Resigned!

Tupper Finally Gives Up the Premiership,

After a Big Kick Against the Governor-General.

Attempt to Make Many Unnecessary Appointments to Office Thwarted.

Hon. Wilfrid Laurier Summoned by His Excellency.

The Liberal Leader Will at Once Form a Cabinet.

Both Liberal Seats in Hamilton Safe—Mr. Fraser (Lib.) Increases His Majority in East Lambton.

Ottawa, July 9.—As telegraphed you before six o'clock last night, Sir Chas. Tupper went out to Rideau Hall and tendered the resignation of the Cabinet to his Excellency. "Sir Charles Tupper has tendered his resignation and his Excellency has been pleased to accept it, and has communicated with Mr. Laurier." This is the official announcement authorized at Government House last evening. So ends the regime which dates from the year 1878. Sir Charles Tupper, as telegraphed yesterday, went to Government House at noon and returned to his office at 2:30, summoning council to meet at 3. This was evidence that no resignation had as yet been tendered. Sir Charles Tupper informed his colleagues that he intended to resign at the conclusion of the sitting, which was reached at 5 o'clock. The Premier proceeded to Rideau Hall, and at 7 o'clock the resignation had been tendered and accepted. The reason given by Sir Chas. Tupper was that he had been defeated at the polls. Lord Aberdeen immediately accepted the resignation, which, of course, involved that of the entire Cabinet, and from that moment the Tupper Ministry ceased to exist. It began on May 1, which was for its members an unlucky Friday. His Excellency immediately summoned Mr. Laurier, who will today be entrusted with the task of forming a new Ministry.

There was a great deal of uncertainty all day as to the event, the Ministers themselves standing round waiting for Sir Charles Tupper's report. The uncertainty arose from his Excellency's refusal to sanction orders in council passed since June 23 and Sir Charles Tupper's insistence that they should be signed. Lord Aberdeen was firm, however, and adhered to what he considered proper constitutional principles. He was asked to sanction no fewer than about 400 orders in council passed since June 23, and those, it is said, were presented in a heap. No wonder his Excellency recoiled from the proposal, and when Sir Charles Tupper imagined he could intimidate Lord Aberdeen, as he endeavored to do, he found that he had to do with a Governor-General who had been brought up in a better school. His Excellency discovered that he was called on to sanction the dismissal of civil servants under the guise of superannuation in order to make room for partisans and election workers. The creation of vacancies in order to fill them was so far beyond the most ordinary constitutional principles that only a Tupper would have attempted it. Fortunately for the history of Canada, the occupant of Rideau Hall was found equal to the emergency, and the scandal was prevented. Of the 400 orders in council it is doubtful if more than 50 have been signed by his Excellency. The guiding principles in a matter of this kind were laid down in an official paper by Lord Dufferin, and no doubt Lord Aberdeen was cognizant of this precedent.

The Mail-Empire correspondent says: "It is stated that none of the appointments made since June 23 have received vice-regal sanction."

SIR CHARLES INTERVIEWED.

The World correspondent says: "Sir Charles Tupper tonight confirmed to me the news of the acceptance of his resignation, but on the matter of appointments said he had not Lord Aberdeen's permission to say anything, consequently his lips were sealed. What action his Excellency proposes to take, therefore, regarding the appointments made by his late advisers is not definitely known tonight. There is, however, a well defined rumor that a compromise was reached, the minor offices being approved by Lord Aberdeen, but the senatorships and judgeships being left to Mr. Laurier to fill. As a consequence, Angers and Desjardins loose their seats in the Upper House, and including the late Mr. Read's seat and one in Nova Scotia, there will be four places in the Red Chamber falling immediately to the Liberals."

WRESTLING WITH HIS EXCELLENCY.

