by W. E. Shaw, M.D., "Studies on the Blood of Amphibia," by A. B. Macallum, M.A., Ph. D., "The Administration of Lieut.-Governor Simcoe," by Capt. Cruikshank, and "Iron and Steel Production in Ontario," by W. H. Merritt, F.G.S.

Dr. Sandford Fleming's note on Electoral Representation, with copious notes and an explanation of the terms upon which the thousand dollars recently contributed by a friend is to be competed for is the subject of another good-sized pamphlet of 175 pages. Both are important productions.

Hard and soft corns cannot withstand Holloway's Corn Cure; it is effectual every time. Get a bottle at once and be happy.

Spreading the Truth.

During May the colporteurs of the Upper Canada Tract Society visited 661 families and sold 579 Bibles and religious books in Ontario and Manitoba, giving to the poor free wherever needed. Mr. Bone distributed on the Welland Canal 2442 papers, tracts and magazines in addition to his sales.

CARGILL'S SEAT SAFE.

The Case Against East Bruce's Representative is Withdrawn.

The motion for interim alimony in the suit of Greaves v. Greaves was enlarged for one week.

A motion was made yesterday to have the election petition against Samuel Hughes, M.P., set aside on the ground that it had never been served. The law student entrusted with service of the petition, not knowing Mr. Hughes, served the wrong man, at the Parliament buildings, Ottawa, and cannot now identify the man he served. Judgment was reserved.

Winnifred Hall is suing the city of Ottawa for $2000 damages for the death of her husband.

The petition against the return of Henry Cargill, M.P. for East Bruce, has been withdrawn, the matter having been settled out of court.

UMBRELLAS

We propose to adopt the following method of increasing the circulation of the Canadian Music Folio and extending our music trade. Every person who has a piano, organ, band instrument or musical instrument of any kind or is interested in music in any way will profit by helping us. We want to reach the consumers direct and supply all the standard and latest music at trade rates, in proof of which we quote the following copyright music among the contents of our next number, which in a retail way would cost $2.40: Ta-ra-ra-boom (Polka), A.L.E.D., 40c.; Geraldine (Waltz), Hutchins, 60c.; Sylvia (Bag-Ton), Monk, 40c.; Love's Sorrow (Vocal), Shelley, 50c.; Only Promise (Vocal), Howard, 50c. We ask our subscribers to send us the name of one piece they desire, and that selected by a majority will be published in our next issue. Do not lose sight of the fact that in addition to receiving $25.00 worth of music in our Folio per year, you can save one-half or more on all orders you place with us. We do not advertise to give everything, but we give everything we advertise, and would ask you not to associate our business or methods with those that might appear at first sight to be of a similar nature. Read this carefully, think over it, and in addition to your own judgment we invite the inspection of Toronto's three leading daily papers to corroborate our statement regarding the merit of it.

A special offer to bands. The town or village sending in the largest number of subscribers over thirty for one year's subscription at $2.00 each, to their band will be given a complete suit of uniform or band instruments to the value of $300, and to the smallest number above ten sent in, a complete set of caps. Each subscription received from individuals from towns and villages is also credited to their band list, thereby placing your band in a position to win the prize.

The above cut represents a fence on which a sign of three words has been painted, which has been pulled down and in being rebuilt the boards were misplaced. Cut out the letters, paste them on a piece of paper so that the three words thereon will read in their proper sense, and enclose with same thirty cents in silver (or 10 three-cent stamps) by letter to us for one month's trial subscription to the Folio. The proprietors of the Canadian Music Folio will give an elegant Upright Piano manufactured by The Mendelssohn Piano Company, Toronto, one of the most reliable makers in Canada, (catalogued price of which is $550.00 with manufacturers' guarantee for five years,) to the 10th person sending in the correct answer to above puzzle. To the 20th sending in a correct answer will be given a Solid Gold Watch ($85.00); to the 30th, 40th and 50th, a pair of Genuine Diamond Earrings ($30.00 each); to the 60th, 70th, 80th and 90th, choice of fine Guitar, Banjo or Violin ($15.00 each); to the 100th, a beautiful Music Box ($30.00); to each succeeding 25th to the close will be given a valuable bound album of English music for any voice or instrument selected by the winner, and to each of the last fifty will be given the Folio free for one year. This is your opportunity to get good music cheap by responding quickly and inducing all your friends to do likewise. To all those who are bandsmen or interested in band business we pay particular attention to this their greatest chance of not only equipping themselves thoroughly with either instruments or uniforms, but of placing themselves in connection with the publishers direct, thereby securing all music they desire at trade rates. Do not forget that under any circumstances you will receive eight times the value of your remittance in any one number. Each letter will be numbered in order received before being opened, and Mr. Thos. Fane, of Toronto, the best-known and largest bicycle manufacturer in Canada, has kindly consented to open the letters and announce the names of prize-winners. We cordially invite all subscribers to our office when in the city. All answers must be mailed to us by July 10th. Address: CANADIAN MUSIC FOLIO, 35 Bay St., Toronto, Ont.
