A happy New Year to all our readers.

Don't forget the Auction at the Grotto Saturday evening.

Law office of Shafner and Pineo—over store of R. E. Harris & Son. Open every Wednesday. 10

A special meeting of the town Council will be held this evening to clear up the business of the year.

Christmas passed off quietly in Wolfville. The day was mild and one of the most pleasant of the season.

Quite a severe electrical storm took place on Monday evening, a somewhat unusual occurrence for this season of the year.

The Browning Club will meet on Monday evening of next week at the home of Mrs. (Rev.) D. W. Crandall, Westwood avenue.

The congregation of St. Andrew's church enjoyed an exceedingly well rendered solo last Sunday morning by Miss Edith Thomson.

The staff of the Wolfville branch of the Bank of Montreal has issued a neat folder with the season's greetings to friends and patrons of the bank.

The music at the Baptist church on Sunday last was appropriate to the season and of a very high order, and was much enjoyed by the congregation.

WANTED.—About Jan'y first a furnished house in Wolfville, having modern improvements, and not less than four bedrooms. Apply P. O. Box 158, Wolfville.

The remains of the late Rev. Isaiah Wallace are to be brought to Wolfville for interment. The funeral is to take place on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the service being at the Baptist church.

THE ACADIAN has received the announcement of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. F. Marion Brown at Helena, Mont., on Dec. 8th. Mrs. Brown was formerly Miss Margaret M. Moore, of this town. The little girl is named Frances Margaret.

The balance of Christmas Goods will be sold by auction at the 'Grotto' Saturday evening, Dec. 28th. Everything must be closed out. Come and get bargains in Fancy Crockeryware, Toys, Games, Books, etc.

J. D. CHAMBERS.

The annual meeting of the Kings County Farmers' Association will be held at Kentville on Dec. 31st at 2 p. m. and 7.30 p. m. The address of the president, reports of the secretary and treasurer, election of officers, appointment of delegates to Antigonish meeting and addresses by college men from Truro will comprise the program.

The election of Mr. R. W. Starr, of this town, to the responsible and honorable position of president of the Nova Scotia Fruit Growers' Association is most fitting. Probably no man in Nova Scotia has been more closely connected with fruit growing than Mr. Starr, who has been a life-long friend of the Association. THE ACADIAN extends congratulations.

Five room tenement to let. Apply to E. B. Shaw, Wolfviller

The winter term for Mr. Emery's pupils in voice and pianoforte begins Dec. 30th—new pupils are already being registered. Mr Emery is planning another home musicale early in January. The programme to be rendered by Miss Marie Lyons, pianoist, assisted by two vocal pupils. Miss Joy Lawrence, too, will give a pianoforte recital soon, at Mr. Emery's, presenting an entirely new programme.

A very useful book has been added to the public school library. The title is 'Farm Weeds' and the volume was donated by the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa. A large, full-page illustration of each weed in natural colors, is accompanied by a detailed and popular discription of the weed and its habitat. Suggestions for exterminating or controlling each weed are given. It has been placed in the library with the hope that it will be freely consulted by those who may need such a book.

The death of Miss Georgie Weir occurred on Friday last at the home of Mr. E. C. Johnson, of this town. The cause of her death was pneumonia, the result of a cold contracted on the Friday previous. She was a native of Black River and was in her 69th. For many years she resided in Wolfville, where she was much respected. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian church, and the funeral, which was held on Sunday afternoon at Black River, was conducted by Rev. David Wright, pastor of St. Andrew's church. It was very largely attended.

The marriage took place on Christmas Day at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Card, Billtown, of Miss Ruby E. Card and Dr. M. E DeVine, of Kingston. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. D. Spidell, of Kentville. The groom, who recently established a flourishing practice at Kingston, is a clever and popular member of the medical fraternity, while the bride, who is a half sister of Mrs. B. O. Davison, of this town and was for a number of years a resident of Wolfville, is a very popular young lady. THE ACADIAN extends to Dr. and Mrs. DeVine its vesy best wishes for their happiness and prosperity.

We wish all our patrons who have contributed to making the past year the most successful of the 28 years of our business a very happy and prosperous New Year.

A Good Man Gone.

The death of Rev. Isaiah Wallace D. D., one of the best known ministers of the Baptist church, occurred at the home of his son, Rev. L. F. Wallace, Aylesford, on Tuesday. He had reached the advanced age of 81 years.

The deceased was a son of the late Rev. James Wallace, of New Brunswick. He went to school at the Fredericton seminary, entering Acadia college in 1851 and graduating in 1855. The following year he devoted to missionary work in the province of his birth. He was ordained to the ministry in 1861, at Scotchtown, N. B., and it was in this place that he first entered upon active duties of the ministry, having been pastor of the parish for two years. Leaving Scotchtown he became principal of the New Brunswick seminary, which position he held for a year, when he resigned to accept the pastorate at Newcastle, where he remained for two years. In June of 1861, he accepted a call to Lower Granville, where he remained for ten years. His next pastorate was at Milton, Yarmouth county, and from 1874 to 1877 he was stationed at Berwick. His last charge was in his old parish at Lower Granville, where he was actively engaged from 1881 until 1883.