The correspondent of the Toronto Mail-Empire says that important correspondence passed between the Governor-General and Sir Charles Tupper when his Excellency refused to sanction post-defeat appointments. "The exact nature of the communications between the vice-regal representative and the retiring Ministry," says the correspondent, "have not yet been divulged, and doubtless will remain an official secret until they are laid before Parliament. It is no secret, however, that his Excellency has had a difference with his advisers as to the public business they have submitted for his approval. If this is the case, it may turn out that Lord Aberdeen has established a new precedent in Canada. It is said that within the past few days important communications of considerable length have passed between the Premier and the vice-regal representative. In them the points as to which a difference of opinion existed have been in all probability fully stated. The Colonial Office has been consulted, and no doubt in due time the correspondence will be laid before the public."

THE NEW MINISTRY.

The first act of the new Government will be to postpone the session of Parliament called for July 16th. Speaker White has accordingly taken away the chair which he has sat in for six sessions, during the five years which the Government was in power.

WANTED OLD WORLD INTERFERENCE.

Montreal, July 9.—The news of Sir Charles Tupper's resignation was received with some surprise here, as it was fully believed that he would either wait to meet the House or carry out his bluff for a few days in order to arouse feeling against Lord Aberdeen. He had relied on deceiving Mr. Chamberlain as to the nature of his difference with the Governor-General, but the Colonial Secretary was made aware last night of the real state of affairs, and it is probable that Sir Charles, seeing the game was up, decided to resign at once. Mr. Laurier arrived tonight from Quebec and proceeded at once to the Windsor, where he is awaiting the official summons to go to Ottawa. He received scores of congratulations during the evening upon his final access to power.

A NOTABLE CHANGE.

The changes brought about by the whirligig of time were never more strikingly portrayed than last night, when Mr. Tarte, Col. Domville, and Sir Adolphe Caron met at the Windsor. Some sixteen years ago the two latter were the rising hopes of the unbending Tories in Parliament. Mr. Tarte was a Conservative journalist, young but brilliant, and his ability attracted the attention of these Parliamentarians, who invited him to board with them. The three friends lived at the same house, all session. Today Mr. Tarte, it is safe to say, is a Liberal Minister, Col. Domville is one of the leading Liberals from the Maritime Provinces, while Sir Adolphe Caron is the leader of the French-Conservative Opposition.

EAST LAMBTON RECOUNT.

Watford, July 9.—The recount of ballots in East Lambton was held here today before Judge Mackenzie, of Sarnia. Mr. I. F. Hellmuth, of London, and Mr. F. W. Wilson, of Petrolea, appeared for Mr. Moncrieff, and Mr. J. F. Lister, M.P., and Mr. A. E. Shaunessy for Mr. Fraser. Before proceedings were commenced it was agreed to count all ballots that indicated the intention of the voters. The recount occupied the greater part of the day, and resulted in adding 80 votes to Mr. Fraser's total, making it 2,145, and 54 to Mr. Moncrieff's, making it 2,105, leaving Mr. Freser's majority 40, an increase of 26 over the official count.

OTHER RECOUNTS.

In West Assiniboia the recount is proceeding. Davin (Conservative) may go out.

In the Bothwell election recount, Judge Bell allowed ballots marked in the oblong, on the ground that they indicated the intention of the voters.

The argument in the recount in the Hamilton election was concluded last night. McPherson (Liberal) is sustained by a majority of 24 votes.

The Halton recount reduced Mr. Henderson's majority from 109 to 84. Judge Hamilton allowed all ballots marked with a cross, whether in the disk or out of it.

In the recount in Two Mountains, Mr. Ethier (Liberal) was declared elected by 17 majority, an increase of 3 votes.

MR. DOBELL A LIBERAL.

Quebec, July 9.—Mr. R. R. Dobell, the newly-elected member for Quebec West, who has been claimed as a Conservative by the Tupper papers, gave a banquet to a party of political supporters at his residence, Beauvoir Manor, last night. Mr. Dobell, in the course of a speech, said that as he had been elected by the Liberals and with the consent of the Liberal party leaders, he thought it his duty to uphold Hon. Mr. Laurier's policy, and referred to that gentleman as "Our Chief."

OTHER ELECTION NEWS.

It has been decided that the election of Dr. Reid (Conservative), South Grenville, shall be protested.

Mr. Tarte's paper, La Cultivateur, protests against the reported interference of Mr. Chamberlain in the domestic politics of Canada.

