NORDICA BEGINS FIGHT ON WILL OF HER AUNT

Prima Donna Declares Document "Insane" Which Exacts Oath Not to Give Money For Religion

Boston, March 16—Questioning the sanity of Mrs. A. F. Allen, of Malden, her aunt by marriage, Madame Lillian Nordica, the famous prima donna, together with Mrs. Anna N. Baldwin, of Boston; Imogene A. Costello, of Los Angeles, and Irene A. Walker, of New York, has filed a notice in the probate court at East Cambridge that she will contest the will in which the four are cut off from shares in the estate of $100,000 because "they are amply provided with this world's goods."

In an interview the prima donna calls the will "insane," and says she will never subscribe to an oath demanded of the beneficiaries to give nothing received to religion.

"It is a horrible oath, and I would not subscribe to it for all the money in the world," the diva put it in the drawing room of her suite at the Hotel Touraine.

Under these conditions, the singer pointed out, not a penny could be put in the contribution box.

The famous singer smiled as she said she had too much "religious" blood in her veins to obey the "insane" will's oath.

"My grandfather was a Methodist minister. He had four children—one son, and three daughters. The three girls, one of whom was my mother, were determined to give the one brother a college education, and worked hard to do so. Mrs. Allen is the widow of this brother. Now Mrs. Allen cuts off the children of one of those sisters and asks the others to subscribe to such an oath. I am sure my uncle never expressed such a wish."

"Her reason for cutting you off, she explained when she said you were 'amply provided with this world's goods.'"

"How does she know that?" demanded Madame Nordica. "How can I tell whether you are well off or not?"

Robb, mandolin selection; Mrs. Brewer, vocal solo, Miss A. Robb, reading. Refreshments were served.

PRIZE MATINEE AT NICKEL THURSDAY.

Today the Nickel is devoted to the Catholic societies putting on St. Patrick's day theatricals in aid of the orphanages, but on Thursday the Nickel will resume its excellent shows with a grand prize matinee for the children who attended the matinee of Saturday last. Upon that occasion six snapshots of children entering the theatre were taken. The children did not know they were photographed nor does the Nickel know who they are, but if on Thursday afternoon the originals of the pictures can identify themselves they will be given a $1 "set-up" in the Union Bank of Halifax savings department. The uncertainty of the winners will be tense up to the point of seeing themselves on the big white curtain. Thursday will be new-show day, too, and Holmes and Buchanan will change the songs in their lovely sketch A Woodland Wooing, and there is to be a new song by Mr. Courtnais. The new pictures will be: The Politician's Love Story, The Golden Louis, and a charming Edison feature of 100 years ago entitled The Bachelor's Supper; free souvenirs of Holmes and Buchanan Friday night and Saturday afternoon.

MYRKLE-HARDER CO. IN NEW PRODUCTION

This is the offering for tonight at the Opera House by the Myrkle-Harder company. This play is being produced by a company playing over the Stair & Havlin circuit, which embraces all the leading city theatres, and this is taken as guarantee that the play has plenty of merit to it.

The girl in the play is portrayed by Miss Myrkle, and Mr. Auker has his star part in a boy of errors. Mr. Barton has an excellent part as the lawyer, and Mr. Marsdon as the father. Miss Devere will be seen to good advantage as the adventuress and the old judge, as played by Mr. Flagg, the author of the play, promises something new.

The scenes in the second act give a rain effect with real water and the last act, a court room, gives great scope for the comedians as well as the serious parts.

Last night was another capacity house. The company expects to break previous records.

FULL ORCHESTRA AT THE STAR TONIGHT

This is the night of the music-feast at the Star Theatre in Union Hall, North End when a large orchestra will discourse lovely St. Patrick's Day airs. This little theatre is forging ahead fast and it will show tomorrow night just how good a show it can put on. Besides the special instrumental selections it will have a brand new line of film features including another of those screamingly funny "Mr. Jones" series entitled "Mr. Jones Has a Card Party." There will be three other pictures. Be early at this house tonight.

Palpitation of the Heart.

One of the first danger signals that announce something wrong with the heart is the irregular beat or violent throb. Often there is only a fluttering sensation, or an "all gone" sinking feeling; or again, there may be a most violent beating, with flushings of the skin and visable pulsations of the arteries. The person may experience a smothering sensation, gasp for breath and feel as though about to die. In such cases the action of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills in quieting the heart, restoring its normal beat and imparting tone to the nerve centres, is, beyond all question, marvellous. They give such prompt relief that no one need suffer.

Mr. Sylvester Smith, Hampton, N.B., writes:—"I was troubled with palpitation of the heart and tried doctor's medicines, but they only gave me temporary relief. I heard of your Heart and Nerve Pills and bought two boxes and before I had used them I was completely cured and would recommend them to all similarly affected."

Price, 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25 at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

AMHERST TO HAVE AN OLD HOME WEEK

(Amherst News.)

The committee of the "Old Home Week" celebration met in the office of H. J. Logan this morning and were unanimously of the opinion that no delay should be lost in the consummation of plans to make the celebration a success. The entire success of the whole venture will, however, depend upon the financial support that will be given to the matter.

It is the purpose to send out invitations to as many of the old sons and daughters of Cumberland as possible asking them to spend a week in Amherst this summer.

During this week it will be the aim of the committee to hold an exhibition of "made in Amherst" goods in the Winter Fair building. This exhibition should prove a splendid advertisement for Amherst goods as there would no doubt be hundreds of visitors attracted to our town. The scheme is full of big possibilities and we trust that our citizens will give it every support.

TAX ON BACHELORS TO AID "OLD MAIDS"

Unmarried Men May Be Forced to Provide for the "Lone Wimmen" If Maine Bill Passes

Augusta, Me., March 16—Maine's "old maids" are to be pensioned at the expense of the bachelors and widowers, if the act which has been introduced in the legislature by Representative Campbell, of Kingman, becomes a law. Mr. Campbell says that his proposed law is the result of much study, and he is convinced that men who do not make a reasonable attempt to marry by the time that they are thirty years old should help support the spinsters who have never received a proposal at reaching the age of forty years.

Mr. Campbell proposes to mulct every unmarried man of thirty or over at the rate of $10 a year, the fund thus raised to be applied to the support and relief of deserving women who are still spinsters, although willing to marry if they get a fair chance. The law has some relief measures for the bachelors or widowers who can show that they have made a reasonable effort to get a wife, by proposing three times, either to three different women or to one woman three times.

The bill is entitled:—

"An act to impose a tax on unmarried men of thirty years and upward for the benefit of spinsters of forty years and upward who have never received an offer of marriage."

It provides that the tax shall be collected in the same manner as poll taxes, and shall be disbursed to spinsters who have reached the age of forty years, who have not refused any "reasonable" offer of marriage.

"Reasonable" offers are held to be any proposal of matrimony made in good faith by any man who is not an inmate of an insane asylum and who has not been convicted of a felony or infamous crime.

No benefit exceeding $100 a year is to be paid to any spinster.

Some of the members of the legislature have been inclined to regard the act as a joke, but Mr. Campbell says that it will be no joke for the unmarried men if it passes. He says that he has been assured of support and is to make a speech upon his bill when it comes up for action. It has been referred to the committee on the judiciary.

C. P. R. WILL HELP PEOPLE PROVINCE

B.) to consult with the authorities there on immigration matters, to see what can be done to aid the immigration policy about to be inaugurated by the province of New Brunswick. The C. P. R. is much interested in the scheme and will give every assistance it can to peopling the eastern province.
