* The Rev. James Tate, latterly Canon Residentiary of St. Paul's Cathedral, in addition to many other contributions to the cause of literature, was the author of Horatius Restitutus, of an Introduction to Greek Metres, and of a Continuous History of St. Paul, works all favorably known to men of letters.

Out of a small number of pupils, compared with that which annually issues from the great public schools of England, a large proportion distinguished and advanced themselves during their Academical Course, or in other walks of life. Not to mention the attainment of various other honors by many of them, from twelve to fifteen obtained fellowships at the University: among whom were Dr. Brasse, author of a Greek Grammar, &c., &c., Dr. Peacock, Dean of Ely, Archdeacon Thorpe and Musgrave, and the Archbishop of York.

☞ After the 20th day of September, the Boats will discontinue to call at Lewiston, and make Hamilton the Port of departure, at 7½ o'clock, on the mornings of Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays.

The establishment of this Line will enable the Merchants of Canada West to remain throughout the business day in Montreal, and to reach their homes almost as early as if they had gone by the Mail Line at noon, and connecting, at the Boats will do, with up and down Express Trains at Ogdensburgh, they will afford direct conveyances for Passengers and Freight between the Canadian Ports and the Eastern States.

It is deemed unnecessary to dwell upon the advantages of First Class Steamers passing direct from the head of Lake Ontario to Montreal, and vice versa, over those of Lines that involve a transhipment (on the downward trip) at an unreasonable hour in the morning.

In compliance with a generally expressed wish, on the part of the public, a separate charge will be made for meals.
