AT OSGOODE HALL.

Justice Rose's Decision on the Application of Mr. Newsome Against the Toronto Conservative Club.

Mr. Justice Rose has given judgment in Newsome versus Toronto Liberal-Conservative Club, enlarging the motion for injunction until the trial of the action and refusing injunction meanwhile. He holds that the executive committee of the club may properly inquire into the charges against the plaintiff, because the declaration made by the plaintiff when joining the club, and by which he declares that he will act in its best interests, forms part of its rules and regulations, and that it is not therefore necessary, as contended by Mr. Riddell, to pass some new rule under which such charges may be investigated.

THE HENDERSON ESTATE.

The applications in the Henderson estate to confirm appointment of new trustees were granted, with costs of all parties out of the fund. Thus Messrs. Samuel C. Smoke and J. G. Smith, jr., barristers, become trustees of $56,700 for Mrs. Ellen Smith; and Messrs. J. F. Smith, Q.C., and E. F. Hebden become trustees of $58,800 for Mrs. Hebden. But the orders are not to issue until Monday, so that Mr. D. R. Wilkie, a trustee for certain creditors, may speak to the applications if advised.

The argument in Mitchell v. Saylor and Mitchell v. Lane before the Court of Appeal (Chancery Division) lasted all day. In the first case the defendant's appeal was dismissed with costs, and in the second case the plaintiff's appeal was allowed with costs. The plaintiff thus becomes entitled to possession of the parcels of land in question.

TO-DAY'S LIST.

Judge's Chambers at 11 a.m. No appeals set down.

Court of Appeal (Chancery Division), at 11 a.m.: Breeze v. Knox, Briggs v. Wilson, McIvor v. Hegler, Toronto General Trusts Co. v. Allen, McDiarmid v. G.T.R. Co., Sargent v. Thompson.

THE FOURTH OF FEBRUARY.

Commercial Paper Fairly Well Met—Business Troubles in the City and Elsewhere.

A good deal of commercial paper fell due yesterday, a large proportion being for purchases of dry goods. It will be several days before the general result can be known, but wholesale men expect 60 to 75 per cent. of the paper to be taken up. That is, the usual percentage of renewals will be asked for and granted. Bankers say that the paper of wholesalers was well looked after to-day.

Charles Steinle, pork packer, Ontario-street, is in financial difficulties.

A despatch announces the suspension of Riley, Dees & Co., grocers, Halifax, one of the largest houses in the East.

W. J. Sawyer, boots and shoes, Shelburne, has assigned to Charles Bonner. From 65c to 75c on the dollar is expected to be realized by creditors.

Thomas Clearihue, gloves, Brockville, is offering 40c on the dollar.

It is said that the leading member of the Riddle Manufacturing Company, biscuit manufacturers, Winnipeg, whose failure has been reported, has left the country. The Toronto firm of Firstbrook Bros., box makers, is among the mourning creditors.

Nathan Markson, general storekeeper of Glen Robertson, has assigned to G. Hearnden of Alexandria. The creditors will meet on Feb. 12.

A. C. Pye, merchant tailor, Arnprior, is offering to compromise at 50c on the dollar.

A SUGAR TRUST.

German Manufacturers Combine to Raise the Price of the Commodity.

London, Feb. 4.—The Daily News tomorrow will publish a despatch from Berlin, saying that a sugar trust is being formed there, with the avowed intention of raising the prices of sugar. The syndicate proposes to obtain control of the sales and exercise a general supervision over the markets, and also to undertake to adjust differences that may arise between buyers and millers. A certain quantity of the output controlled by the trust will be held back from sale and will not be disposed of below a fixed price.

S. Ackerman, Commercial Traveler, Belleville, writes: "Some years ago I used Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil for inflammatory Rheumatism, and three bottles effected a complete cure. I was the whole of one summer unable to move without crutches, and every movement caused excruciating pains. I am now out on the road and exposed to all kinds of weather, but have never been troubled with rheumatism since. I, however, keep a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Oil on hand, and I always recommend it to others, as it did so much for me." ed

Will Coerce the Sultan.

Paris, Feb. 4.—The Temps, in an article believed to be inspired, announces that the foreign diplomats at Constantinople, acting in complete accord, have concluded a scheme of Turkish reforms. They have agreed upon potential coercive measures, the ratification of which by the Cabinets of their governments they are now awaiting. When this shall have been obtained the reforms will at once be presented to the Sultan.

"The book is really a remarkable one, replete with human interest," is what the London Daily Telegraph says of "The Heart of a Mystery," the new novel that will be commenced in next Sunday's World.

THE GOULD INTEREST DOWNED.

Westerners Get the Best of It in the Squabble at the Annual Meeting of Diamond Match Company.

