GENERAL ASSEMBLY
AT ST. JOHN, N.B.

The attention of Commissioners to the General Assembly is directed to the following particulars with reference to the journey to St. John:

St. John may be reached from the West in three ways.

1. By Grand Trunk to Point Levi or Chaudiere Junction, and thence by Intercolonial. The reduced fare via Grand Trunk from Toronto to Chaudiere Junction and return is $20.80, and the fare from that point to St. John and return will be $12.58.

2. By Grand Trunk to Danville Junction (or Portland), fare, including return, will be $20, and from Danville Junction to Carleton (St. John) the return ticket will be $5.70.

3. Those living west may go by New York Central and its connecting lines from Suspension Bridge to Boston. The fare from Bridgeburg to Boston is not yet given; from Boston to St. John by steamer a return ticket will be given for $6. Should a hundred go by this route the rate will be $5. There is also a steamer twice or thrice a week from Portland to St. John, fare for Commissioners $5, including return.

In addition to the lines mentioned above, the Great Western, the Midland, the Canadian Pacific, the Credit Valley, and the Q. M. O. & O. Roads will give return tickets for fare and third. Arrangements are also made with the steamers on Lake Ontario and the St. Lawrence.

Certificates will be sent in due time. If they are not received by the 20th of May please communicate with the undersigned.

Certificates for the Intercolonial and for the line from Danville Junction to St. John will be given at the Assembly.

Intercolonial tickets will be good till 7th July, on other roads till 8th July. Intercolonial tickets may be extended on application, or clergymen's certificates will be given on application to the Superintendent, D. Pottinger, Esq., at Moncton.

Toronto, 16th May.—It is found that no reduction can be obtained on the American lines from the Bridge to Boston.
