REVERTS IN RANK TO GET OVERSEAS WITH BATTERY UNIT

Head of Royal School of Instruction Drops Star.

LONG IN SERVICE HERE

Capt. Cantin, Now Going to France, Has Trained 3,000 Men as Officers.

After long and faithful service in various capacities in connection with the instruction of troops in this district, Capt. J. N. Cantin, adjutant of the Royal School of Instruction here, is leaving for Petawawa, where he will revert to the rank of lieutenant and join the 64th Battery, C. F. A., for overseas service.

Although he offered his services at the beginning of the war, Capt. Cantin was prevented by a severe eye infection, which he contracted while in command of a troop of the 7th Canadian Mounted Rifles, under Lieut.-Col. E. I. Leonard, from getting overseas, and is now taking down one of his captain's stars to get away.

The services he has rendered have been most varied and valuable. While with the C. M. R. he was placed in command of the machine gun section, and later placed in charge of the physical training for the Regiment. Being unable to accompany it whe nthat unit departed for overseas service, he was attached to the district headquarters staff as assistant musketry instructor, and appointed superviser of physical training for Military District No. 1.

It was in this district that Capt. Cantin, acting on the instructions of Brig.-Gen. Shannon, led the way for the whole of Canada by the early and systematic introduction of physical training into the usual syllabus followed.

During the time that the 33rd, 34th, 70th and 71st Battalions were quartered here, he had charge of the map-reading instruction for officers and men.

Became School Adjutant.

When Major E. M. McLean went to the 142nd as second in command in 1915, Capt. Cantin was appointed adjutant of the Royal School of Instruction, under Lieut.-Col. H. D. Smith, G.S.O., as commandant.

Excellent work was done in the school during this period, and the syllabus was brought up to the standard required for overseas service, and the courses given in this district are now recognized as most complete. Since the beginning of the war some 3,000 officers and N. C. O.'s have, directly or indirectly, received their training through the school here.

Capt. Cantin, after receiving his early education in Montreal, graduated from the R. M. C. in 1913. He is of French-Canadian descent, and is the son of N. M. Cantin of St. Joseph, Ont.

Great regret was expressed at headquarters today at the announcement of his departure from London. Officers at headquarters today, while anxious to congratulate Capt. Cantin on his success in getting admittance to an overseas unit, were extremely sorry to hear that he was about to leave the city.

Praise From Commander.

Lieut.-Col. Smith, acting officer commanding this district, today also expressed regret at his leaving. "As adjutant of the School of Instruction, his services have been very satisfactory," he said, "and he has always proved himself a capable and efficient militia officer.

"He has now become medically fit, and feels that it is up to him to go overseas, and while we are sorry to lose his services, we feel that it is up to us to let him go."

USUAL "NOT GUILTY" PLEA FAILS AGAIN IN POLICE COURT

All Charles Scales' Eloquence Falls on Deaf Ears.

Charles Scales, a colored citizen well known in police court circles, came to the city palace of justice today by special request, and when he departed he was minus $2.00 of real Canadian currency.

Charles was convicted on a charge of assaulting Robert Green. The defendant claimed that Scales handed him a "Jack Johnson wallop" on the point of the jaw which caused him to see stars for several seconds.

Scales pleaded not guilty, as he has to all the charges on which he has been summoned to court lately. With the eloquence of a Demosthenes he endeavored to convince Magistrate Graydon that he was the most persecuted man in Canada. But the oratory of Charles was of no avail and the fine of $2.00 was imposed.

On the second charge, that of obstructing the street corner at Oxford and Adelaide streets, an indefinite adjournment was made. It was shown that Scales had removed his ice cream stand from the boulevard, and Chief W. T. Williams stated he was content to allow the case to rest as long as Scales kept off city property.

W. C. T. U. TO REOPEN SPRINGBANK CAMP FOR LONDON GIRLS

Qualifications of Last Year Being Reversed Now.

Preparations are under way for the opening again this year of the W. C. T. U. holiday camp for girls at Springbank, across from the pumphouse, under the direction of Mrs. Harrison. Last year the camp was given over to the girls serving King and country by berry picking. This meant that there was no room for the girls who need the change and the health-giving outing afforded at the camp, while perhaps continuing their regular duties during the day in the city.

This year the order is to be reversed and while provision may be made for a few girls doing farm work near Springbank, the camp will first and foremost belong to the girls in need of a good holiday at a minimum cost. For those coming in each day to the city to their work breakfast and dinner will be provided at the camp, and a lunch to take along for noon. Doubtless there will be girls as well who can spend long, blissful summer days for one or two whole weeks as boarders at the camp.

The only really binding regulation which everyone is expected to observe is the one which says, "The camp closes at 10 p.m." It is possible that, owing to the longer daylight which daylight saving involves, this may be stretched to 10:15 or 10:30 this summer.

This year there are no tents to pitch owing to the fact that the permanent huts have been established and have stood the strain of the winter well. It is hoped to have the camp open by July 1st, and Mrs. Harrison is already giving her attention to the subject of registration of those who are going to take advantage of the camp this year.

