LITTLE CHANCE OF INCREASE IN FARES UNLESS PEOPLE SAY

Committee Chairman Strongly Opposed To Independent Action.

NO SALE OFFER MADE

Men of Union Anxious To Get Any Concession For Company.

No. 1 committee of the city council will meet specially tomorrow for the purpose of discussing street railway matters, and, if possible, evolving some plan for bringing about an amelioration of present service conditions. Ald. Dr. L. S. Holmes, chairman of the special railway committee, at whose request the special meeting of No. 1 is being called, stated today that he was still of the opinion that no fare increase arrangement can or should be put into effect until after the citizens have approved it at the polls. He said that so far as he was concerned the matter was one of such vital importance to every citizen that the council would not be justified, entirely apart from the legal aspect, in authorizing any change in the present schedule of fares without consulting the people first.

No New Proposition.

Dr. Holmes, referring to The Advertiser's report of an interview with him on Friday, declared today that he had not misstated the facts with regard to the conference between the special committee and officials of the street railway company on Thursday afternoon. He said that the company at that conference did not submit any new proposition, merely reiterating the proposition which it had made before, and refusing to make any further concessions.

The question of purchase, said Dr. Holmes, was brought up by members of the committee at the conference, but no satisfaction was given by the company's officials, who were quite noncommittal in the matter. Dr. Holmes stated that his own view was that purchase was the best possible solution of the whole complicated problem. He went on to say, however, that this matter could not be taken up by No. 1 tomorrow, since no data was available for the committee's consideration, and would not be until the directors of the company made a definite proposal of terms.

An Interim Agreement.

Members of the Street Railwaymen's Union declare that the latest legal opinion is to the effect that the city, while it could not legally change the present agreement without a vote of the people, could make a separate agreement, to run for a defined length of time, say, one year, granting the increase in fares asked.

The men also say that they are not concerned about the extent of the concessions granted by the city. All they want is that some change from the present rate, in favor of the company, should be made, since the agreement between themselves and the company binds them to accept the present wage scale until the city grants higher fares. Therefore, if any increase at all were granted, even if it affected only the regular strip tickets, not the workingmen's tickets, they would be relieved from their bond, and could, and would, imediately demand increased wages, with a strike as the alternative.

DUAL CITIZENSHIP CLAIM OF DRAFT EVADER; FINED $250

WINDSOR, June 21.—"Dual citizenship" was the plea of Victor Tessier of Ford City and Ernest Allard of St. Joachim in police court here today when arraigned before Magistrate Miers upon a charge of failing to report for service when called under the M. S. A.

In each case a conviction was registered and a fine of $250 imposed. Both accused were born in the United States of British parentage, and consequently are claimed as citizens of both countries. The young men reported for medical examination in Windsor and were categoried "A-2." Pending the call for service they crossed the border and enlisted as American citizens with the United States expeditionary forces. When the armistice was signed they returned to Canada and recently were arrested as defaulters.

ALL COTTON MILLS OF LANCASHIRE ARE CLOSED BY STRIKE

MANCHESTER, England, June 21.—All the cotton mills in Lancashire closed at noon today (Saturday) and it is expected by Monday 55,000,000 spindles and thousands of looms will be stopped through the strike of 500,000 workers.

The cotton mill owners say they will make no effort to run the mills.

TEN-YEAR-OLD BOY, LOST ON SATURDAY, REMAINS MISSING

Wanders Away From St. Joseph's Orphanage.

MAY BE DROWNED

Police Aid Solicited, as Child Was Last Seen Near River Thames.

Missing since 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Peter Bykowy, 10-year-old Austrian ward of Mount St. Joseph's Orphanage, is thought to have become a victim to the treacherous waters of the north branch of the River Thames.

Search instituted on Saturday night by police and officials of the institution has failed to reveal any clue as tothe possible whereabouts or the departure of the youngster. Police believe that the boy may have left the orphanage with the idea of getting to Chatham, where he lived with his father until he was brought to the city, but no word in answer to queries in this direction have been received.

Behind the orphanage is a ravine, in which the children of the institution were wont to play. Here most of the little ones were content to spend their hours in pleasant pastime, heeding the warning given them to keep away from the river, which is separated from the grounds of the home by a fence. Not so with little ten-year-old Peter. He was a wild little chap, roaming about the grounds restlessly, always longing to go into the great world beyond the big gates that block the entrance to the orphan asylum.

