Canadian Chautauqua.

The Chautauqua and Lake Side Hotels, beautifully situated on the shore of Lake Ontario, near the mouth of the Niagara River, and adjoining the town of Niagara-on-the-Lake, are now open for the season. Mr. S. Grigg, formerly of the Grigg House, London, has assumed the management of both hotels and grounds, and from his wide experience as hotel proprietor, success is assured. His many friends will be pleased to learn he is now at Chautauqua. On the grounds are the two large hotels, Chautauqua and Lakeside, beside a number of pretty cottages, owned by Toronto people, who spend the summer here. The lake front is nearly a mile in length, and affords splendid bathing, boating and fishing. There are tennis, bowling, and croquet lawns, as well as large grounds for baseball, lacrosse, etc. The park and hotels are supplied with electric lights and every convenience, and, in fact, a more desirable summer resort will be hard to find, and under the energetic and able management of Mr. Grigg it promises to have a very successful season. b

AMONG the fragments of Egyptian papyri at Dublin 80 lines or parts of lines of Homer's "Iliad" have been identified, from books 4, 8, 21, 22 and 25, out of a manuscript of the third century before Christ, before Homer had been put into shape by the critics of Alexandria. In the 80 lines, thirteen do not exist in the "Iliad," as we have it. Prof. Mahaffy asserts that the Alexandrians took great liberties with the text, and that if an early edition of the "Iliad" turns up in Egypt there will be an addition in quantity of 15 per cent to what we have.

DOMINION HYMN.

Ald. Geo. W. Armstrong, London.

Lord, our Dominion bless,
With peace and plenteousness
Our bulwark stand;
Through all our vast domains,
Our cities, forests, plains,
Lakes, rivers, mountain chains,
Protect our land.

Our Provinces unite,
In Federation's might,
In union strong.
May every discord cease,
Strife's bitterness decrease,
And laws upheld in peace,
With pen and tongue.

Concord and love bestow,
Let goodness ever grow,
Keep honor bright,
Our freedom strong and sure,
Our patriotism pure,
Our heritage secure,
Founded on right.

Let neighboring be,
Friendly in rivalry,
In trade and art:
O'er this terrestrial sphere,
Let mankind far and near
As brethren appear,
In mind and heart.

Canada's first desire,
Loyal to old Empire,
No feuds between,
Unitedly our race,
Implore Thee, God of Grace,
To guard our foremost place,
God save our Queen.

London and Environs

—A royal welcome was accorded Rev. Charles Smith and family on Monday evening in Wyoming on their arrival from London. The parsonage was in readiness, and an elegant repast was served, while cordial greetings of welcome were tendered, not only by officials, but by the Methodists generally.

—"There's a milk wagon up my way," said an up-town, west side resident, "that has always interested me. It is painted white, and they drive a white horse to it. But there's a new milk wagon just turned out up there that interests me still more. It is painted a cream color, which seems very appropriate for the business, and this wagon looks as nice as a peach."

—A St. Thomas dispatch says: During the past twelve months the Messrs. Marlott have purchased from the farmers of this vicinity 11,000 hogs, and have paid for the same about $100,000. Today the firm shipped 200 head to the Canada Packing Company, London, for $3 70 per cwt. They ship again next Wednesday. The hog industry has become a very important one, and one that pays the farmer to engage in.

The widows' fund has a balance of $530 61, the assurance fund $7,668 69, the funeral fund $100 36, the incidental fund $582 58.

UNITED STATES' HEALTH REPORTS

Official Indorsement, June 19, 1895 Page 10.

THE TOBACCO HABIT CURED.

In the interest of the masses, for whom these reports are compiled, the United States Health Reports have examined and investigated many preparations having for their object the cure of the tobacco habit, but among them all we have no hesitancy in giving the editorial and official endorsement of these reports to the remedy known as "Uncle Sam's Tobacco Cure," manufactured by the Keystone Remedy Company, at 218 La Salle street, Chicago. They are distributing literature this week all through the city, and in the light of our examinations and tests of "Uncle Sam's Tobacco Cure," we are but performing a duty we owe the public when we indorse the same, and stamp it as the crowning achievement of the nineteenth century, in the way of destroying a habit as disgusting as it is common (For Only $1) hence we earnestly advise you to read full particulars, and if you have not seen circulars to call at W. HE'S SORRY NOW.

