Foster, Mrs. Pollard Lewin, Miss Laura Hazen, Miss Bertie Hegan, Miss Margaret McAvity, Miss Muriel Gillis, Miss Alice Hegan, Miss Bleis (Montreal), Miss Rouse, Miss Lila Foster, Miss Elise McKim.

Friday afternoon an entertainment which was both unique and enjoyable took place at the old homestead of the Skinner family, King street east, when Miss Manning Skinner entertained at tea a number of her grand nephews and nieces from St. John, New York, Philadelphia and elsewhere. In the evening the nephews and nieces joined the family party making with all a goodly company. An interesting fact in connection with the unusual event is that the parents of all the grand nephews and nieces present during the evening were married from the old homestead where the pleasant entertainment was held, and it is safe to say that not only those who were present last evening but the many who in the years gone by have enjoyed the hospitality of the present members of the family will wish for them a continuance of the good health and prosperity which has heretofore attended them. The grand nephews and nieces who were entertained at tea last evening were: Mr. Richard Barnes and Miss Vivien Barnes, who had the places of honor at the head and foot of the table; Helen Botsford and Charles Skinner, of New York; John Wentworth Clawson, Philadelphia; Kathleen Bentley Gordon, St. John; Erie Thomson, Errol Skinner, Margaret Skinner, Leslie Stewart Skinner, Norman Stewart Skinner, Murray Stewart Skinner, Elizabeth and Gretchen Skinner, New York; Daniel Alexander Robertson, Marjorie Partelow Robertson, Mary Parker Robertson.