Born in Austria.

Small is he, and possessed of beautiful dark eyes, in which burn that wild light so peculiar to the Austrian race. Although he can jabber freely in his native tongue, the missing lad speaks little of the language of Canada, the country to which his father brought him that he might enjoy the privileges that would be denied him in his own despotic land. He has not taken a hat with him, choosing rather to be without such a hindrance during his rompings through the bushes and hedges. The blouse that he wore was blue.

Last Time Seen.

Noon saw the boy enjoying a meal with his fellow-inmates, within the walls of his foster home. Soon after, he went out to play. At 2 o'clock the bell rang for roll-call. Peter was absent. Immediately a search was instituted, but he had disappeared. Night fell, and the wanderer did not return. Police aid was solicited, and the search began in earnest. A number of boys who are caddies at the London Hunt Club golf links, declare that they saw him near the river after dinner. This is the last time that he was seen.

Michael, the little eight-year-old brother of the lost child, is wandering aimlessly about the building. He and Peter were inseparable until the day of the latter's disappearance. Annie, the little four-year-old sister, also notices the empty chair at the meal table, but she cannot grasp the situation. The three children were brought from Chatham by the father, who is now in Windsor or Sarnia. The mother having died some years ago, he had found it hard to give them all the advantages of a home, so two months ago, he decided that for their own good, they must be separated from him and placed where tender hands could be ready continually to help them.

GOOD TRIP ACROSS; ACCOMMODATION ON AQUITANIA EXCELLENT

Party of Veterans Arrives in Early Morning.

A party of returned soldiers, numbering 153, arrived in this city this morning at about 12:30 o'clock, at the Quebec street station of the C. P. R. The soldiers crossed the Atlantic on the S.S. Aquitania, and reported a smooth trip trip to Canada, with excellent food and accommodation on board. Lieut. F. Clarke of the Salvation Army, Rev. H. B. Ashby and Rev. J. N. Norton were present to tender an official welcome to the returning heroes.

Immediately upon detraining the party proceeded to Tecumseh Barracks, where they were speedily discharged from service, and provided with transportation to their homes in Western Ontario. Despite the late hour of arrival, many friends and relatives of the soldiers were on hand to greet them, and following their release from service the boys were served with refreshments in the dining hall of Tecumseh Barracks, by the ladies of the local Red Cross.

Motor Cars Ready.

Military motor cars later conveyed members of the party down town, those living in Western Ontario proceeding to the military hostels, where they secured lodging until train time. Local soldiers who returned this morning proceeded to their homes immediately following dispersion.

Lieut. Mack Eastman, who returned last night, is well known in this city, being a member of the faculty of arts, Western University, here, at one time. At the time of enlistment as a sergeant in the Canadian west, he was head of the department of history in British Columbia University. He recruited the British Columbia University Reserve and proceeded overseas with that unit, being drafted as a private to the 29th Battalion in France. Lieut. Eastman was later transferred to the Canadian intelligence department, where he received his commission. After the signing of the armistice he was attached to the Khaki University of the Canadian army, serving in France, Belgium and Germany, with headquarters at Bonn. Lieut. Eastman is visiting his father, Rev. S. H. Eastman, at Port Stanley today, and he will return to British Columbia in the near future.

Escaped Unwounded.

Pte. G. Moore of Watford, a member of the party, left London in a draft from the Western Ontario Regiment. He served overseas for two years with the Canadian Machine Gun Corps, during which time he escaped unwounded.

Sergt. J. Atkinson of Galt enlisted with the 111th Battalion, and served with the Machine Gun Corps in France for ten months. He was wounded in the leg during his period of service. Owing to the late hour last night speeches of welcome were dispensed with, which found favor with the boys in khaki, who were anxious to get away from the dispersal station as soon as possible.

WALL STREET.

New York, June 23.—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—Anticipating the early acceptance of the peace treaty by the Germans, today's stock market opened with an impressive demonstration of strength, gains among favorite issues ranging from one to four points. The scope of the early operations indicated an accession of buying orders for speculative interests, including considerable short covering. This was met by heavy selling, which cancelled a large part of the rise before the end of the first half hour. The reaction affected U. S. Steel and other leaders from one to three points.

