Great Baseball Event in Hamilton.

HAMILTON, Dec. 14.—The Victor Baseball Club of this city intend holding a banquet on Friday evening, Dec. 29, and have issued handsome invitations to the different club officers of the Canadian Amateur Baseball Association teams. President J. J. Ward of the Canadian Association will preside, and among those who are expected to attend are Messrs. George Sleeman, Guelph; C. S. Hyman, M.P., London; C. N. Gill, Cobourg; W. H. Simpson, Lindsay; T. F. McLellan and George A. Graham, Galt; Dr. Brennan, Peterboro; Major Stacey, St. Thomas; T. A. Wardell, Dundas; Managers McGarry and Manley of Toronto, and Secretary Col. Davis. Mr. Herb Moore, the popular secretary of the Vics., is making all arrangements, and intends it shall be a success.

Mr. Rutherford's "Salve."

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—A Canadian gentleman has been reaping quite a harvest of damages from the sensational papers in this city. He is Edward C. Rutherford of Toronto. About two years ago The Morning Journal of this city printed a highly sensational account of Mr. Rutherford's reported elopement with Mrs. J. C. Smith of Toronto. There was nothing to justify the report except that Mr. Rutherford had acted as escort to a friend on a journey. He sued The Morning Journal and recovered a verdict for $4400. The Evening Sun and Telegram of this city republished the story, and a short time ago the lady in question obtained a verdict of $7500 against The Sun. Mr. Rutherford has just completed his second successful suit, having secured damages in the sum of $1337.50 from The Telegram. He would undoubtedly have got a more satisfactory salve had not Mr. Bennett retained "Joe" Choate to laugh the verdict down. That clever lawyer succeeded in doing this by pointing to Mr. Rutherford as he stood in court, and asking the jury quizzically if he looked like a man who had suffered much. The only defence was haste in preparing a newspaper for publication, which prevents careful examination of everything offered.

Napoleon I. once said, Give me British soldiers and French officers and I'll conquer the world. The Army and Navy stores say, with the immense facilities at their command, they can conquer and effectually subdue all opposition in the clothing trade of Toronto. Ulsters is the great question at issue now. Army and Navy prices are $9.50, $10.50, $12.50 and $15.

Independent Order Foresters.

An important conference was held on Thursday at the Sherman House, Chicago, between Dr. Oronhyatekha, S.C.R., Edward Botterell, P.S.C.R., John A. McGillivray, S.S., Col. W. W. Wharry, High Secretary of Illinois, and A. E. Stevenson, American agent, representing the Independent Order of Foresters and the Executive Committee of the I.O.F. of Illinois, who number some 20,000 strong, having in view the amalgamation of the two orders. The basis of agreement reached by the conference embraces the following points: 1. The High Court of the Independent Order of Foresters in Illinois to be merged with the High Court of I.O.F. 2. Each side to receive beneficiary membership in the other by passing medical examination. 3. The new High Court to have representation in the Supreme Court, according to the number of beneficiary members it may have. 4. The amalgamated order to work together in the future under the Supreme Court. The amalgamation, when consummated, will add about 20,000 members to the Independent Order of Foresters.

Notes of interest to clothing buyers.—The Army and Navy are the largest dealers in Toronto. They manufacture every garment they sell, they buy all their cloth direct from the mills, they use only first-class trimmings, they have the best staff of cutters money can procure, they employ only skilled labor, their styles are always new, their qualities are always the best, their prices are always the lowest.

Capt. Lee's Lecture.

Capt. A. H. Lee, R.A., of the Royal Military College, Kingston, delivered a lecture at the Military Institute, last night on "The Solving of Tactical Schemes as an Aid to the Study and Comprehension of Minor Tactics." Lieut.-Col. Fred Denison, M.P., occupied the chair, and Lieut.-Col. Otter, Lieut.-Governor Kirkpatrick, Capt. Kirkpatrick, Col. Macdonald of Guelph and the majority of the city officers were present.

The lecture was a most interesting one from a military point of view, giving some good practical advice on the subjects of attack and defence, and, indeed, most phases of warfare.

The inclemency of the weather has given the clothing trade a great boom in ulsters. Sensible men are buying them more freely this winter than at any previous time. It is a very easy thing for almost any man to have one; now that the Army and Navy stores have got the price of those deep storm-collared, warm-lined ones down to $9.95 you should go into one of their (the Army and Navy stores) and have a look at them, whether you buy or not.

Scores of lives are saved every year by the prompt use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Lost Two Fingers.

