A Costly Spark.

CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—Suits aggregating $1,250,000 will be filed against the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad within the next few days, to recover for damages caused by the big fire in the lumber district the evening of Aug. 1, 1894. It started in the lumber yards of the S. K. Martin Lumber Company, and swept the entire plant of several lumber companies, besides the electrical plant of the Siemens & Halske Company, and the car building shops of the Wells & French Company. It is claimed that a spark from a passing engine caused the conflagration.

Settled!

An Agreement Reached in the Comfort Will Case.

The Young Widow Will Get $13,500 of the Estate,

And Not $4,000, as Designated in the Document.

Increased Legacies Given to Several Other Heirs.

Mrs. Hindmarsh's Share Will Reach Nearly $70,000—The Bequests to Charities Unchanged.

Monday Afternoon.

At this afternoon's session of the Middlesex Winter Assizes the long-looked-for case of Hindmarsh vs. Comfort was reached. It is a dispute over a will, involving an estate valued at about $115,000, and promises to bring many startling statements to light. About the middle of August, 1894, Hiram Comfort, an old citizen, died in St. Thomas. Comfort had acted as assessor and collector there for about 25 years, and it was generally understood that he was worth about $25,000. Comfort was twice married. His second wife was a Miss McRoberts, of St. Thomas, a very attractive lady, respectably connected and many years the junior of Comfort. There were several children all of them grown up—and the day of Comfort's funeral

THE WILL WAS READ.

It surprised even the heirs themselves. Maud May Comfort, the widow, was remembered with about $4,000; Mrs. Ellis Dyer, a daughter, got $1,000, and her four children a similar amount each. Mrs. Mary Ann Toogood, another married daughter, was bequeathed $4,000, and each of her two children got $1,000. H. C. Hindmarsh, a grandson, got $1,000; W. N. Cripps and Percy Cripps, two other grandchildren, got $1,000 each; the Thomas Williams Home in St. Thomas, $500; the Amasa Wood Hospital, $500; the Y. M. C. A., $200, and a mortgage in favor of deceased from his brother Frank Comfort was ordered to be discharged on payment of $3,000. Mrs. Hindmarsh was given the balance of the estate, which amounts to over $100,000. This was of the will, as it was naturally expected that the widow would come for the lion's share. Application to probate the will was made, but Mrs. Comfort would not consent. The suit arose through this refusal, and Mrs Comfort has Mr. B. B. Osler to represent her. She claims that Mrs. Hindmarsh exercised undue influence over her father, and thus got him to fix the will to suit herself.

THE SURPRISING FEATURE

WHAT MR. WYATT KNOWS.

Wm. J. Wyatt, of Qu'Appelle, Northwest Territory, a former Thomas grocer, was the first witness. Mr. Wyatt was an occupant of the store east of the Southern Loan Company's on Talbot street in 1891, and lived at his store. Comfort lived over the Loan Company's building. Wyatt had been called by Mr. J. W. Stewart and Mr. Angus witness a signature on the will. Stewart's name was signed to the document. was Mr. Comfort's, and both Stewart and Angus acknowledged the signature to be theirs. Both names were attached the document was brought to Wyatt difference existed between Stewart the witness as to where the will had been signed. The will was not read to Watt, and he never witnessed any other document for the deceased. Wyatt knew Comfort, and was of the opinion that when the will was made he was quite capable transacting business.

To Mr. Macdonald, Wyatt said he knew Mrs. Hindmarsh's writing but would not swear whether the writing of the body of the will was hers or not.

John Walker Stewart, manager of the Southern Loan Company, saw what was necessary in witnessing signature to a will. He remembered witnessing Comfort's will and identifies his signature. Stewart was certain he will be witnessed, because Comfort had previously asked him to attach signature. Deceased signed the will in the presence of the witness and Wyatt and Stewart signed in each other's presence.

In reply to Mr. Osler, Stewart said he remembered being at Wyatt store with Comfort, and signing a paper for him. It may have the will. He thought that the of the document was

IN MRS. HINDMARSH'S HANDWRITING.

The inventory in it up to $113,773, the real estate amounting to $5,353. By the will $16,500 went to the family other than Mrs. Hindmarsh, $1,200 to charities, and $94,000 to the plaintiff, Mrs. Hindmarsh, besides to her son.

Mr. Osler put large number of documents which recognized by the witness as being the handwriting of Comfort. Mr. Osler said he would read portions of them they went into very UNPLEASANT MATTERS.

Mr. H. F. Ellis, in his examination, stated tor, in his examination, stated that Comfort was assessor and collector in Thomas for about 25 years. He was rt's legal adviser, and had made draft of the will for the deceased prior to Comfort's (Comfort's) going to the Northwest. fort said he wanted to give something ch of his family, but the bulk of his rty he was going to give to his de Etoile (Mrs. Hindmarsh.) The s afterwards read to Comfort, and presence of the two witnesses was ed by the old man. Comfort said and that he want any squabbling over the est n he was dead. The next time w w the will was the day of the funer was then read to the family. No had been made in the will as far a s knew.

THAT SUITED HIM,

"This will been paged?" asked Mr, Osler o ness.

"Not ata

"And th nothing to prevent a page being at or one put it?"

"No."

"It was UNSAFE WILL."

"Well, would not leave it that way," rep Ellis.

