YOUNG WOMEN MAY AVOID PAIN

Need Only Trust to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, says Mrs. Kurtzweg.

Buffalo, N.Y.—"My daughter, whose picture is herewith, was much troubled with pains in her back and sides every month and they would sometimes be so bad that it would seem like acute inflammation of some organ. She read your advertisement in the newspapers and tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

She praises it highly as she has been relieved of all these pains by its use. All mothers should know of this remedy, and all young girls who suffer should try it."—Mrs. MATILDA KURTZWEG, 529 High St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Young women who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion, should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Thousands have been restored to health by this root and herb remedy.

If you know of any young woman who is sick and needs helpful advice, ask her to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. Only women will receive her letter, and it will be held in strictest confidence.

COMING TO THE MARITIME PROVINCES.

Ottawa, May 16—With a capital of $10,000,00. the British-American Telephone Company, seeking incorporation, met some opposition in the Railway Committee today. It is proposed to operate in the Maritime Provinces.

D. MacKenzie and W. R. Northrop both urged that the powers sought are too wide, especially those in securing right of way.

It was explained that the rights of peremptory expropriation are to be exercised only on waste or unsettled lands. The Bill passed after it was said the Union of Municipalities was satisfied with it.

MORE LIGHT ON DALHOUSIE MATTERS

Mayor and Three Aldermen Only Take Oath of Office.—Other Matters

Dalhousie, May 16.—So much interest has been shown through out the County, in the Dalhousie Town election that we again refer to the subject. It will be recalled that W. S. Montgomery was officially declared elected Mayor as well as all the Aldermen on his slate by a large majority. This was managed by the returning officer throwing out, at W. S. Montgomery's request ninety straight ballots for Thos. Scott and his slate, on the ground that they were illegal in form. This form of ballot was made legal by a special act of Assembly, secured by W. S. Montgomery, Mayor and A. J. LeBlanc, Town Clerk the latter also being returning officer at the last election. So that they were both quite aware that these ballots were legal.

The day of the election after the result was declared the returning officer was officially asked to seal the ballot box and protect it from being tampered with as an investigation would be asked for. Notwithstanding this request it is current street gossip that the returning officer and certain other parties opened the box next day, admitted the 90 rejected ballots as legal, and tampered with the ballots in such a way as to produce an entirely different result. Nor had they simply added the ninety rejected ballots to the official figures of the day before. No person of the Scott party was pregent at this alleged recount, nor were they ever informed officially of any such event.

According to the actual ballots polled Mr. Scott was elected Mayor by six votes and seven of his aldermen elected.

On May 9th the regular day for the monthly Council meeting. The Town Clerk read a statement differing entirely from his official declaration. It asked the citizens to believe that W. S. Montgomery was elected Mayor. Three of his aldermen and five of Mr. Scott's slate elected. Where are the people of Dalhousie at?

Only the Mayor and three councillors had qualified within ten days so these at present are supposed to constitute our Town Government, all oth ers being disqualified.

The framers of the Town incorporation act assumed, that a candidate for Mayor of a Town or a Town Clerk would be clean and honest, and the provisions to correct conditions such as have developed in Dalhousie are vague and rather ineffective. To meet rascality of this kind, the act should have been as rigid as the Criminal Code.

There can be no doubt from the methods used that W. S. Montgomery forseeing defeat, being familiar with the weakness of the Town Act and having a partisan returning officer at his disposal, decided to steal the election, get himself officially declared elected Mayor and trust to luck to be able to hold on.

It is an honor to be elected mayor of a Town in a straight fair contest but Mr. Montgomery is [illegible] the credit he may derive [illegible] ing the position secure[illegible] and all that the public [illegible] will award him.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Robert Powers

There passed away on Thursday May 3rd, 1917 at her home at Hopetown, Bonaventure County, P. Q., one of its respected citizens in the person of Mrs. Robert Powers at the age of 68 years. She had been ailing all winter and all that love and kind care prompted was done to prolong the days The late Mrs Powers whose maiden name was Miss Margaret Shoaver, was born in New Carlisle, and came to Hopetown as a bride thirty six years ago. She leaves to mourn the loss of a kind mother's counsel and a wife's faithfulness, her husband, three daughters Mrs. H. H. Boome of Levis, Que., Mrs. Beach McCallum of Caplin, Que. and Mrs. Grace McRae at home. Her eldest daughter predeceased her some few years ago and two sons John and Rolan[illegible] of home.

The funeral which was largely attended took place on Saturday afternoon May 5th [illegible] The service was conducted by the Rev Mr. Heron. At the Presbyterian Church of which Mrs. Powers was a faithful member, the hymns, "A Few More Years Shall Roll;" "I'm but a Stranger here," and "Asleep in Jesus" were sung.

Before the committal at the grave friends sang "Nearer my God to Thee," and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus."

Interment took place in the Rural Cemetery at Hopetown.

BARACHOIS

A quite wedding but one with some novel features took place at the parish Church on April 30th at six o'clock a. m. when Miss Louisa Lawrence was united in marriage to Mr. Augustin Brochet. The bride looked very well in a loose coat of dark blue tweed over a traveling dress of tan serge with tan velvet hat to match.

Shortly after the ceremony the bride and groom accompanied by a few friends repaired to the still ice-coated landing were Mr. Willie Duval waited in his motor boat to take them across to the Island where the wdding reception awaited them. It was the first boat of the season to cross the bay, which had been cleared of ice only the day before. It had to breast the swell over the bar and the racing ice floes in the bay; but none of the gay party seemed to notice the rough water. The bride smiled happily as she waved adieu to her friends on shore.

Joseph Rehel who enlisted in the Autumn of 1914 and of whose fate his friends have long been uncertain, at last have been reported dead. The manner of his death has not been ascertained, he had not written since the latter part of the year 1916. It is thought that he must have been badly wounded about that time and lingered in the hospital until death came to release him. He was the first of the town-ship to enlist. Many others followed his example, but it was he, presumally, who was the first called upon to offer the supreme sacrifice. He was the son of the late Sylvester Rehel, was about 30 years of age, unmarried.

Barachois is still mourning the loss of a dear departed friend Mrs. Thomas Tapp aged 74, whose death has already been announceed and whose loss it seems hard to replace. She was a woman of remarkable talents and ability. A devoted mother, a devoted member of the Roman Catholic Church. Besides her numerous private duties she was post-mistress and telegraph operatress for thirty years at the same time helping her husband in the management of his business as general merchant, she was always until lately the leader and organizer of the social and charitable junctions: concerts and other entertainments for the benefit of Church or school. She took a keen interest in the education of the young; her memory is particularly cherished as a pleasant smile, a kind word of encouragement, by the village school children of this active period of her life. She never failed to assist at their yearly examinations (By the way, her entertainments were very successful ones.) Her strong personality was ever exerted for the good, not only as was natural, of her immediate connections; but also that of the community as a whole. Exerted also, as we have had the gratifying proofs of late years; in stimulating her children and grand-children to follow in these footsteps. She advanced in years but did not age; her smile was as pleasant and genial in her sevenieth year as in her thirthieth she was never seen without it. She will live still in the memory of all who knew her.