John Geary, 177 Jarvis-street, was employed at Kemp's Tin Works running a stamping press yesterday, when his left hand became caught under a falling hammer and the tips of two fingers were taken off. His hand was dressed at the Hospital and he was removed to his home.

They are doing an immense trade at the Army and Navy stores just now in those blue black and black single and double-breasted, extremely long overcoats. They've got the best coat of the above description that is to be got in the city for $6.50, better ones at $10 and $12.50, and everybody knows that no matter whether the price be high or low the styles are always the correct thing.

Danger from coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis and pulmonary complaints can be avoided by the timely use of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Price 25 cents.

VICTORIAN ANNUAL CONVERSAT.

Students Make Merry Within While the Elements Rage Without.

The Victoria University annual conversazione and promenade concert was responsible for the assembly of so many fair maidens and bright, brave students at Victoria University last night.

This is the second entertainment of this kind which the students have held since the college was moved to Toronto. Last year the elements were no more favorable than they were last night.

Those who came, and there were about seven or eight hundred present, did not repent of daring the storm and wind, rain, ice and sleet, for they were amply repaid. All enjoyed themselves and no one seemed disappointed.

A number of the best of Toronto's good people were there. Theology and theologians were represented by the score. Professors, students, legal lights and medical men, representatives from universities and colleges, fair maidens from the university, ladies' colleges and collegiates, all accepted the invitation of the Methodist students.

The concert was given by the undergraduates of Ontario Ladies' College, Whitby, and by the University of Toronto's Banjo, Guitar and Mandolin Club. The concert was held in the chapel room, and few heard that pleasant part of the evening's entertainment. The ladies who pleased the audience were Misses Bowerman, Duckett, Martin, Crosby, McMurtry, Brown, Wright, Whitla, Taylor, Acheson, Masson, Chisholm, Pease, Moore, McKee, Johnston, Service, Williams and Rathbone. The selections were instrumental quartets, solos, vocal duets, solos, trios and readings.

During the concert the large number who didn't hear were assembling in the hall. They made themselves merry, sociable and got acquainted with one another.

The promenade began when the concert concluded. The promenading ground was on the whole three floors. Bayly's orchestra was on the second balcony and Marcicano's was on the first balcony and the ground floor. This feature of the evening was most entertaining. Some little confusion there was, but it did not mar the enjoyment. The promenade was kept up till early morning.

The building was beautifully decorated. Some of the lecture rooms were converted into reception rooms, and two served as lunch rooms. The whole entertainment was well arranged and successfully conducted. Mr. G. H. Locke was chairman of the committee, R. H. Shore, secretary, and B. J. Hales, treasurer.

Unequalled In Toronto.

The citizens of Toronto recognize a good thing when they see it, and when they have a son or daughter who requires an education toon able them to earn their own living in the great contest on this earth for position—such as shorthand and typewriting or business education, Barker & Spence's Shorthand and Business School, 12 King-street west, Toronto, is where they are always sent to obtain such. The majority of the pupils at this school belong to Toronto, which is its greatest recommendation, and though it does not reopen for another term till Tuesday, Jan. 2, 1894, all who enter during this month shall receive reduced rates. The law lectures alone, delivered by Mr. W. N. Irwin, barrister, solicitor, etc., Freehold Loan Building here, are well worth the cost of the entire tuition. Day and evening classes are in full working order all the time. Visitors are always welcome. 36

DR. MEYER'S DEFENCE.

His Counsel Makes the Opening Address—What Meyer Claims.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—The trial of Henry C. F. Meyer, charged with murdering Ludwig Brandt, was resumed before Judge Barrett to-day. The case was opened by Lawyer Brooks, counsel for defence, who moved for the dismissal of the prisoner, giving the grounds for the same. Judge Barrett denied the motion. Mr. Chanler then arose and made the opening for the defence.

The defence has indicated the following six propositions, toward which their proof may be directed:

1. That Brandt is still alive.
2. That someone put arsenic after death in the body alleged to be Brandt's.
3. That the body was embalmed.
4. That the body absorbed arsenic from some other body while in the cemetery.
5. That arsenic has not been found.
6. That deceased died from natural causes.

Cold in the Head.

Many gentlemen suffer from cold in the head because their hair has become thin or they are entirely bald. There is no occasion for this. If your hair has gone why not secure one of the coverings manufactured by Dorenwend to replace the lost hair? They are now worn by over 12,000 gentlemen in Canada and the States and give every satisfaction. These are not anything like the old-fashioned goods, heavy, uncomfortable and unnatural, but they are light, and so closely is nature copied that their detection is utterly impossible. They are also as perfect a preventive of cold in the head as the natural hair, and a great improvement to the appearance. Why not investigate this? We guarantee to make one to fit any gentleman who requires one, and if, when made, it is not what we claim it to be, perfect in every particular, we do not wish him to take it. Surely this offer will meet the views of the thousands of bald heads yet uncovered. Come and see them at 103 and 105 Yonge-street, Toronto.

