SMALL POX—Only one case—and that a light one—has reached Newcastle. The patient, a railway employee named McGinity, was an inmate of the Windsor Hotel, Moncton, the only place where the disease appeared in that city, and he was, in some way, allowed to leave it at the time it was quarantined. He is now, however, in the isolated building in the shiretown and being attended by Mr. Harry Brebecker, so no danger of infection from him is anticipated.

Chatham is so well guarded at all points of approach that the infection can hardly reach it. It is, however, everybody's duty to take all possible preventive precautions.

Sheldon's Remarkable Books.

We have received from The Poole Publishing Company, Toronto, a copy of "THE CRUCIFIXION OF PHILIP STRONG," by Charles M. Sheldon, the well known author of "In His Steps." The book contains over 200 pages, and is a tragic tale showing how a noble man, who endeavored to exemplify the spirit of Christ, was opposed and persecuted. The story is one of intense vigor and pathos. It will secure a wide reading, and it should make a deep impression upon every reader. The Poole Publishing Company have eight of Sheldon's books at fifteen cents each, in attractive paper covers, or thirty cents in cloth covers, postpaid. They are the most widely read books of this generation. For sale at all bookstores.

To Our Readers.

The ADVANCE will be obliged to its numerous readers if they will enable us to make reference in our local columns to matters and events in which they are interested, or may think their friends may be. This they can do by giving the information in person at the office, or writing to us about it. Many things proper to be noticed in the ADVANCE's columns do not appear therein, simply because our attention is not called to them by those who would like to see reference to them in the paper, but have omitted to do their part in making them known. Come, therefore, or write and tell us your local news.

Off the Track.

Last Wednesday night there was quite a serious mishap on the Intercolonial railway, although, fortunately, no person was badly hurt. The Maritime express for Montreal was running at its regular speed between St. Moise and Little Metis when, owing probably to a broken rail caused by the extreme frost of that night, the second and first class, dining and sleeping cars were derailed and some of them thrown quite a distance from the track, all the cars named, excepting the second class, being thrown on their sides. The second class was thrown across the track and one of its trucks was knocked from under it. The forward end of the first class was considerably broken up on one side by contact with the ground, and although the diner and sleeper were somewhat scratched they had not even a window broken and stood the heavy shock staunchly. The mishap delayed the passengers and mails only three and a half hours.

Death of Miss Hocken.

The death of Miss Bessie Hocken, youngest daughter of the late Richard Hocken, Esq., of Chatham, took place on Monday afternoon at three o'clock. It was only about a week before—Sunday, 28th ult.—that she was a visitor at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Allan Ritchie, Newcastle, when she appeared to be in improved health and spirits. Her serious illness after her return, however, followed by her death has been a shock to a very large circle of friends by whom she was held in the highest esteem. Her sisters, Mrs Allan Ritchie, of Newcastle, and Mrs. John Rogers of Montreal, and her brothers Messrs. R. S. and M. S. Hocken were amongst those with her at the time of her death. Mrs. Shieve, another sister, was hastening to her from her home in Albany, N. Y., but arrived too late to see her alive, while her other sister, Mrs. Joyce, of Toronto, was prevented by illness from coming

Miss Hocken will be much missed in church and in the social circle, in both of which she was prominent.

The funeral is to take place at 11 o'clock to-day, Thursday, from her late home. Interment will be at St. Paul's churchyard.

At Boiestown.

The annual banquet of the Boiestown Debating Society was held in the comfortable parlor of the society in Boiestown Hall on Monday evening of last week. The repast was provided by Fred P. Hatt, of Fredericton. In spite of rather unfavorable weather about sixty guests were present. Previous to the banquet an excellent debate was held on the topic: "Resolved, that free trade would be more to the interests of Canada than the national policy." Dr. W. H. Irvine, H. A Kendall, Nelson Spencer and Wm. McMillan spoke for the affirmative, while Coun. Campbell, Wm. T. Sharpe, F. W. McCloskey and N. Foster Thorne championed the negative. The award of the judges, Rev. M. R. Knight and Messrs. A. Morrison and H. H. Gunter, was in favor of the negative. A number of toasts were duly honored, and eloquent responses to the Army and Navy were made by Rev. M. R. Knight and Messrs. Spencer and McCloskey. Mr. Campbell also was particularly happy in responding to the toast of the Ladies, and Dr. W. H. Irvine made an excellent response to the Learned Professions.