Further earned that the will had been open Comfort's death and a brass fas d been removed from the corner. I a paper cap was placed. Comfort sed on income at $1,000 a year.

"And hink he had no idea of his estate?" r. Osler.

"I ca replied Mr. Ellis.

Q.—I ink that he honestly knew what h th? A.—I think so.

Q.— on did Comfort give you for lea bulk of his estate to Mrs. Hindm A.—Well, he said he had confidence in her, while the other two girls

MARRIED SPENDTHRIFTS.

And he (Comfort) did not want them to throw away his estate.

Q.—Don't you know that the most objectionable daughter to him was the plaintiff, Mrs. Hindmarsh? A.—I do not.

"Well, it can be shown by the reading of those letters," replied Mr. Osler.

"Well, I cannot help that," was Mr. Ellis' reply.

The court then adjourned.

The Case Settled.

When Justice Meredith took his seat at 10 o'clock this (Tuesday) morning the lawyers and clients in the dispute over the will of the late Hiram C. Comfort, of St. Thomas, were all present. It was announced that an endeavor was being made to settle the case. Judge Meredith hinted that he would be very glad if an agreement could be reached. About 12 o'clock Mr. B. B. Osler, representing the widow, announced

A SETTLEMENT.

By the agreement the will is very much altered. The costs of all parties are to be paid out of the estate, including Surrogate Court and examination fees and the expenses of Mr. Dier (Comfort's son-in-law) in coming from British Columbia. The defendant's funeral and testamentary expenses and all costs are to have first preference. The legacies of $500 each to the Thomas Williams Home, the Amasa Wood Hospital and $200 to the St. Thomas Y. M. C. A. are unchanged.

The widow, Maud May Comfort,

WILL HAVE $13,500

over and above all sums given to her by deceased in his lifetime, and she is to bar her dower in all the real estate of Comfort. This is an increase of $9,500 over what Mrs. Comfort was to receive had the original instructions of the will been carried out.

The four grandchildren of the deceased—Elmore, Harry, Roy and Aggie Dier—will come in for $1,000 each, as under the will, while their mother, Ellen Dier, is much better off by the settlement. She will receive $9,500 instead of $1,000.

Frederick and Minnie Toogood, grandchildren, will receive the share originally designated to them—$1,000 each. Their mother, Mrs. Mary Ann Toogood, who is a daughter of Comfort's, will receive $7,000 instead of $4,000. The remaining two grandchildren, Wm. N. Cripps and Percy Cripps, have lost their mother. They will be remembered with $4,500 each and not $1,000. All the above sums are to be paid free of all costs or taxes of any kind.

MRS. HINDMARSH GETS THE REST.

The residue of the estate will be paid to Mrs. Hindmarsh. It will amount to about $70,000. This is a decrease of $30,000 compared with the old will.

The will shall be probated at once.

Mr. Osler announced the terms of the settlement to the court and gave many reasonable explanations for the course pursued.

"The settlement seems to me to be eminently satisfactory," said Justice Meredith.

"I am glad to say all parties are content," said Mr. Osler, and the case was ended.

OTHER CASES.

The parties in Thompson vs. Hawson live in Calgary, N.W. T. A question in the case is now awaiting a decision in the Toronto courts. The argument will be made later.

Paulin vs. Calder, an action respecting an insolvent estate brought by E. D. Paulin, of St. Thomas, against John Calder, of Hamilton, has been postponed till the next non-jury sittings.

Manley against the London Loan, was a suit for the redemption of a mortgage. The parties agreed as to the facts, and the question for settlement is one of computation. W. H. Blake, Toronto, for the plaintiff; G. C. Gibbons, Q.C., for the company. Judgment was given for the defendants.

Chinese Seeking Peace.

LONDON, Jan. 22.—A dispatch to the Central News from Shanghai says the Chinese peace envoys today made application to the agents of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company for transportation to Japan, and will sail on Jan. 26.

SEEKING AID.

Thousands in Dire Distress.

MANY ARE NEAR DEATH.

THE SUFFERERS SHOULD BE DIRECTED TO PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND.

MRS. DURANT IS CURED

At the present time there are thousands of valuable lives in jeopardy in our country, and men and women are anxiously seeking for help. Many are cruelly suffering and in deep distress. Kidney and liver complaints, heart troubles, dyspepsia, indigestion and rheumatism have brought many to the verge of the grave. Mental anxiety, failures with doctors, and the thought of leaving near and dear ones behind, adds to the weight of agony and physical tortures.

It is the duty of all who know what Paine's Celery Compound has done in the past to urge every sufferer to give it a trial; it cannot fail; its mission is to cure and save.

Mrs. George Durant, a lady living in Elma, Dundas county, Ont., was cured of liver and kidney troubles after the failure of several physicians. She writes as follows:

"Permit me to record my testimony in favor of your excellent preparation, Paine's Celery Compound. For many years I have been a sufferer from liver and kidney troubles, and have doctored with several physicians, but only found relief for a very short time. My husband advised me to try your Compound. I did so, and found so much relief from the first bottle that I continued, and am now using the third bottle. Your Compound has done more for me than any physician. For months before using the Compound I never had one night of sound sleep; but now I can go to bed and sleep soundly and naturally, and feel like a new creature in the morning."