Mr. W. B. McInnes, the newly-elected member for Vancouver, B. C., arrived in the capital last evening with his wife. He is a son of the Senator, and one of the youngest men in the new Parliament.

The Liberals of Welland will protest the election of Wm. McCleary.

A correspondent of the Toronto World (Conservative) strongly protests against the continuance of Sir Charles Tupper as leader of the party. To continue Tupper at the head, says this correspondent, is to exhibit party madness that will precede extinction.

Thousands Homeless.

Great Loss by Fire and Flood in Russia and Japan.

Whites and Zulus Defeat a Force of Mashonas.

The Times Accuses the Salisbury Government of Acting "Shabbily."

How the Youmans Were Drowned—British Crop Prospects.

THREE THOUSAND HOUSES WRECKED.

London, July 9.—Disastrous floods have occurred in the prefectures of Toyama and Shiga, on the west coast of Japan. Three thousand houses have been destroyed. The loss of life is not stated.

A DUC BETROTHED.

London, July 9.—A Paris newspaper reports that the Duc D'Orleans has been betrothed to the Archduchess Dorothy Amelia, daughter of Archduke Joseph, commander of the Austrian Landwehr.

THOUSANDS HOMELESS.

St. Petersburg, July 9.—The town of Kobrin, in the Province of Grodno, Russia, has been burned. Three hundred houses were destroyed and 2,000 people are homeless.

"SHABBY."

London, July 9.—The Times has an editorial on the Government proposal carried in the House of Commons to place upon the Indian Government the cost of the Indian troops at Suakim. The Times denounces the action of the Government in this matter as a shabby transaction, and adds: "The Ministers have received such a lesson in the reduced majority on the question, that it is unlikely that India will ever again be called upon for such a contribution."

CROP PROSPECTS IN BRITAIN.

London, July 9.—The Times publishes its initial report of the season of the crops in Great Britain, showing their condition to have been somewhat below the normal at the beginning of July, but well above at the corresponding time last year. Taking 100 per cent as representative of the average, the wheat crop works out 104 per cent, barley 89, and oats 85, as against 79, 83 and 76 per cent respectively in 1895.

THE WAR IN AFRICA.

London, July 9.—A Salisbury (Matabeleland) dispatch says: A party of 40 whites and 100 Zulus repulsed a strong force of Mashonas at Briscoe's Farm, killing 25 of them. There have been further massacres, and in some instances the Mashona native police have killed their officers.

A late dispatch from Buluwayo says: There was desperate fighting in Plummer's engagement with the Matabeles Sunday. His column failed to dislodge the rebels from their stronghold, owing to the heavy fire of the enemy. Nine whites and six Cape boys were killed. Plummer captured a large quantity of cattle and sheep.

THE DEATH OF THE YOUMANS.

Bergen, Norway, July 9.—Further particulars regarding the accident which resulted in the death of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Youmans, of New York, show that they formed part of a party of seventeen ladies and two gentlemen who were driving, via Vossand Elde, to Gudvangen. The Youmans were a little in advance of the party in a light cart when they saw a reindeer. The driver drew the cart across the road in order that Mr. Youmans might photograph the animal, and he dropped the reins while so doing. While preparations were being made to photograph the reindeer, the horse, plagued by flies, backed over a steep bank into the lake. The driver succeeded in jumping off, but the Youmans, who were strapped in, were unable to escape, and were drowned.

PRESENTED AT COURT.

A Canadian Debutante at the Last Drawing Room.

London, July 9.—Among the debutantes who were greatly admired at the last drawing-room held by her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales, by command of the Queen, at Buckingham Palace, was Miss Bankes, granddaughter of Sir David McPherson, and grandniece of Mrs. Molson, Belmont Hall, Montreal. Miss Bankes is the third granddaughter of Sir David McPherson that has been presented this season, her cousins, Mrs. Dominic Browne and Miss Muriel Dobell, having been presented earlier in the season by their mother, Mrs. R. R. Dobell. Miss Bankes' presentation was made by the Hon. Mrs. St. Lawrence Tighe. Her gown was an exquisite combination of rich white satin and silver brocade. The corsage, with its charmingly picturesque sleeves of white tulle, was enriched with beautiful embroidery in pearls, chains of which also embellished the sleeves. The train of lovely white and silver brocade was trimmed with deftly fashioned bows of white tulle, joined by chains of pearls. A white tulle veil, with the orthodox feathers, completed her beautiful toilette. Her lovely shower bouquet was composed of white roses, stephanotis and carnations. She also wore some beautiful diamond ornaments.