An Honest Cough Remedy.

Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam has been curing coughs and colds for more than a generation, and it has grown steadily in popular favor. Whenever its use is begun in a family, it is always relied upon as a safe resource for all coughs and colds and troubles of the breathing passages. This remedy, unlike nearly all cough preparations, contains no narcotic poisons. It is made of the purest extracts of roots, barks and gums of trees, and its effect is to heal whenever it touches an inflamed surface. Not only this, it protects the irritated parts from further irritation.

Adamson's Balsam does not deceive you into thinking you are being helped only to find that you are worse. It is an honest, simple remedy, and it is the most efficient preparation for coughs and all throat troubles ever compounded. It would never have lived and thrived all these years if this were not so. No cough is too obstinate for the Balsam where the irritation is anywhere in the breathing passages. For bronchitis it is a certain help. It relieves pneumonia and cures asthma and hoarseness. Every kind of cough yields to it. Regular size, 25 cents. The genuine "F. W. Kinsman & Co." blown in the bottle.

Presentation to Rt. Rev. Dr Barry.

Nelson was visited on Tuesday, 30th January ult., by the theological conference of which bishop-elect Barry is an active and devoted member.

Questions, theologic and philosophic, and, in general, omne scibile, are discussed by this learned academy. Tuesday's session was, however, invested with more than usual interest.

The conference intended honoring one of its members by the presentation to him of a Pectoral Cross and Chain, "rich and rare." The Rev. Father Power, at whose residence the meeting was, in the order of rotation, held, for this reason presided. In such capacity he, in a short spoken address, a model of good taste and chaste rhetoric, made the presentation. Father Van de Moortell followed in the happy vein which characterizes all his sayings. Both gentlemen gave utterance to the feeling animating the conference. Disdaining the language of fulsome flattery they assured the bishop-elect of the conference's devoted attachment and sympathetic interest.

Dr. Barry, in acknowledging the gift, expressed his grateful appreciation. The gift told him of honors; it reminded him also of correlative responsibilities. He was conscious of the kindly feeling of which the gift was the interpretation. This feeling he knew was not restricted to the conference, but was general throughout the diocese. The receptions tendered him, the episcopal insignia of which he was the recipient, having a significance of their own, cheered him, nerved him for the work and filled him with confidence in the future. Relying on the divine assistance and encouraged by such fraternal feeling, as evidenced in the present gathering, he humbly bowed to the will of heaven, as represented by superior authority.

Monseigneur Barry has the happy faculty of pleasing and of favorably impressing those with whom he comes in contact. To him may be implied the words of Emerson: "Honor and fortune exist for him who always feels himself in the presence of high causes."

The conference consisted of the following: The Rt. Rev. Bishop-Elect, the Revs. J. Carter, W. Varrily, F. Van de Moortell, S. J. Doucet, W. Sormany, N. Power and P. W. Dixon.

The Canadian Order of Foresters.

This purely Canadian fraternal benevolent society was organized in 1879, and now has a membership of upwards of 38,000, distributed in every province in the Dominion.

The society gives insurance to its members in policies of $500, $1000, $1500, or $2000, the latter sum being the limit on any life. The premiums, payable monthly in advance, are as follows:

Between the Ages of	On $500	On $1,000	On $1,500	On $2,000
18 to 25.....	35c	60c	90c	$1 20
25 to 30.....	40c	65c	98c	1.30
30 to 35.....	45c	70c	$1.05	1 40
35 to 40.....	50c	85c	1.28	1.70
40 to 45.....	55c	1 00	1.50	2.00

After paying upwards of one million and a half dollars in death claims, the order had a surplus in the insurance department of $823,000 at the end of November last, all of which is invested in gilt-edge securities in Canada, or is on deposit in the best monetary institutions of the country. Not a dollar of the moneys collected for the insurance fund is or has been used for the expenses of management. The death rate per 1000 of membership in 1893 was 4.56 and since the organization of the society in 1879, the average death rate has been only 4.94.

