Guysboro-Canso Route.

Halifax Echo—Messrs. Hugh Cann and Son, who for several years past have operated a steamer on the Guysboro-Canso route, are withdrawing their boat, the Percy Cann, and she has arrived in Yarmouth. This is due to the Dominion government seeing fit to cancel the subsidy and contract with Messrs. Cann and giving it to the steamer Elaine, of the St. John River Steamship Co., Ltd., which is now under the management of Mr. Henry M. Evans. The Elaine is a steel hull with wooden upper works, built in 1888, and is a vessel of 272 gross or 156 registered tonnage.

STRIKERS AND POLICE EXCHANGE SHOTS

Trouble Occurs Among Sympathizers With Textile Operatives.

Lawrence, Mass., April 28.—Shots were exchanged between the police and strike sympathizers during disturbances early today in connection with the strike of textile operatives. None of the shots took effect, but three policemen were stoned. The most seriously injured was Dan Lynch of Lowell, a mounted officer, who was struck in the head, and was unconscious when other policemen reached him. Two arrests were made.

Reports that many of the strikers planned to return to work today brought out unusually large number of pickets, but there was little trouble in the immediate vicinity of the mills.

Watchers said there appeared to be no noticeable increase in the number of operatives who went to work.

The strikers, who are seeking 54 hours pay for 48 hours' work, have been out since February 3.

LOOKING BETTER FOR SEN. HUMBERT

Paris, April 28.—(Havas)—The court martial which is trying Senator Charles Humbert on a charge of having had dealings with the enemy terminated the interrogation of witnesses on behalf of Humbert at today's session. A number of generals and other officers gave testimony in favor of Humbert, praising the campaign he carried out for more guns and ammunition for France. Several of the witnesses testified that they did not believe Humbert capable of having sacrificed France for his private interests.

The prosecutor will address the court tomorrow.