One of the Characteristics

EXTENSIVE FIRE IN NEW YORK.

Three Buildings Collapse But No Loss of Life Resulted.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Half an hour after noon to-day a fire started in the large furniture warehouse of Henry Thoesen & Bro. at the northeast corner of Third-avenue and 49th-street. Within 20 minutes after the flames were discovered the building, which was seven stories high, collapsed and the fire then spread to the tenements on the north side. Soon after 1 o'clock two of these fell in. The fire spread down South-street towards Second-avenue, and in a few minutes the house on the opposite side of 49th-street caught fire. The woodwork of the elevated railroad soon caught fire, and then the flames were communicated to several large stores in Third-avenue, among them the drygoods store of Vogel Bros., on the west side of Third-avenue. This building occupied nearly one-quarter of the block between 49th and 50th-streets. Before the firemen had more than fairly got to work on the building it was a mass of flames.

It was a few minutes before 1 o'clock when the walls of the furniture warehouse fell. They carried with them the entire side and front walls of the adjoining five story tenement. Thoesen's store was a large one, filled with inflammable material, the space between the walls unusually wide, so that there was nothing to interrupt the progress of the flames. Thoesen's building was valued at $250,000 and is a total loss. They place the damage to their stock at $75,000. Vogel Bros.' building and stock were damaged to the extent of $50,000, and the building at No. 211 East 49th-street was entirely gutted, as were the two houses at 212 and 214 East 49th-street. The buildings were all well insured. No loss of life has been reported.

Sham Bombs Left At Paris Doors.

PARIS, Dec. 15.—The excitement is growing out of the threats of alleged Anarchists. It is kept up in a measure by the tricks of practical jokers, who prepare sham bombs of large dimensions and place them at the doors of the houses occupied by aristocrats.

Some of them have been found to be stuffed with emory and cotton.

Their discovery always creates terror, and the police are kept busy carting the bombs off to the Prefecture. One of these sham affairs was left at the house of M. de Rothschild, one of the bankers.

It will go hard with these jokers if they fall into the hands of the police.

A USEFUL XMAS BOX.

ONE THAT WILL NOT BE THROWN ASIDE.

The Greatest Xmas Sale of Slippers Ever Known—Plush, Velvet, Alligator, Dongola, Morocco and Silk-Worked Slippers of Every Kind and Style Manufactured.

On looking over our stock of Xmas slippers we are amazed to discover that we have five times too many, and that unless we make a supreme effort we will be unable to dispose of half of them this season. Rather than carry one pair of Xmas slippers over we are prepared to make any kind of sacrifice next to giving away goods. We have therefore resolved that from to-day the slipper department must suffer slaughter and every pair be forced out before next Saturday regardless of any idea of price.

It is well known to everybody that we have always carried the largest and best assorted stock of Xmas slippers in the Dominion, and to-day that it is in better shape than ever. Now, here is an opportunity for ladies to make a handsome, useful present to their friends, one that will be more highly appreciated than all the gewgaws that are so frequently thrown aside after they have been received. There is not a gentleman in Toronto who does not thoroughly enjoy the ease and comfort that are to be obtained from a comfortable pair of Slippers more than from any other source. No person can have the excuse that they cannot afford to buy a pair, as we have marked some lines as low as 50c a pair and prices to suit any and every pocketbook. Plush, Velvet, Alligator, Dongola, Morocco and Silk-worked Slippers of every kind and style manufactured will be offered at merely nominal prices, and in addition to this we will give away free to every purchaser of one dollar and fifty cents worth of goods a handsome 25-inch wax doll; to the purchaser of two dollars' worth a large, beautifully-dressed doll or choice of several other articles, such as boats, games, workboxes, money banks, bugles, sleighs, etc., etc. All we ask for is for the public to come in first and we will take care that when they go out they will have made their purchase. If space would permit, we could quote a list of prices that would appear so incredible that people would smile with unbelief, but the proper test to put those advertised promises to is to call and examine the goods. Fifty thousand Xmas presents given away free does look startling, but never mind, we have promised it, and no firm in Toronto has a better reputation for keeping their promises than Guinane Bros., Monster Shoe House, 214 Yonge-street. Store open every evening until 10 o'clock.