OWNEY, THE GLOBE TROTTER.

The Intelligent Dog Didn't Wait to be Photographed.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., July 9.—Owney, the canine globe trotter of the postoffice mail service, came to town last night with Mail Clerk J. E. West, who travels on the New York Central as far as Syracuse. Mr. West intended to have Owney photographed today, and took him home for the night. About 9 p.m. Owney jumped through an open window and made his way to the postoffice, where he aroused the night watchman by his scratching and whining and was accordingly admitted.

He slept until morning on the mail bags, and when George Fitchett left for his route over the P. and E. R. R., he leaped into the mail wagon and rode off with him to the station. So Mr. West did not get his photograph.

OILING THE SEA.

The Wonderful Effect on Enormous Waves—A Curious Sight.

One of the most curious sights at sea is that of an oil-bound ship.

Every up-to-date ship carries oil-tanks, the quantity varying with the size of the vessel. For instance, a steamer of 150 tons burden carries on an average 60 gallons of oil. This oil is the refuse discarded by the oil-refining factories, and often consists of a mixture of whale oil, petroleum and vegetable oil. It costs about twopence a gallon, and a large-sized vessel can be well supplied for twenty shillings.

The oil is stowed in spacious zinc tanks, arranged in the hold of the ship to act as ballast. Each tank contains 50 gallons of oil, and an ingenious mechanical tap arrangement connects the tank with the outside of the vessel.

If a dangerous gale arises, and the ship becomes unmanageable and likely to founder, the sluices are opened and twenty gallons or more of the oil is allowed to escape into the sea.

The effect is instantaneous. However stormy the sea may be, the vessel lies in a gently heaving millpond. There is no further danger of foundering, and the oil moves along with the vessel for some time, often half an hour, after which it breaks up and disperses. The ship must slacken speed a little, and more oil is let out from the tanks. Enormous waves may bear down on the ship, but on approaching the magic oiled circle they seem to melt away and pass harmlessly beneath the vessel.

Sailing vessels are not so often furnished with oil-tanks as steamers. It is estimated, however, that over 200 vessels have been saved from shipwreck by means of the oil-tanks since they were introduced a few years ago. It is only in cases of absolute peril that the tanks are resorted to.—London Answers.

DISEMBOWLED BY BARBS

Young Lad Meets With a Shocking Death Near St. Marys.

Kirkton, Ont., July 8.—The 14-year-old grandson of Mr. Jas. Balfour, Thames road, was taking a ride round the field on the mower, when he fell. The lad was caught on the barb-wire fence and dragged along, being completely disemboweled. He was killed and almost cut in two.

POSTOFFICE ARREST.

St. Thomas Business Man Accused of Twice Using a Postage Stamp.

St. Thomas, Ont., July 9.—H. G. Hunt, music dealer, was arrested yesterday by Chief Fewings on an information laid by Daniel Spry, postoffice inspector, London. The information alleges that on the 2nd of June last, at St. Thomas, Mr. Hunt used a certain postage stamp on a letter addressed to Gummill Bros., music dealers, Detroit, and that the said stamp had been before used for the same purpose. The postoffice authorities have ten other charges against Hunt. He was remanded until today for trial. W. B. Doherty has been retained by the defendant.

FATAL QUARREL OVER CROQUET.

Anderson, Ind., July 9.—John Lock, aged 18 years, and his boon companion, Frank Ross, were engaged in playing croquet, when a quarrel arose and Lock struck Ross with a mallet. Ross turned and dealt his companion a fearful blow on the side of the head with his mallet. Lock fell, went into convulsions, and soon died. Both young men are of good families.
