T. R. GORDON.

Mechanics' Institute.

THE Lecture Season of the above Institution will commence on Monday evening, the third of December next, when Professor Johnston, so justly celebrated in the scientific world, has kindly consented to open the Session.

The Directors have much pleasure in stating that the following talented and well known gentlemen have consented to deliver during the Session:—

Professor Johnston; Rev. Messrs. Caswell, Lawson, Cooper, Wilson, Thomson, Elder, Knight; Drs. Day and Kennedy; Messrs. W. H. Pearce, G. A. Smith, David McLaudy, Fraser, Miles and Walters.

The Directors are in correspondence with a number of other Literary Gentlemen, from whom they expect to receive assistance, whose names, with the Subjects of the Lectures, will be published so soon as the arrangements are completed. They have also procured the services of Dr. Davidge, popular Lecturer on Anatomy, who will deliver a course of three Lectures before the Members of the Institute at a moderate period.

The GESNER MUSEUM, which has now for the most part become the property of the Institute, will be opened for exhibition to Members and their Families, during each Lecture evening, from 7 to 8 o'clock.

From the Entertainment given by Signor Blitz for the benefit of the Institute, and the liberal patronage of the public at the Pictorial and Horticultural Exhibition held at the Hall in September last, the Directors have accumulated a large amount, which they have applied to the extension of the Library by the purchase of a number and variety of standard and interesting works, which are expected to arrive and to be ready for distribution in a short time.

An additional number of popular newspapers, published in Great Britain and the United States, have been subscribed for, to be used in the Reading Room, and every pains will be taken to render the coming Season instructive and attractive.

The Board of Directors flatter themselves that on no former occasion has the Institute been opened under more auspicious circumstances, and they trust that the exertions made will be appreciated, and that the Institute, this season, will receive the cordial support of its Members, and the patronage of the public generally.

The Library will be opened on Monday and Friday Evenings, from 7 to 8 o'clock; the Reading Room from 7 o'clock to half-past 9, every evening in the week, Saturdays and Sundays excepted.

Members' Tickets 15s.; to admit to the Lectures and Museum the Member and two Ladies, with the privilege of the Reading Room and Library.

Non-Members' Tickets, to admit to the Lectures for the Season, 10s.; Ladies', Youths' and Apprentices' Tickets, 5s. each. Admission to one Lecture, 1s. 3d.

N. Tickets Transferable. It having come to the knowledge of the Board that Lecturers have heretofore felt great inconvenience and annoyance from the numerous applications made for free Tickets: To relieve them from such importunities, and to compel all persons desirous of attending the Lectures to pay such trifling sum, only a limited number of Tickets will be placed at the disposal of the Lecturers for distribution among their immediate friends.

Members and others may obtain Tickets by application at the Institute any evening during this week.