SUGGESTS SETTLEMENT

Chief Justice Advises Litigants to Get Together.

At the conclusion of the hearing of evidence in the case of O'Neil vs. O'Neil at the supreme court sitting today, Chief Justice Falconbridge suggested that the parties get together and settle the case among themselves.

The success with which the chief justice's suggestion met will be announced by counsel to the court this afternoon.

At the opening of court this afternoon, the McGirr vs. Standeven case was taken up. The action arises out of a timber deal between George McGirr of East Nissouri and Frank Standeven of St. Marys.

33RD COMRADES' PICNIC

Outing to Port Stanley in August To Be Arranged.

At a meeting of the 33rd Comrades' Club, held in the rooms of the Great War Veterans' Association Tuesday evening, it was decided to hold a picnic at Port Stanley some time in August.

The following committee was elected to make arrangements for the picnic: Comrades Pocock, Billington, Shaw and Lupsen.

The date of the picnic will be announced at the next meeting, which will be held in two weeks.

Letters were read from the former members of the 33rd Battalion, and the men overseas stating they were pleased to see that a 33rd Comrade Club had been formed.

BORROWING UNIFORM TO CAMOUFLAGE SNAP DANGEROUS PROCEDURE

Youth Who Wanted Picture in Khaki Learns Bitter Lesson.

Arthur Prodgers, 417 Horton street, was allowed to go in police court this morning with a severe warning when he appeared for sentence on the charge of unlawfully wearing a military uniform.

Prodgers was arrested Sunday evening as he was strolling along Dundas street. The military policeman detained Prodgers because he was improperly dressed for one reason and because he had nothing to indicate his connection with the militia beyond the uniform he was wearing.

Prodgers explained to the court on Monday that a friend, a member of the 1st Depot Battalion, W. O. R., in training at Carling Heights, had exchanged clothes with him in order to permit Arthur to have his photograph taken.

This friend was in police court this morning and he corroborated Prodgers' story and said he did not think there was any harm in lending his uniform for a short time.

Magistrate Graydon ordered that both be taken under military escort to the Armories and there be compelled to exchange clothes.

AGRICULTURAL OBJECTORS MAKING APPEARANCE BEFORE COURT-MARTIAL

NIAGARA CAMP, June 18.—Agricultural objectors are now among the men appearing before the court-martial here under the military service act.

Arthur Atkinson, who was charged with having refused to obey military orders in the 2nd Battalion, C. O. R., gave as his reason that he thought that farmers should not be called to the army. He said there was no person left on his 100-acre farm, eight miles north of Dunnville, but his mother and a 9-year-old brother. He said he would serve in the army if granted two weeks' leave, but otherwise would not serve at all.

As he was already in default and sentenced to 28 days' detention, the court pointed out that he had forfeited any claim to leniency which he might have had, also it was not for him to say whether he would serve in the army or not.

William Andrew McGirr, 21 years of age, a farmer, refused to perform any military duty, and said he would go to penitentiary, because he had been treated by the military as a jailbird for the last two weeks, and he might as well go the rest of the way.

The court pleaded with him to change his mind, as he is "a fine-looking boy," but he replied that he was not a "quitter."

13 PATROL SAMMIES BEAT 40 AMBUSHED GERMANS

WASHINGTON, June 18.—A fight between thirteen Americans and a German ambush patrol of forty, in which most of the Americans fought their way back to their own lines, is told in a dispatch today from Gen. Pershing, continuing yesterday's communique. Following is the communique:

"On the night of June 13 to June 14, an American patrol of thirteen men, operating on the front occupied by our troops in Picardy, ran into an ambush patrol of forty Germans. In spite of its inferiority in numbers, the greater part of our patrol cut its way through the enemy and returned to our lines. The fierceness of the fighting may be judged from the fact that nearly all the men who returned to our lines were wounded.

WINS MILITARY CROSS.

WOODSTOCK, June 17.—Lieut. Harold J. McKenzie has been decorated with the military cross. He has been overseas two years and was with the Canadian Engineers in the preparations made by them for their great achievement at Vimy Ridge.

Three more local boys returned today from France. One of the three, Corp. Reub Wilkes, went overseas with the 18th in 1914. He was gassed. Pte. J. Gilken, who went with the 71st, and Pte. J. M. Fairley were the others to be welcomed by Mayor West and others of the local reception committee.

BLAMES CHICAGO

ceed to Windsor in case of necessity; the ringleader was removed from Windsor to the Sandwich jail, and the 30 men brought to London.

"Things are quiet in Windsor this morning, and no further trouble is anticipated.

"The cause of the trouble is being thoroughly investigated, and if evidence warrants it, parties instigating people to break the laws of the country, will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law."

Demanded Release.

A Windsor report, carried by the Canadian Press wire, today says that at the Ford City meeting on Tuesday night the aliens of the town decided not to return to work until the release of Parchuda, the alleged I. W. W. agitator, and his followers was ordered.