Mrs. Stevenson, whose husband left town last week, is, from all that can be learned, at the present time a sorry man. An intimate friend of her departed husband informed her on Wednesday that he had received a letter from Mr. Stevenson, in which he expressed his regret, and stated that he had left town on account of some of his actions with certain local people. He, however, promises to send money to his wife when he secures employment. Stevenson went from here to Detroit, to which place he was followed by his better half the next day, but he had left there before her arrival. The police in Detroit have been apprised of all the facts of the case.

THE PERILS OF CURIOSITY.

"It's the innocent bystander who generally stops the bullets and gets the clubbings," said an old citizen; "the innocent bystander who walks miles to see the fun and get in the way, and add his voice to the cat-call chorus. Oh, the innocent bystander is a real, nice institution. His presence gives aid and comfort to the law-breakers, and makes the work of the authorities just so much the harder. But if the poor, innocent happens to get hurt, what a hue and cry is raised. Of course, in a police charge, the officers are expected to pick out the i-b's and carefully thrust them aside. That's easy, of course. Innocent bystanders carry their business in their faces, and only a very stupid policeman could mistake them for naughty fellows. Now, I don't care to pose in any such character. I should expect to wear a badge a foot square, if I tried it. On it I would paint in huge letters:

This is an
INNOCENT BYSTANDER.
PLEASE DONT'T HURT HIM.
He hasn't sense enough to mind his own business, but he is quite harmless!

"There, I guess that might save me, if anything could. But I'm not going to put it to the test."

After installation Past Grand Sire Dr. Cl. T. Campbell was called upon, and his remarks were specially addressed to Bro. John Ward, who has been the lodge's treasurer for the past five years, and has also officiated as organist for the different degree teams for many years past. In his remarks Dr. Campbell expressed his approval of the practice of showing in some tangible manner that constant and willing assistance is appreciated. He exemplified his remarks by presenting Bro. Ward, on behalf of Dominion Lodge, with a gold-headed ebony cane, suitably engraved. Bro. Ward, succeeded in convincing the lodge that he had been "surprised," and also expressed his appreciation of the gift, and his willingness to continue in the good fork of Oddfellowship. D. D. G. M. Stewart also addressed the lodge, and complimented them on the fact that every officer-elect had been present for installation. After the lodge had closed, the members all partook of light refreshments, ice cream, etc., which had been prepared by the newly installed officers, and a social hour was spent.

SUICIDE WITH A LATH.

Insane Woman Fatally Saws Her Throat in Barrie Jail.

Barrie, Ont., July 8.—Matha Elka, a Frenchwoman confined in the jail here, atempted suicide yesterday, and will probably not recover.

She belonged to a gipsy and bear troupe, and was sent to Collingwood hospital to be cured of some sickness. When she recovered she was sent to jail here. Since she came she has shown signs of insanity and has been locked in a cell. Yesterday she tore a lath from the wall and sawed her throat until she had punctured the windpipe.

Jail Surgeon Oliver and Dr. Wallwin were quickly on the scene and sewed the wound. She is determined to kill herself, and made a second attempt with a piece of glass which she snatched from the window, but was stopped before she had further injured herself. It is believed she will die. She is about 31 years of age, married, and has two children with their father, who a short time ago was traveling west of Collingwood.

Give Holloway's Corn Cure a trial. It removed ten corns from one pair of feet without any pain. What it has done once it will do again.

Russian scientists report that the white poplar acts as a natural lightning rod, as the discharge seeks it in preference to other trees.

LIFE SAVED.—Mr. James Bryson Cameron states: "I was confined to my bed with inflammation of the lungs, and was given up by physicians. A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on this advice, I procured the medicine, and less than a half bottle cured me; I certainly believed it saved my life. It was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, as I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me any good."