Chicago, Feb. 4.—A select party of New Yorkers, for whom Lawyer Barclay E. V. McCarthy acted as spokesman, represented the Edwin Gould interest, antagonistic to the present management, and created a stormy scene at the annual meeting of Diamond Match Company stockholders, held in the Pullman building to-day. In the eastern delegation were also Jared G. Baldwin, jr.; George Erbelding, Mr. Gould's private secretary; H. D. Estabrook, I. H. Waggoner, broker for Mr. Gould, and Louis Lombart. The belligerent minority cast 1225 cumulative votes for Mr. Waggoner for president, but the number of shares they actually voted on was 225. The ticket elected secured 98,140 votes, the following being the directors chosen: O. C. Barber, J. K. Robinson, George T. Smith, G. H. Webster, Clarence Buckingham.

Mr. Barber was re-elected president by the directors. The meeting was attended by stockholders and their proxies from California, Louisiana, Minnesota and New York, while the local crowd helped to pack the room. Edwin Walker, a corporation lawyer of this city, was chosen chairman despite the heated protest of Lawyer McCarthy. There was another outbreak on the nomination of Secretary Krantz, but Chairman Walker applied the gag. Mr. McCarthy said: "These proceedings are thoroughly high-handed and utterly devoid of legality. This room is filled with men, and it is not unlikely many of them are not stockholders. These standing votes are illegal. It is a case of brutal outlawry.

After Mr. Barber had read his report, which amazed the stockholders, Mr. McCarthy addressed the president, who reddened with anger, but would not reply. Mr. McCarthy asked: "Do you decline for fear of incriminating yourself?"

The chair ruled him out of order and impertinent. The annual statement shows earnings of $1,226,441, and dividends paid $1,100,000.

WHAT NANSEN SAYS.

Anybody With Endurance and Confidence and Knowledge Enough Can Reach the Pole.

London, Feb. 4.—The Daily Chronicle to-morrow will print the report of an interview with Dr. Nansen, who is now in London, in which the famous traveler is quoted as saying that he does not intend to make another attempt to reach the North Pole. Dr. Nansen says he has already collected all the data he considers necessary to enable him to work out the main scientific conditions of the North Polar area. He would, he says, like to explore the region to the northward of America, but thinks it improbable that he will do so, though perhaps he will again make a tour of exploration of the region between Spitzbergen and Greenland, mainly with a view of testing with improved impiements the temperatures noted during the voyage of the Fram. After his lecture tour through Great Britain and the United States Dr. Nansen says he will probably devote himself to the work of completing the scientific results of his expedition. In reply to a question as to whether or not he would go on a voyage to the Antarctic regions, Dr. Nansen said such an expedition now seemed doubtful. He rebutted the suggestion that the Fram was not suited to such voyages, and declared that with such a vessel he could face any sea. Dr. Nansen also assured his questioner that it would be an easy matter for anybody with the necessary amount of endurance and confidence and a knowledge of the conditions to reach the North Pole.

TRADE IN CANADA.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s Daily Bulletin says: Montreal trade has not picked up as it was hoped it might when the snow came, and in casting about for the reasons for the non-improvement, a good many people are inclined to lay a good part of the blame upon uncertainties regarding tariff matters, which, no doubt, in a good many instances, causes merchants to delay their buying. Sugars are particularly dull, and both refineries continue closed down, with considerable stock on hand. Teas, on the other hand, are more enquired for, with some reported inclination to speculative buying, in anticipation of a possible tariff change, and the market has seldom been in such strong shape. Cable advices from Barbadoes show that the market for molasses has opened considerably below last year, at 11 cents. Drygoods orders are reported fair, but collections rule slow, though in the case of one or two leading houses we are told they have been found better than in January, 1896. Quite a few city retailers are reported to be seeking favors in the shape of extensions and compositions. Wooden manufacturing interests are apparently in unsatisfactory shape, and dealers in raw wool report a very light business. Shoe factories are, as a rule, very well employed, but are not large buyers of leather.

The business situation at Toronto is apparently without change. The slight improvement in wholesale circles, as reported last week, continues, but the volume is nothing to boast of. The unsettled condition of the woolen trade, in consequence of the financial difficulties of several manufacturers, came unexpectedly, and put a damper on trade. A fair business in spring goods is being done, while sorting-up orders in heavy goods have been more numerous, the result of seasonable weather. The grocery trade is fair, while hardware and leather dealers are having a satisfactory turnover. The hog-packing industry is not as active as usual, the packers being doubtful as to prospective changes in the tariff on cured meats. There is a disposition to hold off, and the packing of heavy hogs is smaller than usual, with a great consequent disparity in the prices of heavy and light hogs. Eggs are unusually low at this season of the year, with large supplies of all kinds. The flour and wheat trades are dull, with little change in prices during the week.
