THE NEW YORK TIMES.

A DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER.

What THE TIMES is:

A high-class newspaper for the city reader and for the country home; for the merchant, the professional man, the financier, the politician, the teacher, the farmer and the mechanic—for every American who would be promptly and truthfully told what the people of this world are doing; for women and for young folks interested in household affairs, in new books and old, in art, science, religion and education, in the rivalries of amateur sports, in society, and in all the lighter goings-on and wholesome gossip of the day. It is a full, clean and complete newspaper, conducted with intelligence for intelligent people.

What THE TIMES believes in:

Federal taxation imposed in the interest of the Government and of the whole people, not for the restriction of trade and the benefit of the few; an honest dollar that the hand of toil may receive without loss and pay over without shame; a liberal expenditure for pensions to veterans who need and deserve them, and to no others; the Democratic Party as a better instrumentality of popular government than the Republican; and in keeping that party true to its aims under sound leadership.

The financial page of THE TIMES is a capital manual for investors, for bankers, and for officers and trustees of savings banks, trust companies, insurance companies. Railway earnings, stock and bond quotations, interest and dividend notices, the organization of new companies, and all financial news reports are promptly and accurately printed.

Note the excellence of THE TIMES in these departments:

Banking and Financial,	Markets and Commercial Reports
Politics, National and State,	Army and Navy News,
Schools and Colleges,	Art and Science,

	Book Reviews.
