The Boy Scouts.

On Saturday, June 15th, the Scouts about 30 strong met at headquarters at 8 a. m. and armed with fishing gear of all descriptions tramped across the Ridge to Black River Falls.

An enjoyable day was spent and all felt pleased to have Mr. Bulock and Mr. Austin Chute, assistant Scoutmasters, with them. No record fish were taken, but duckings and bruised shins were numerous.

Headquarters were reached safely about 4.30 p. m.

On Saturday, June 22nd, Scouts will parade at the club room at 2 p. m. for rifle practice. 1st prize, haversack. This is the first event in a series of four competitions. The others are fire fighting, knot tying, and moose signalling.

Postmaster Blanchard, of Truro, has been dismissed for partizanship. His protestations are loud and deep, but he has to acknowledge that he was a former President of the Colchester Liberal Association, and he is reputed to be the writer of liberal political articles during recent elections. Postmasters should have no business with politics, and when they do, it is time to fire them. Mr. Blanchard got his.—Bridgewater Bulletin.

Gaspereau Items.

Howard Levy, son of Mr. Eliphalet Levy, of Greenfield, an industrious young man of much promise, passed into the other world early in the winter.

Mr. Isaac N. Schofield, of Black River, passed away the 11th inst., aged 73 years. The funeral was conducted by Pastor Powell.

Mr. Wilson and family, of Calgary, Alta., were visiting their sister, Mrs Otis Coldwell, last week.

The new Baptist church is progressing finely under the foremanship of Mr. Goodwin. It will be a credit to the community. The new bell purchased by the young people has arrived, and is waiting to be mounted in its place. It looks like a very fine bell, and we trust that its tone will not be disappointing.

Rev. Mr. Powell, wife and son, are proposing to take a carriage drive through Lunenburg and Queens counties the next three weeks.

The young people of the church are busy raising funds for an organ. Last week they had an ice cream social, realizing some $20.

Mr. A. DeW. Foster, M. P., was in Wolfville between trains on Saturday last. His many friends were glad to see him looking so well after his recent severe illness. THE ACADIAN trusts that with a few weeks spent in rest and recuperation he may soon be restored to his former good health.

Rev. Dr. Spidle returned on Tuesday from a trip through Lunenburg county in the interest of the educational institutions here. He attended the meeting of the Western Association at Chester Basin, and also preached at Falmouth on Sunday last on the occasion of the re-opening of the Baptist church there which has been recently undergoing extensive repairs.

Mr. Oliver DeWolf, a native of Kings county who has been abroad for over forty-five years, was a visitor to Wolfville this week. He was born at Kentville and spent his boyhood in Western Cornwallis. For over thirty-five years he has resided in Minnesota where he has large farming interests and has prospered. He is now visiting the scenes of his boyhood and finds many changes. Mr. DeWolf is a very interesting gentleman and is highly esteemed by the few who remember him here.

Rev. Ralph M. Jones, who is the faithful and greatly beloved pastor of the Chester church, received an unanimous call to the pastorate of the church at Geneva, N. Y., and although the salary was considerably larger than he is now receiving, he has made the people at Chester very happy by deciding to remain with them, and declining the call to New York. Pastor Jones has been with the Chester church since 1906, and under his faithful and fruitful ministry the church edifice has been thoroughly remodelled and a goodly number of persons added to the church. Mr. Jones is more than an ordinary preacher, and his sermons are greatly enjoyed by all who have the privilege of attending his services. At the last convention in Barre last September, he was elected as the preacher of the annual sermon for the Convention of 1912 which is to be held at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 23rd to 25th inclusive.—Boston Watchman.
