SPIRIT OF THE TIMES.

Skating.

A VERY SENSIBLE THING.

The Halifax press just at present are very much agitated over what they term "McCormick's funk." They claim the championship for Laidlaw, and characterize McCormick "a champion who didn't come to time."

But notwithstanding all this, McCormick, finding that he was not in skating trim, and that it was impossible to get in training before the date of the second race, did a very wise thing when he refused to post his money. McCormick probably under estimated Laidlaw before their first race, and he discovered his mistake in good time to prevent perhaps a second defeat.

The Halifax press and Laidlaw's friends need not be the least alarmed, however, about the championship. If the GAZETTE knows Hugh McCormick that skater will not rest while Laidlaw is flaunting a victory over him.

Curling.

The first series in the match for the rink medal was commenced yesterday afternoon at St. Andrew's rink. The scores were:—

The Ring.

The general admission tickets for the Dempsey-Fitzsimmons prize fight Jan. 14, will cost $10. The private boxes around the ring, 40 in number, each holding six persons, will be sold for $100. Every seat will be numbered, and when the capacity of the arena, 4000, has been sold, the sale will cease, so as to prevent the crowding which took place at the Bowen-Carroll fight.

The ampitheatre in which the fight takes place has been very nearly completed. The ring is surrounded by a barbed wire fence to prevent any persons in the audience clambering into it. While a great deal of money is waiting to be bet on the match, but little has been placed as yet, both sides wanting odds.

The friends of Fitzsimmons are offering their money freely, but insist that the Dempsey men should give odds by reason of their man's record, Dempsey having fought 50 battles and lost only one. Fitzsimmons is less known in this country, but in the fights he has had, has shown himself a first-class man, and the betting is not expected to be very heavy until a short time before the fight, when the exact condition of the two men is better known.

Both men are reported as doing hard work, and the prevailing opinion is that the fight will be a great one and a long and stubborn one.

NO MORE GLOVE FIGHTS.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 4.—Mayor-elect Smith, intends to put a stop to prize fighting, boxing contests and similar exhibitions.

This will not only be a complete prohibition of the meetings of the Gladstone and Providence Athletic clubs, where small gloves have been used, but will also put a stop to any "stuffed pillow" fights.

The police have been instructed to enforce the new order to the letter.

A SUNDAY DOG FIGHT.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 4.—The bull dogs Ginger of Norwich and Whiskey of this city fought a match at Round Top hill, in the western part of this state, this morning, for a purse of $400.

The dogs were put into the pit at 6.30. Whiskey got the first grip, fastening on to Ginger's throat. Fifteen minutes later Ginger had a section of Whiskey's ear torn off, and Norwich sports offered big odds on their dog. In a short time $2000 was put up by Providence on odds of $100 to $60 that Whiskey would win, and barely had this been done than Ginger downed Whiskey and had him so foul that an attempt was made to fix the Norwich dog with poison.

A regular fight followed at the pit side. On the second scratch the canines went in for blood, Whiskey making the better showing, and odds $100 to $50 being offered on him.

For 57 minutes the dogs fought savagely, the scratch terminating in Ginger's death from a poisonous powder that had been skilfully thrown upon Whiskey's neck.

After the fight was ever and the stakes were paid, a bad row was started by those who felt that they had been defrauded out of their money. One of the Norwich sports pulled a revolver and fired point blank at a Providence man, but made a flesh wound only on the man's nose. Then a free fight ensued, and before it was over a fellow named Downey of Norwich was cut in the leg with a knife. It was a thoroughly bad crowd.

Mr. Gilmour has gone to be joined in wedlock with a daughter of Mr. F. L. Jenks, while Mr. Smith is to act as best man. The wedding will take place tomorrow morning at the residence of the bride's father, Parrsboro, after which Mr. and Mrs. Gilmour will leave for the United States on a three weeks tour. Provincial Points.

Almost all work on the Ship Railway has been suspended for the winter.

Deputy Sheriff Hawthorn, of Fredericton on Saturday served the papers in some 20 Scott act cases at McAdam junction and St. Croix.

A suit involving one dollar and fifty cents, tried at Amherst the other day attracted a big crowd, and engaged the attention of a dozen witnesses and two prominent lawyers.

Rev. Mr. Brown, Episcopalian minister at Middleton, N. S., who recently brutally assaulted a Baptist divinity student, because of a slight misunderstanding on the train has left the Province.

While playing in his father's barn recently, the twelve year old son of Ephraim Mathey, of Mathey settlement, Tracadie, Antigonish, N. S., fell from the scaffold and was instantly killed.

Rev. Mr. Withycombe, of the Episcopal church, Clementsport, has received a unanimous call to Trinity church, St. Stephen, N. B., which he has refused, preferring to remain with his present charge.

Conductor Edwards, of the W. & A. R. we learn, succeeded in killing a wild cat at Mt. Uniacke a short time ago. It is now being mounted by F. W. Hatheway, of Granville Ferry. "Joe" will have it on exhibition shortly.

George Wieland of the Ship Railway staff, brought down a fine large moose near Long Lake, about 7 miles from Amherst, one day last week. He measured 5 feet across the horns, and the carcass when dressed weighed 550 lbs.

A barn belonging to G. W. Bolster was burnt at Canada Creek, Kings Co., N. S., on Saturday, 20th of December, about noon. A cow and a hog perished in the flames. Two tons of hay were also burnt. It is the same old story of fire starting from the ash barrel.

