TO THE TRADE

LETTER

"Actions speak louder than words. Orders are pouring in upon us. New goods, unequalled value and prompt service are three strings that weld us in the hearts of the trade. "No thing succeeds like success. We are ever reaching forward to lengthen the chain of our business by adding new customers.

"Coming events cast their shadows before them." Last year we added over five hundred new customers and this year we hope to add one thousand to the thousands whom we already have between the two oceans.

AT OSGOODE HALL.

New Rules Made by the Supreme Court as to the Divisional Courts—To-Day's Lists.

Mr. Justice MacMahon has given judgment dismissing the motion to continue the interim injunction granted by Chief Justice Armour in Foster v. Village of Hinchburg. The plaintiff sought to restrain the corporation from proceeding to collect the taxes for 1896, on the ground that the assessment exceeded two cents on the dollar, exclusive of school rates, on the value of the ratable property in the village. He leaves the costs of the motion to be disposed of at the trial.

DIVISIONAL COURT RULES.

The following new rules were made by the Supreme Court of Judicature on Saturday, and are now in force:

Rule 1429 is hereby repealed, and the following substituted therefor:

218 (1). Unless otherwise ordered, sittings of the Divisional Courts shall commence on the first Monday in each month, and shall continue for two weeks, unless the business before the court shall be sooner disposed of, subject to the following exceptions:

(2) The Divisional Courts will not sit on any day falling in any vacation, nor upon any Saturday or public holiday.

(3) Where the first Monday in a month shall fall in any vacation, the Divisional Court will not commence its sittings until the first Monday after the expiration of such vacation, and when the first Monday in a month shall be a public holiday, the Divisional Court will commence its sittings on the first judicial day thereafter, not being in vacation.

Rule 1434 is hereby repealed, and the following substituted therefor:

799 (1) Every motion to a Divisional Court against a judgment, or for a new trial, or to set aside a verdict, or by way of appeal from the judgment or order of a Judge of the High Court, made at a trial, or otherwise, in respect of the judgments pronounced at a trial, shall be set down to be heard for, at the latest, the first sittings of a Divisional Court which commences after the expiration of one month from the date of the verdict, or the pronouncing of the judgment (if any), unless otherwise ordered.

(2) Every such motion shall be upon a seven days' notice, and the motion shall be set down two clear days before the commencement of the sittings of the Divisional Court for which notice is given, unless otherwise ordered.

799 B (1) Every motion to a Divisional Court by way of appeal from any judgment or order made by a Judge of the High Court sitting in court, otherwise than at a trial, or by way of appeal from any judgment or order made by a Judge of the High Court sitting in Chambers, which is appealable to a Divisional Court, shall be set down to be heard for the first sittings of a Divisional Court for which due notice can be served after the expiration of four days from the pronouncing of the judgment or order complained of, unless otherwise ordered.

(2) Every such motion shall be upon two clear days' notice, and the motion shall be set down two clear days before the commencement of the sittings of the Divisional Court, for which the notice is given, unless otherwise ordered.

(3) Every notice of motion or appeal to a Divisional Court shall set out the grounds of the motion or appeal.

Scores' Wonderful Mid-Winter Sale

And if there isn't a tweed suit in your wardrobe, you'd better not miss this chance of getting one. There's a difference in taste—some say we've sold the most stylish patterns, others say we have the most stylish left—come and give us your opinion. Our opinion is that the man who isn't satisfied that any suit in the lot is worth more than $16 doesn't know the value of Scotch tweeds. At the beginning of the season customers were pleased with them at $25. We're safe in saying that there are NO SCOTCH TWEED SUITINGS IN THE CITY TO MATCH THESE AT $16.

Our Mr. R. J. Score leaves for the European markets in a few days, and our aims are all in the direction of clearance of Winter Goods to make room for his Spring purchases.

CHICAGO GOSSIP.

Henry A. King & Co., 12 King-street east, received the following despatch to-day from Chicago:

The seaboard came to the relief of the distressed wheat bulls again to-day. Boston reported freight room taken within three days for 1,500,000 bushels. The news was sufficient encouragement to bring about a recovery of yesterday's decline. It was an irregular sort of market, rather strong at the opening, decidedly weak later on. Cables strong; Liverpool ¾d higher. Northwest receipts light, 174 cars, against 684 a year ago. Cash handlers said there was some improvement in the milling demand, the orders being more general without, however, the aggregate showing much increase. The January Ohio crop report made the winter wheat condition only 88, and reported the plant suffering in parts of the State from lack of snow covering. The feature in the pit was the covering of shorts by the sellers of yesterday. St. Louis was the best buyer. There was some foreign buying, the orders from abroad being small but quite numerous. The local buying was led by Gifford. The best selling was by Counselman & Day. In a general way so far as the speculative trade was concerned to-day was a reversal of yesterday, the buyers of yesterday figuring as the sellers of to-day and vice versa. Exports of wheat and flour, both coasts, this week, flour reduced to west, 2,037,000 bushels, against 2,337,936 bushels last year. English farmers' deliveries wheat past week 27,000 quarters, average price 31s 1d. Beerbohm says the total wheat crop in Russia will be 80,000,000 bushels less than last year's yield. Market dragged in last hour, but closed firm at slight concession from the highest figures of the day. Corn was decidedly weak. There were enormous clearances reported, but they did not stiffen the market one whit. Provisions: In the provision pit the packers were still at work selling enough product to provide for their manufacture. There was just enough trade to take care of that kind of selling. Exporters reported a slight improvement in the demand from the other side, a slight increase in the number of orders rather than in the volume.

McIntyre & Wardwell (John J. Dixon) received the following despatch to-day from Chicago:

Wheat—Higher Liverpool cables caused some local buying this morning and the market opened ⅜c higher. Most of the advance, however, was quickly lost, as there did not appear to be any support from any other source. The sentiment here is decidedly bearish and holders are not taking any aggressive attitude. This makes the advance, which seems to result altogether from too much short selling, difficult to maintain. Northwest receipts this week have been exceedingly light, partly due to the unfavorable weather. There were some cable acceptances reported at the seaboard, but no cash transactions. Demand here has fallen off almost completely and sales made this week are by far the lightest on the crop. The speculative situation does not appear firm at present, and unless the news improves radically we think lower prices quite probable.

Provisions opened strong and ruled firm all day. The International Packing Company and Continental Packing Company sold May ribs; C. P. & P. Co. bought. Market closes strong at about highest prices of day. Estimated receipts of hgs Mnday 44,000; next week 200,000.

Pursuant to the judgment of the High Court of Justice made in the action of Spencer v. Gourlay, there will be sold, with the approbation of the Master in Ordinary, at the auction rooms of C. J. Townsend & Co, 22 King-street west, Toronto, at the hour of 12 o'clock noon, on Saturday, the 23rd day of January, A.D. 1897, the following lands and premises in one parcel, subject to a reserve bid: Part of lot number seven, on the east side of Sumach-street, in the City of Toronto, according to registered plan No. 108, having a frontage of sixty-six feet on Sumach-street, by a depth of two hundred and ninety-two feet, and being the southerly sixty-six feet of the said lot seven.

Upon the said lands there are three dwelling houses, one large rough-cast house, with stable in rear, and two smaller brick-fronted houses. These houses are Nos. 147, 149 and 151 Sumach-street. This property is centrally located, and is of a character likely to be rented without difficulty. There is a fine orchard and garden in the rear, which forms part of this property and very much enhances its value.
