FAR ROCKAWAY AT SARATOGA

Seagram's Two-Year-Old Wins Second Part of Grand Union Hotel Stakes.

FOUL RIDING BY JOCKEY McCUE

Fantasy Beat Topmast at Windsor—Summaries and Entries for the Day.

Saratoga, Aug. 20.—J. E. Seagram's Far Rockaway, by Faraday-Slipaway, won the second part of the Grand Union Hotel Stakes this afternoon by a head from Lady Schorr, with Longshoreman only half a length away. For the first time in over a week the track was in good condition, and the time made in several events was fast. King Bramble won by a length from Lord Baltimore in the mile and three-sixteenths handicap. The latter was disqualified for fouling Alsike during the run down he back stretch, and Kunja, who was third at the finish, was placed second and Wait Not third. McCue, who rode Lord Baltimore, was suspended for three days for foul riding.

First race, for 4-year-olds and upwards, 6 furlongs—Gala Day, 110 (Burns), 6 to 5, 1; Godfrey, 110 (Neumyer), 60 to 1, 2; Excelsis, 110 (O'Connor), 12 to 5, 3. Time 1.15. Lavanda, Terrorist, Mr. Leiter and Branmin also ran.

Big Amateur Tournament.

San Francisco, Aug. 20.—The Olympic Club intends to bring off one of the greatest amateur boxing tournaments ever held in America some time this winter. It has been decided to bring together, if possible, the champion amateur boxers of Australia, England and America to decide the world's amateur championships in the bantam, featherweight, lightweight, welterweight, middle and heavyweight classes. Amateur athletic associations of Australia and England will be asked to send their best representatives to compete in the tournament.

Copland's Games on Thursday.

The Copland Brewing Company's fourth annual games will be held at the Woodbine on Thursday afternoon next. These games have always been well patronized by the sportsmen of the city, last year fully 700 people being present. This year the committee have over $200 in prizes. A number of events are open to the hotel and liquor trade of the Province.

Toronto Rugby Football Club.

The Toronto Lacrosse and Athletic Association, per J. M. Macdonald, secretary-treasurer, has sent out the following circular: I am instructed to call a meeting on Friday night, Aug. 23, at club house, Rosedale, with a view of organizing a Senior Rugby Football Club, to be called Toronto. We have a promise of several supports, with the additional hope of finding first-class men to constitute a strong fifteen. Arrangements are under way to secure a practice ground down town. Hoping for your support and influence, and trusting to see you present.

Eccentric Quoiting Club.

The Eccentric Quoiting Club are making extensive preparations for a grand benefit concert to be tendered to Bob Gamble, the veteran quoiter, to be held in the club rooms on Thursday evening, Aug. 30. Three boxing bouts are on the card, a four-round go between Southcombe and Heaney, six rounds between Halligan and Keating. The star bout, between Jim Baird and Bob Britton, will be one of ten rounds. Jimmy Connors will referee all bouts.

Killed by a Bull.

Douglas, Man., Aug. 20.—(Special.)—Andrew McMillan, while in the act of fastening a bull in the horse stable yesterday, was attacked by it and killed.

$6 Men's Boots for $3.75

That's a smart reduction—a great reduction when you consider the boots are "Burt & Packard's" fine American Shoe for men—the "Korrect shape" shoe. $3.75 a pair—all the styles in vogue—some of the lines already broken, only the 9's and 10's and 5's and 6's left—but every size is represented in some of the shapes. Men who like real good shoes but have been deterred from buying on account of having to pay $5.50 to $6.50 for them are fast jumping at this opportunity.

GAMES ON THE CRICKET CREASE.

Single Men Beat the Married Men at Richmond Hill—The Veteran, Chandler, Umpired.

After passing thru the lacrosse and the baseball fevers, Richmond Hill has returned to the good old English game of cricket, and as a curtain-raiser the single men of the newly-organized club challenged the married men to a match for Saturday. The crease was not of the best, but the club intend to make it so shortly, and city clubs may expect to receive challenges from them in the near future, as there is some good cricket material in the town. None of the married men reached double figures, and, French, Glover and Beck batting well for the singles, the older fellows were easily defeated. Saigon surprised his friends by the good catch which retired Beck. They had not thought him capable of it. The club was fortunate in having for umpire (at both ends) Mr. John Chandler of Toronto, the veteran cricketer. Below is the full score:

All the Experts Will Be There.

Niagara-on-the-Lake, Aug. 20.—A number of players competing in the international tennis tournament, which begins to-morrow, have already arrived. There is a great list of entries, including practically all the famous players of the United States, while the ladies will be especially well represented this year. Play will begin to-morrow afternoon with the novice singles, and on Wednesday the ladies' singles and handicap will begin. The first round of the all-comers' will be played on Wednesday afternoon, but most of the cracks from Newport will not arrive until early Thursday morning. A concert and dance on Wednesday evening, a cake-walk Thursday evening, vaudeville performance on Friday evening and the tennis ball on Saturday evening are the events of interest during the week.

BEAT THE HOODOO TWICE.

Williams and Alloway in Superb Form, and Providence Dropped Double-Header.

MONTREAL WON AND LOST.

Hartford Beat Brooklyn in Exhibition Game, While Boston Shut Out Syracuse.

The Islanders pulled themselves together yesterday and captured all of the double-header from the old stumbling block at Providence. Williams' usual good work had no bad luck behind it, and the Greys were shut out until the ninth, when Stafford's home run scored three. In the second game Alloway pitched as if he didn't want to go to Syracuse, and it was nearer a whitewash than the first. As Montreal could only win one from Worcester, Toronto again goes into sixth place. Hartford and Syracuse engaged in exhibition games, and Rochester and Springfield rested. The record:

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Providence	62	44	.585
Hartford	56	40	.583
Rochester	56	44	.560
Springfield	48	48	.500
Worcester	49	49	.500
Toronto	46	50	.435
Montreal	45	54	.454
Syracuse	36	54	.398

Games to-day: Toronto at Syracuse, Montreal at Rochester, Hartford at Worcester, Springfield at Providence.

Toronto Won Two.

Providence, Aug. 20.—Toronto twice defeated the League leaders to-day by timely hitting and effective base-running, behind good pitching. Latimer, the new Providence pitcher, showed everything in curves and mixtures after he settled down. Providence found Alloway but for three hits, and the second game was lost for lack of batting. Attendance, 2500.

Montreal Won and Lost.

Worcester, Aug. 20.—Worcester and Montreal played another double-header this afternoon, and again broke even. Klobedanz pitched in the first game, but was hit freely, and in the fourth innings was given very loose support. The second game was easy for Worcester. Manager Lovett to-night gave Catcher Phelps his unconditional release.