John Rankin, who was probably the oldest resident of Moncton, died on Saturday evening at the residence of his son-in-law, Richard Bradbury, corner Gordon and Cameron streets. Mr. Rankin came to Moncton some three years ago, from Cape Breton. He had been in poor health for some time. He was 90 years old.

A man named John McKenzie was brought in from Tidnish yesterday with hands and feet frozen, and was forwarded to the hospital by the night train. It is said he was found in that condition and also dazed with liquor standing against a tree on Friday last. Dr. Clay attended him. It is feared the results will be serious.—Amherst Record.

THE EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE.

The President's Report in Favor of Decided Action on the Matter of Sabbath Observance, Urges the Establishment of a Reformatory and Increased Attention to the Haven.

The annual meeting of the St. John branch of the Evangelical Alliance met yesterday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. parlors, the president, Dr. Morrison, in the chair.

After routine business, the president read his report, in which he said in reference to the observance of the Lord's day that certainly the need exists for some decided action, and it seemed incredible that taxpaying christianity in St. John must be openly insulted in this respect and its most holy desires trampled upon.

In beginning the new year he suggested more regular attendance at the meetings of the alliance by its members, and that a more active interest be taken in reform work in our city in the special line of establishing a reformatory for minors. It was a blot on our city that no such institution exists. He also referred to the establishment of the Haven for unfortunate women and hoped that the members of the alliance generally would share in the work connected with it.

Rev. Mr. Stewart, in moving the adoption of the report spoke strongly of the necessity of a reformatory in this city. The report was adopted.

It was agreed that the matters mentioned by Dr. Morrison in his report should be considered at future meetings.

The election of officers was then proceeded with and resulted in the choice of the following:

President, Rev. Dr. Wilson.

Vice presidents, Rev. Henry Daniel, Rev. Geo. Bruce, Rev. J. deSoyres, T. W. Daniel, John E. Irvine, T. S. Simms, J. O. Miller and James Woodrow.

Corresponding secretary, Rev. A. J. Macfarland.

Secretary-treasurer, Rev. G. O. Gates.

Revs. H. Daniel, A. J. Macfarland, G. O. Gates and George Steel were appointed a committee to endeavor to increase the membership of the alliance.

Railway Notes.

The trains on the Albert Railway now leave Harvey at about 11 o'clock instead of 5 five in the morning, and Salisbury for Harvey at 4 o'clock p. m., instead of 10.30 a. m.

Inspector Skeffington of the I. C. Rand officer McDonald, of Truro visited Mulgrave recently, their suspicions having been aroused that some persons there were stealing freight from the railway premises. From information he obtained the inspector and his assistants took into custody Joseph Moore and Vincent Carey. The accused are charged with stealing liquor, tubs of butter and other articles. The preliminary inquiry into the charge will be commenced on Saturday next. The complaints of pilfering from this point on the Intercolonial are numerous but doubtless, this action on the part of the police will, for the present at least, restrain the offenders.

Several snow ploughs are being built at Harris' foundry for the Intercolonial railway, from patterns furnished by Mr. J. H. Russell.

The Moncton Transcript says: There was a slight mishap to the British mail train which arrived here at 12,05 on Sunday. A loose wheel on the baggage car, dropped off between Sackville and Dorchester. The train proceeded slowly to Dorchester, where the baggage car was left behind. The train was delayed an hour and a half.

HURT IN A MILL.—James McGuire of Petersville, Queens Co., fell through a hatchway in a mill of that place yesterday and was very seriously injured. Besides being badly hurt in the side he received a scalp wound about eight inches in length across his head. He was brought to the city to day and was taken to the general public hospital for treatment.

INTERESTING TO SHIPPERS.—The case of Milburn & Co., vs Price, Walker & Co., in which a large part of the evidence was taken in St. John in the month of June last, before Messrs. John H. Thompson plaintiffs commissioner and Edmund G. Kaye defendants commissioner, was tried in Liverpool, England, before Mr. Justice Wills and resulted in a verdict for the defendant. Messrs. Weldon & McLean appeared here for the plaintiffs and E. McLeod, Q. C., for the defendant. The action was brought for freight and the defence was shortage in cargo.

The Cosmopolitan.

The most beautiful frontispiece ever produced in an American magazine, appears in the January number of the Cosmopolitan. It is a reproduction in colors of Francois Flameng's famous picture "The Cake Seller," and can scarcely be distinguished from the imported photogravure which is exhibited in the dealers' windows, at the price of $7 a copy. The Cosmopolitan has become known of late for its frontispieces and this very French excels its previous efforts.

The Cosmopolitan ran up from a 16000 edition at the close of 1888, to 100,000 copies December 1890. This remarkable increase has kept pace with the change in the character of the names which appeared upon its table of contents. Among those for January are Mrs. Van Rensselaer Cruger, Frank Dempster Sherman, Henry George, William H. Rideing, Hjalmar Hjorth Boyesen, Edward Everett Hale, Gertrude Franklin Atherton, Murat Halstead, John J. a'Becket, Col. Charles W. Larned, F. O. C. Darley (posthumous), Elizabeth Bisland; probably as strong a collection of names as ever appeared in any number of an illustrated magazine in this country.

The number contains the first of two parts of Mrs. Van Rensselaer Cruger's new novel, Mademoiselle Reseda, pronounced by critics who have read it the best of her work. The next article of importance is from the pen of Miss Bisland, describing a visit to the People's Palace in London. A most interesting posthumous paper by F. O. C. Darley, with his own illustrations, is given, a'Becket's clever story, Don Gracias, is illustrated in a novel manner, the well-known actors, Sothern and Miss Harned, having consented to pose for the situations of the novel, the results being reproduced in photogravure.
