GOD SAVE THE KING.—A vast deal of ink and paper have been consumed by disputants as to whom composed the air of our national anthem. It has been attributed to a great many individuals; but the question was set at rest on Friday evening, the 13th inst., by Mr. Hawes introducing the original composition, in the hand writing of the author, namely Dr. John Bull, at his concert, when it was sung, as harmonised by the Learned Doctor, by a number of voices, like a madrigal, and very beautiful it was. The M. S. is in the possession of Mr. Charles Clarke, of Westminster Abbey, who published an account of it about 20 years ago, which occupied two hundred pages in octavo. Mr. Clark states that it was first sung at an entertainment given by the Merchant Tailors' Company to King James the First, in 1607. Instead of commencing with the key note, the air in question begins a fourth below, which is nearly all the difference between it and the tune generally sung, with the exception of the last two bars, which consists of the tonic, or key note, repeated four times to the words "God save the King," which has a solemn and grand effect. The harmony is quaint, but very rich and masterly.—Cheltenham Looker-on.

"The History of Newspapers and of Periodical Literature, is a great, a noble one to be written, and were it to be executed by an individual of competent ability, and who alone could do it, it would be a most interesting and important work."—M'Culloch's Commercial Dictionary.

"The Newspaper is the chronicle of civilization, the common reservoir into which every stream pours its living waters, at which every man may range and drink: it is the Newspaper which gives to liberty its practical life—its colossal observation—its perpetual vigilance—its unslacking activity—The Newspaper is a daily and a sleepless watchman, that it ports to you every danger which menaces the institutions of your country, and its interests at home or abroad. The Newspaper informs legislation of public opinion, and it informs the people of the acts of legislation; thus keeping up that constant sympathy, the good understanding between people and legislators, which conduces to the maintenance of order, and prevents the stern necessity for revolution."—*Sir E. NEW PROSPECTUS OF THE BOSTON NOTION.

THE FOLIO AND QUARTO EDITION.

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENTS PROPOSED

ON the Ninth day of October will be published the first number of a new volume of the Boston Notion which will at that time be considerably enlarged, and in every respect improved. It will thereafter be printed with new type of the most modern cut and beautiful finish, on paper of as fine a quality as is used in any newspaper establishment in this country, and by a press manufactured expressly for the purpose, at the celebrated foundry of R. Hoe & Co, New York, in which will be embodied all the most recent improvements in that machine, enabling the printer to give perfect impressions and an undeviating register.

THE BOSTON NOTION,

Is a weekly gazette of original and selected literature and intelligence. It embraces Tales, Poems, Essays, Reviews of New Works, Biographical Historical and Humorous Sketches, Anecdotes, &c. &c. arranged from the widest range of British and American current and periodical literature. There is no literary periodical in the English language worthy of regard, which the editors do not regularly receive, and select from as frequently as the character of the articles indicates to be proper.

THE ORIGINAL DEPARTMENT.

of the Boston Notion, besides the contributions of the editor, will be enriched occasionally from time to time contributions from Professor Longfellow, author of "Hyperion," "Voices of the Night," &c; Rev J. Pierpont, author of "Airs of Palestine," &c; Henry William Herbert, Esq author of "Cromwell," "The Roman," &c; William Gilmore Simms Esq author of "Guy Rivers," "Southern Passages and Parlours," &c; Hon Caleb Cushing, M. C., author of "Reminiscences of Spain," &c; Henry T. Tuckerman, Esq author of "The Italian Sketch Book," &c; and many more of the most distinguished authors now living. No weekly gazette, nor indeed any monthly or quarterly periodicals, have ever possessed a list of more distinguished or abler contributors than the Boston Notion. Those above mentioned have each been for many months among its writers. A new feature of the next volume will be the publication of a new romance, written expressly for it, by Henry William Herbert, Esq, entitled

THE MAID'S REVENGE.

Critics who have examined the MS. of this work, name it the masterpiece of its author. By the first critical journals of Great Britain, Mr. Herbert is pronounced equal to any historical novelist except Sir Walter Scott, who has written in the English language. The purchase of original work of this character marks an era in the history of newspaper publication in America. The next volume of the Notion will also contain a

NEW NOVEL BY BULWER,

The first romance writer of the age. The splendid productions of this great author have hitherto been almost inaccessible to those who reside in small towns and in the country. In this paper they will obtain his works, for about one tenth of the price demanded for them by the booksellers. Another feature of the Notion will be the publication of

ORIGINAL DISCOURSES.

By the most eminent divines. Among those who have hitherto contributed to this department of the Notion, may be mentioned, Rev. John Pierpont, Rev. S. K. Lathrop, Rev. E. H. Chapin, and others. The most important new romances published in England will be republished in the Notion immediately after their reception in this country. Heretofore the works of Dickins, Marryat, Cockton and Ainsworth, printed in this gazette, would have cost four times as much as the entire subscription of the paper, if purchased separately at the book stores. The Boston Notion will continue to be as rich in this department as in previous years.

COSTLY WOOD ENGRAVINGS,

Imported from Europe, or designed by Johnston & other eminent artists expressly for the work, will continue to illustrate and embellish its pages. As a gazette of literary, dramatic, commercial, political and general

INTELLIGENCE,

The Notion will be inferior to no periodical now or ever published in America. The Folio edition, after the month day of October, will contain four pages of ten columns each.

THE QUARTO EDITION.

Of which the first number will be published on the 5th of October, will be sold on the same terms as the folio edition. It will be printed on a very large sheet, of fine Street quality, and each number will embrace sixteen pages of five columns each. The quarto edition will contain every article which appears in the folio edition for the same week, and at the end of each year from its commencement will constitute a splendid quarto volume of Eight Hundred and Thirty-two Pages, with an index and an elegant title page. Certainly so large a work, embracing an equal amount and variety of matter, of so great excellence, was never yet issued for so small a price as Three Dollars. The Quarto will not embrace the novels now in course of publication in the Folio, but will contain all the new works before alluded to.

CONDITIONS.

The Price of the Folio Edition will remain as now. Subscribers to that edition will not be allowed to transfer existing subscriptions to the new form as such a course would be productive of much confusion and inconvenience to the publishing department. Indeed, as the stories now being printed in the folio edition, Old Saint Paul's and George Saint George Julian, will not be continued in the Quarto, it is presumed that but few will wish to change from one to the other: though it is expected that many will obtain both editions. Those who intend to subscribe for the Quarto are requested to send in their names before the first of October as it is intended to limit the edition to the probable extent of the demand.

Price of Folio and Quarto Editions. One copy, a year, Three Dollars; Two copies, Five Dollars; Four copies, Ten Dollars, Six copies, Fifteen Dollars; Nine copies, Twenty Dollars. All remittances must be post paid or free, and the invariable rule of the office is to discontinue every subscription at the expiration of the time paid for, unless previously renewed by a further payment in advance.
