NEWCASTLE

Newcastle, Aug. 30—A very pretty wedding and one of much interest among the younger set here and elsewhere took place at St. Paul's church, Chatham Head, last Wednesday morning, Aug. 23, at 10.30 o'clock, when Miss Mary Burchill, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Burchill, of Nelson, and Mr. Frank John Robinson, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Robinson, of Boston, were united in holy matrimony. The ceremony was performed by Ven. Archdeacon Forsythe, assisted by Rev. W. J. Wilkinson, of Springhill, uncle of the bride.

The decorations of the church, which was filled with friends and relatives, made a very pretty setting for the event, a profusion of ferns and white flowers having been used by the bride's friends in the decorative scheme.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, the Hon. J. P. Burchill, looked very sweet and charming in her wedding gown of white duchess satin with court train, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. The veil was the one which had been worn by her grandmother, the late Mrs. Stuart Tremaine, of Halifax. The bridesmaids were Miss Laura Burchill, the bride's sister, and Miss Mary Wilkinson, a cousin of the bride, who wore gowns of white voile, with yellow sashes, white shoes and stockings and Normandy caps, and carried bouquets of yellow roses.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at Birch Hill, the home of the bride, only the relatives of the contracting parties being present. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson motored to town and took the limited at 1.45 for a honeymoon trip to Washington and Philadelphia, after which they will reside in Brookline (Mass.) The bride's going-away gown was of navy blue pussy willow taffeta, with shoes, stockings and hat to match. Quantities of beautiful and costly gifts from friends far and near testified to the loving esteem in which the bride is held.