The Sick and Funeral Benefit Branch is a very popular department, and upwards of 16,000 of the members of the society are participating in this feature of the order. The benefits are $3 per week for the first two weeks of illness, and $5 per week for the succeeding ten weeks, and $56 during any year, besides a funeral benefit of $30 The fees, payable monthly in advance, are as follows:

Between 18 and 25 years	25 cents
" 25 and 30 years	30 cents
" 30 and 35 years	35 cents
" 35 and 40 years	40 cents
" 40 and 45 years	45 cents

During the year 1898 over $43,000 was paid out in sick and funeral benefits, and $143,000 in death benefits. All physically and morally qualified males between 18 and 45 years of age, who are not debarred on account of their occupation, are accepted for membership.

"Advance's" Washington Letter

Popular feeling in regard to the Boer war is rapidly veering around in this country. Despite misleading statements to the contrary continually published in Canada and Great Britain, public sentiment here heretofore has always been on the side of the Boers, both because they constituted a so-called republic and because of the disproportionate size of the combatants. But this feeling has been somewhat like that of a man who sees his brother engaged in a fight of which he does not approve. He would not be sorry if the brother got pretty well punched to teach him not to be so hasty the next time, but he would also feel much disposed to take off his coat and go in, if there seemed to be any danger of the brother getting the worst of it. During our war with Spain, Canada seemed to feel about the same way. It considered that we were altogether too cocky and wanted to punished, but not defeated.

As long as England is merely fighting the Boers, she will meet with lots of opposition in this country, and as soon as any European power attempts to chip in, the world will be astonished by the depth of pro-English sentiment that will develop in this country. Blood is a good deal thicker than water, and most Americans realize that the preservation of their own race ascendency depends on the ultimate victory of England.

The close relationship between this country and England was shown at the New Year's reception at the White House, when the entire British embassy was present. The Right Honorable Lord Pauncefote of Preston, G.C.B., G. M.G., dean of the diplomatic corps, was accompanied by Lady Pauncefote and their four daughters; Mr. Gerald A. Lowther, first secretary; Captain Charles L. Ottley, R. N., and Mrs. Ottley; Lieutenant Colonel A. H. Lee, R. A., military attache, and Mrs. Lee, his American bride; Mr. C. N. E. Eliot, C. B., second secretary; Mr. W. G. MaxMuller, second secretary; Mr. Robert Bromley and Mr. Arthur E. O. Humphreys Owen, honorary attaches. The good feeling between the two countries was also emphasized by the pleasure that was expressed at the fact that Mr. Eliot, of the embassy, had recently been made a knight of the order of the fighting saints, St. Michael and St. George.

Mr. Eliot's management of the Samoan difficulty, when he represented England at commissioner to those islands last winter, was such as to win for him the warmest official commendation of the United States government, and to make him popular throughout the country.

A good many Canadians turn up at Washington from time to time. The latest arrival is Mr. Edward McKenzie, of Montreal, who was somewhat amused when asked what Canada thought of the alleged Fenian invasion of that country. "It is all newspaper talk", he said, "and Canadians are losing no sleep on account of it. We know from what source it emanates, and are well satisfied with the knowledge that the fiery warriors who are going to devour Canada blood raw are windjammers of the eighteen-carat variety, and that their talk of gore is guff. A few hot-headed individuals, who have deluded themselves into thinking that they have a grievance against England, no doubt realize that this would be a fine time to add to the complications of Great Britain by the invasion of the Dominion, and hence the incentive of the raid. But they will take it out in talk.

Another interesting visitor to the Capital during the past week, was Mr. P. Labry, of Manchester, England, who talked entertainingly of the Boer war. "The end of the war will undoubtedly see England supreme all the way from the Cape to the Zambesi", he said. "The Boers had every advantage in men, munitions and position at the outset, and they have won a few battles. But Britain's sea power will enable her to win in the end. Although the navy may not fire a single shot during the war, victory will be due to it, not only because it will make possible the transport of unlimited troops and munitions, but because it will prevent any European nation from taking part, no matter how much they may wish to do so."

U. S. Consul Almar F. Dickson, has reported to the State Department here that a company has been formed at Gaspe Basin, Quebec; to carry on the oil boring business there. The consul does not expect much from the venture, as he says that 33 wells have been sunk in the last ten years, and that in only one has oil been found, and in that one it has been exhausted. He concludes: "I have conversed with several oil experts during the past five years, and they inform me that the sand and gravel here are not suited to oil, and that the dip of the rock is altogether wrong. This, they say, should be about 50 feet to the mile, and it is about 1,000 feet to the mile in most places where wells have been put down in this vicinity.