MRS. M'KENNEY GAINS 17 POUNDS

Eats What She Pleases and Sleeps Like a Child Now, Says Minneapolis Woman.

"I never thought I would let my name be used in connection with a medicine, but if it had not been for Tanlac I would still be a sick woman, and I feel that I ought to try to help others by telling them about it," said Mrs. J. F. McKenney, who resides at 3121 Cedar avenue, Minneapolis, recently, in a statement in which one of the benefits received described is a gain of seventeen pounds.

"I had been suffering from stomach trouble for five years," she continued, "and had almost despaired of ever getting relief. My appetite was very poor and I always suffered so much pain in my stomach after meals that I had gotten almost afraid to eat anything. My food would ferment and the gas from it would press on my heart until I would just have to fight for breath. I often had nervous sick headaches and was very dizzy at times. I could hardly ever get a good night's sleep, was very weak, and always got up in the mornings feeling as tired as when I retired at night. In fact, that tired worn-out feeling was with me all the time and I hardly had strength to do my housework.

"Finally I got to taking Tanlac on the advice of my daughter in Muskogee, Oklahoma. She told me of a minister there who said he did not believe there was ever a case of stomach trouble Tanlac would not relieve, and the results in my case have convinced me that he was right. Soon after I began taking it my appetite improved and I commenced to gain both in weight and strength. My appetite is just fine now, the gas has stopped forming on my stomach, and I can eat what I please and all I want without ever having a pain or an uncomfortable feeling afterwards. I sleep just like a child every night, get up in the mornings feeling rested and refreshed.

When I began taking Tanlac I only weighed one hundred and eighteen pounds, but I now weigh one hundred and thirty-five, making an actual gain of seventeen pounds. This is just what six bottles of Tanlac has done for me and there's nothing too good for me to say for it."

Tanlac is sold in London by Standard Drugs, Ltd., and by an established agency in every town.

BEEF, IRON AND WINE "JAG" AGAIN COSTLY

STRATFORD, June 22.—Beef, iron and wine again proved the undoing of Charlie Schutt. In police court, when arraigned for being drunk, Charlie admitted having drunk two bottles of the "medicine."

A month ago he said the same thing. And again this morning, after having paid $20 and costs, he immediately sought to secure more of the joyous liquid. However, Chief Lannin forbade the sale. He has cautioned druggists to protect themselves in the sale of this fluid. One sample recently analyzed showed 23 per cent of proof spirits, it is said.

A DIRECT SAVING
— TO —
Motor Truck Owners
We Are Pleased to Announce that LOWER PRICES
— ON —
DUNLOP SOLID MOTOR TRUCK TIRES
became effective simultaneously with the reduction on Dunlop Pneumatic Automobile Tires, June 2nd, 1919

¶ This action on our part is in line with the Dunlop policy to give motor truck owners the immediate benefit whenever we can see our way clear to lower prices and still maintain the high standard of Dunlop Tire quality.

¶ You will see upon an examination of the new list, one of which we shall be glad to forward on request, that the decrease in prices is very substantial indeed. In fact, it represents an average reduction of approximately twenty per cent., so that you can figure out exactly just what this will mean to you as a direct saving in dollars and cents.

¶ With Dunlop Motor Truck Tires to-day you benefit in a measure heretofore unknown. Firstly, there is the lower initial cost; Secondly, there is the low upkeep cost; Thirdly, there is the lengthened Motor Truck life, due to the large volume of rubber in the tires, providing the proper cushion; and, Fourthly, the good service Dunlop Tires render lessens the possibility of tie-ups on account of tire trouble.

¶ The tires that were most popular under the terrific strain of war service were the English Dunlop. These tires transported by far the greatest tonnage borne by any individual make in the war zone.

¶ Canadian Dunlop Motor Truck Tires, which are available to you, are identically the same in formulae and construction as the Master Product manufactured by the English Dunlop Company.

¶ The Motor Truck owner who invests in Dunlop Tires—whether Pressed-on or Quick Removable—is assured of not only a fair return for his money, but matchless service under every condition of load and road.

¶ If you are a user of one or more Trucks equipped with Pneumatic Tires, you, of course, benefit from the general reduction made on Dunlop Pneumatic Tires as announced in the daily press of June 2nd.
