"NOT VERY GUILTY" IS DIGGS' PLEA, BUT IT DOES NOT GO

A Fighting Case also Among Those on This Morning's Police Court Docket

The police court opened this morning at 8.30 o'clock with quite an array of prisoners to be disposed of. Judge Ritchie delivered himself of a few striking remarks on the result of the men before him continuing in their folly in drinking and referred to the fact that many of them were of respectable families.

Charles Diggs, vender of envelopes, shoe laces, etc., was doubtful as to whether or not he had been drunk yesterday in Prince William street, so he entered the unique plea of "not very guilty, yo' hono'." His fine was $8 or two months.

Fines of $4 were imposed on Wm. McNiel and Richard Joyce on charges of drunkenness, while on the same charge Wm. McQuiggan was remanded.

Claude Lanford was allowed to go on a charge of being a stowaway on the steamer Prince Rupert from Digby to this port, as his passage was arranged for.

DR. DOLE IS VERY ILL

The friends of Dr. William P. Dole will regret to learn that he is very ill at his home, Carleton street, and slight hopes are entertained of his recovery. Dr. Dole has been seriously ill for some time and has been gradually growing weaker. Last evening his son, Richard, of the Bank of New Brunswick in East Florenceville, arrived in the city, having been summoned to the bedside of his father.

Dr. Dole is probably one of the best known educationists and linguists in the city, if not in the province. He is a man who has always followed closely the higher courses of study and has been looked upon as one of the leading teachers and scholars in New Brunswick. In spite of his eighty-five years he was light and active up to the time he was stricken with paralysis a little more than a year ago. Since that time his health has been much broken. He has been a patient sufferer and has always had a kind and cheery word for his friends when they

NEW POINT IN READING LIQUOR LAW

All Bought in Retail Shop Must Be Consumed There

NO FLASKS TAKEN OUT

Mr. Henderson Makes This Contention in Discussion During Case in Police Court — Some Talk of a Test Being Made

During the last few months, the number of men arrested with flasks of liquor in their possession, has seemingly been on the increase, and in almost each case, the police have endeavored to learn the identity of the dealers who sold the liquor. The matter of selling liquor in flasks came up yesterday in the police court, arising from a discussion in a case. Geo. A. Henderson who was prosecuting said that in his opinion no quantity of liquor could be taken from a retail dealers' premises, but when a purchase was made in his store, the drink must be taken there, and not carried outside in bottles or flasks.

If this interpretation of a clause in the liquor license act, is correct, it is hardly likely to be viewed favorably by retail saloon keepers, as much of their business is conducted in this manner.

J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., who appeared for the fense in the case, said he was inclined to agree with Mr. Henderson's opinion, concerning the clause in the act in question.

J. B. Jones, liquor license inspector was present, but offered no opinion in the matter.

It is possible that a test case may be made to secure a judicial decision.

The section of the liquor license act, of which mention has been made, is section 1, sub-section 1 of the amendment of April, 1909, to section 10; chapter 22, of the consolidated statutes of 1903. It reads as follows:

"A tavern license shall authorize the licensee to sell, traffic, or barter by retail, in fermented or spirituous liquors, in quantities not exceeding one quart, and in malt liquor not exceeding one gallon, which may be drunk in saloon, hotel or tavern or other house of entertainment in which the same is sold."

In the act referring to the sale of liquor by a wholesale dealer, it is stated that no quantity of liquor may be consumed on the premises, and that quantities over a quart may be purchased in such premises.

Mr. Henderson drew from the act the inference that liquor in quantities up to a quart might be purchased in a retail place, but all of it must be drink in the place. Henderson considered, obliged the consuming of the liquor purchased on retail premises.

The outcome of the discussion will be awaited with interest if a test case is made in court.

ARMY SERVICE MEN OFF TO CAMP TODAY

The members of the Army Service Corps were fortunate in the selection of today for entering camp at Sussex, for a more ideal one for pitching their tents and preparing the camp for the reception of the men who will follow them, could hardly be desired. The corps entrained this morning with more than 100 men, under command of Capt. McKean. They left a little after 7 o'clock for Sussex, where on arrival, they will find plenty to do.

As soon as the corps arrives in camp, the members will be put to work erecting their tents, arranging the ovens, where the "punk" is cooked, and doing other odd jobs, preparatory to the opening of camp on Tuesday. The R. C. R.'s from Fredericton will enter camp today, as will some of the members of the Canadian Ordinance Corps of this city.

LOCAL C. P. R. TRAINMEN SAY STRIKE LIKELY

The trainmen employed on the Canadian Pacific Railway, who run in and out of St. John are closely watching the progress of the negotiations between the brotherhood and the company, which have been under way for some time and have now reached the dead lock stage. The heads of the company and the brotherhood refuse to recede from the stand they have taken, and, according to the local men, a strike is altogether likely.

If a strike is ordered the trainmen on this division would go out as soon as they received word from headquarters to do so. Several of the local men today expressed the conviction that a strike was inevitable.

SIX BOYS IN COURT TODAY

As usual, a juvenile session was held this morning in the police court by Judge Ritchie, when six young fellows appeared before him. Two of them, James Brazilian and Charles Vail, pleaded guilty to throwing banana peelings in Ludlow street, Carleton, and a fine of $8 was allowed to stand against them. Four younger lads, Gregory Lundy, Gerard Doherty, Harry McCarthy, and Harry Doherty, faced his honor to answer a complaint made against them by the caretaker of the St. John Boat Club, to the effect that they had taken a boat belonging to that organization and used it in Marble Cove.

The boys admitted this, but one of them said he mistook it for one which he had been directed to watch for a man in north end. His honor advised them to be more careful in future and allowed them to go.

The Halifax Record says:—"Mrs. Mary A. Sheffield will arrive from St. John on the 28th inst. She is a delegate to the Local Council of Women, which will meet in this city next week. She will be accompanied by Miss Kate Leavitt, who is also a delegate. They will be guests of Mrs. Sheffield's sister, Miss Katherine B. Thomson, 203 Pleasant street."