During his long ministry he devoted considerable time to obtaining endowments for Acadia college, but his chief work, and for which his name will be long remembered, was missionary work in the home field. He was the most successful and best known missionary in the maritime provinces, and the growth of the Baptist denomination in eastern Canada owes much to his unceasing labors. Through his work a number of new churches were founded, while he fostered weak parishes and lent his aid to their development. During his pastorate he baptised over 3,000 converts to his religion.

Rev. Dr. Wallace was of an amiable dispositiou, frank and open in manner, and greatly esteemed by the thousands who knew him intimately. There is no man in eastern Canada whose death would be more regretfully heard, and his demise marks the close of the life of one of the greatest figures in the Baptist church in the maritime provinces in half a century.

The season has been a remarkably mild one so far.

BIRTHS.

COLDWELL.—At St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 23rd, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Coldwell, a son.

STROTHARD—RAND.

A society event which has been anticipated with much interest by the many friends of the popular young couple, was the marriage on Monday evening, at the residence of her mother, Mrs Robert Rand, on Acadia street, of Miss Jennie Rand, daughter of the late Robert Rand, and granddaughter of the late Dr. C. C. Hamilton, M. L. A., of Canard, one of the most prominent menin the country in his time, to Mr. John Leister Strothard, manager of the Northern Bank of Hanley, Sask., son of Rev. James Strothard, of Moncton. The house was artistically decorated with evergreen and flowers. The ceremony was performed by Rector R. F. Dixon, in the presence of the intimate friends of the family. The bride, who looked very attractive in a gown of white mull over tafteta silk trimmed with Irish lace, with veil and wreath of orange blossoms, was escorted to her place beside the groom, under a bell of holly and evergreen, by Mr. Barclay Webster, of Kentville. The bride and groom were unattended.

After hearty congratulations, dainty refreshments were served. The table decorations were very aesthetic and pleasing, chrysanthemums being combined with smilax.

After a social hour Mr. and Mrs. Strothard were driven to Windsor en route for Moncton, where they spent Christmas, after which they leave for the west.

A large number of beautiful and valuable gifts of silver and cut glass attested the regard of many friends. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome fur-lined coat.

Among the guests from a distance were Miss Alice Strothard, Henry Strothard, sister and brother of the groom, Moncton; Miss Gertrude Mitchell, Halifax; Mr. and Mrs. Barclay Webster, Kentville; Miss Alice Chipman and Mrs. Keefer, Chipman Corner; Richard Hardwick, cousin of the bride, Annapolis, and the sister of the bride, Miss Edith Rand, of Milford, N. H. THE ACADIAN extends best wishes.

I. H. Goudey, Yarmouth,
Manager Kureafello Pill Co.,
I want to thank you for getting this new cure for Kidney and Rheumatism trouble into this county. For 15 years I have suffered more or less with Rheumatism. For 6 months at a time I could do no work or sleep but little. After trying about 25 different kinds of Rheumatism medicine without avail I became completely discouraged but thought I must try the new Kureafello Pills and I am so glad to say that I can now work nearly as well as ever. Have engaged to work on our new wharf. Can sleep all right. Have not felt half so well for years and I don't believe there is any medicine that can cure Rheumatism and build a man up like it. It is getting a great name around here.

Marriage at Hantsport.

THE ACADIAN has received the announcement of the marriage at Hantsport on Christmas Day of Mr. Alec Llwellyn Phillips and Miss Adria Alberta Coalfleet. The bride is well known in Wolfville, where she has many friends who will join us in wishing the young couple much happiness.

'But, dear,' said the caller, 'I don't see why you should care to change the name of your charming little country place. Idlewhile is so romantic. It seems to signify dreamy idleness.'

'That's just the trouble,' replied the housewife. 'It was so suggestive.'

'In what way?'

'Why, it attracts all the tramps in the county.'

Complicated Liver Troubles

Mr. John Wilson, carpenter, Welland, Ont., writes:—"Some years ago I was attacked with kidney trouble, and I became so run down and emaciated that my entire appearance was suggestive of physical decline. As time went on the complaint grew worse and became complicated with liver trouble. I had bad pains across the back and up the spinal column, had bad spells with my heart, pain under the right shoulder, bilious headaches about half the time, indigestion, fever, and restlessness at night, and depression of spirits.

"I spent about one hundred dollars in medicines, with no perceivable results. Doctors' advice proved likewise of no avail.

"Finally, on the advice of a friend, I began taking Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and in a short time the bad symptoms began to gradually disappear, and by the time I had used five or six boxes I was enjoying better health than I had in many years, all of which is due to the virtues of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills." 25 cents a box, at all dealers.