The dispatch adds:

"They, however, promised to comply with the registration act, and arrangements have been made to register them this morning at the town hall, Ford."

Caused Excitement Here.

The hurried calling out of the men of the C. G. R. last night created considerable excitement in London. Announcements were made in local theatres and other public places that the officers and men of the 1st Battalion were to report at once. Military police and patrols were also used to gather in the men in anticipation of the hurried trip to the border should the civil and military police detachments there prove unequal to the task.

The threatening attitude of the foreigners at the meeting in Ford City last night added fuel to the flames of the rumors in circulation.

The Windsor dispatch which referred to the arrest of the ringleader of the trouble follows:

MAY BE PLOTTER.

WINDSOR, June 18.—Although the charge against him is the nominal one of being without useful occupation, the military police are confident that they have an important prisoner in John Parchuda, Austrian of Ford, who was arrested yesterday and arraigned in police court here today, while several hundred of his countrymen looked on. Magistrate Miers remanded him for eight days at the request of Crown Attorney Redd, and the prisoner was immediately removed to Sandwich jail under close guard.

This evening a squad of Dominion police, in charge of Lieut. Gregory, made a search of Perchuda's house in Ford, and found there what amounts to evidence of the strongest sort. In addition to two small bombs, such as are used for signaling purposes, there were electric flashlights, photographs of several important railroad bridges, a lot of inflammatory literature of the I.W.W. type, grease paints and wigs.

Was on Bail.

Perchuda was out on bail awaiting trial on a charge of disturbing services of a Russian Orthodox church in Ford when he was rearrested. A feature of the police court proceedings today was the presence of Perchuda's followers, who watched the proceedings closely, although all disclaimed a knowledge of the English language. As the foreigners were filing out of the police station they were all subjected to a rigid search. A quantity of I.W.W. cards were found. Some 100 of the men did not have passports, and these were herded into the armories, where they are being kept under guard tonight.

Lieut.-Col. W. W. Brown of London, assistant adjutant-general of No. 1 Military District, and Major Hirsch, assistant provost-mashal, of London, arrived here this evening to conduct a further probe.

GEN. FRANCHET D'ESPERRI SUCCEEDING GUILLAUMAT TO COMMAND IN BALKANS

ATHENS, June 18.—General Franchet d'Esperri has been appointed commander-in-chief of the Allied forces in the Near East, in succesaon to General Guillaumat, who has been made military governor of Paris. General Franchet d'Esperri was tendered a luncheon today by Premier Venizelos of Greece.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

SCARCITY SENDS OATS BACK TO $2.70

Price On Local Market Jumps Today.

Oats jumped to $2 70 per cwt on the local market this morning. The advance in price is due to the scarcity of oats, only a few loads having been offered this week, and the demand is extraordinarily good.

Eggs, wholesale, crate lots, advanced to 37c a dozen, and basket lots, wholesale, sold from 37@38c a dozen. The retail price remains at 40c a dozen.

Butter is steady, creamery retailing from 47@48c per lb, and dairy pound rolls retailing at 42c.

Hay sold as high as $11 25 a ton today. A large quantity of first-class hay was sold at the top price. The demand is much better. Straw remains at the quoted price.

A shipment of live hogs was made today, $17 per cwt being paid. Dressed hogs continue to sell at $25 per cwt.

Beef is steady, selling from $17@20 per cwt, and lambs from $30@32.

There is no change in the prices of poultry, chickens retailing from 33@35c per lb, and ducks from 25@28c.

Hides and wool remain the same.

GRAIN.

Chicago, June 19.—Opening: Corn—July, $1 43¾; August, $1 45⅛.
Oats—July, 71⅛c; August, 66½c.

Chicago, June 19.—Falling off in receipts, together with belief that the crop movement would be still more curtailed as soon as much wheat was ready for shipment, had a bullish effect today on corn. Initial declines due to favorable weather were not of a lasting sort, as Government advices showed need of rain in important districts. The opening prices, which ranged from ⅜c off to ⅛c advance, with July at $1 43½@1 44⅛, and August at $1 45@1 45¼, were followed by moderate upturns all around.

Revived export demand strengthened oats. The fact that the crop is at a critical stage seemed also to make sellers cautious. After opening ⅛c off to ¼c advance, with July at 71⅛@71¼c, the market scored material gains.

Winnipeg, June 19.—Oats opened ⅛c lower for July at 85⅛; October unchanged at 70⅝c.

Flax 1½c lower for July at $3 74½, and 3c lower for October at $3 42.

Inspections on Tuesday totaled 168 cars. Contract grades of wheat, 94 cars.

LIVE STOCK.

Toronto, June 19.—The trade at the Union stockyards this morning was inclined to be slow, and prices were steady. Sheep were weaker and calves were steady to firm. Hogs unchanged. Receipts, 770 cattle, 234 calves, 1,821 hogs and 436 sheep.
