Impossible to Extract Bullet From Wakefield's Head, But He is Improving.

THE JUNCTION'S VITAL STATISTICS.

Interesting News Items Gleaned Yesterday From All Over a Wide District.

Toronto Junction, Nov. 30.—The vital statistics for November are unusually heavy for a town of 5000 population. They were: 16 births, 12 marriages and 9 deaths.

Lakeview Lodge, I.O.O.F., to-night elected the following officers: N.G., John Hay; V.G., Zenas Hilyer; R.S., W. N. Colvin; P. S., J. H. Agnew; Treasurer, W. H. Blewett; Lodge Trustee, W. E. Hoover.

Mrs. Mavety and Miss Mavety were at home to a large number of their lady friends yesterday afternoon, and in the evening Miss Mavety entertained a large party of young people.

Mr. Fred Wakefield, who is lying with a bullet in his head, showed marked signs of improvement to-day. He was anxious for his dinner and appeared more talkative. At times he appears quite conscious, but it is difficult to get an answer from him, which is largely accounted for by the fact that he was always somewhat deaf with the left ear, and the bullet has broken the drum of his right. It will be impossible to extract the bullet, but rare cases are known where men have lived with them in their heads.

Judge Morgan concluded the Court of Revision on the voters' list to-night. Mr. St. John appeared for the Conservatives and Mr. A. J. Anderson for the Reformers.

A requisition is now out asking ex-Mayor Fisher to accept nomination for the mayoralty. The petition to the same effect for Mayor Davis has been very largely signed, and will be presented in a few days.

Chief Lawrence arrested a young man named Clarence Wright last night on a charge of theft, and the defendant will come before a magistrate this morning.

Stereopticon views of a most instructive and entertaining character were given by Mr. A. Gay of Deer Park at the Town Hall last night. The views were much enhanced by the lecture accompanying them.

Thornhill.

Mr. Robert Vanhorne died in Toronto, and was interred on Wednesday last at the Headford Cemetery. Deceased was an old resident of this village, and for upwards of 20 years carried the mail from there to Toronto. His wife died about two years ago, and Mr. Charles Vanhorne of Toronto is the only child. A memorial service will be held at St. Clarens' Church, Toronto, to-morrow.

The members of the Willowdale Epworth League were entertained by the members of the league here on Wednesday evening last. A program contributed by members of both leagues was followed by a pleasing refreshment board.

Sermons on behalf of the superannuation fund will be delivered to-morrow at the Methodist Church, by Mr. Plewes of Toronto.

Drunkards Easily Cured

Miss Edith Williams Wants Every Lady Reader of This Paper to Know How She Saved Her Father.

Used an Odorless and Tasteless Remedy in His Food, Quickly Curing Him Without His Knowledge.

Trial Package of the Remedy Mailed Free to Show How Easy It Is to Cure Drunkards.

Nothing could be more dramatic or devoted than the manner in which Miss Edith Williams, Box 36, Waynesville, O., cured her drunken father, after years of misery, wretchedness and almost unbearable suffering.

MISS EDITH WILLIAMS.

"Yes, father is a reformed man," she said, "and our friends think it a miracle that I cured him without his knowledge or consent. I had read how Mrs. Kate Lynch of 329 Ellis-street, San Francisco, Cal., had cured her husband by using a remedy secretly in his coffee and food, and I wrote to Dr. Haines for a trial. When it came, I put some in father's coffee and food, and watched him closely, but he couldn't tell the difference, so I kept it up.

"One morning father got up and said he was hungry. This was a good sign, as he rarely ate much breakfast. He went away, and when he came home at noon perfectly sober I was almost frantic with joy, as I hadn't seen him sober for half a day in over fourteen years. After dinner he sat down in the big easy chair and said, 'Edith, I don't know what has come over me, but I hate the sight and smell of liquor, and am going to stop drinking forever.' This was too much for me, and I told him then what I had done. Well, we both had a good cry, and now we have the happiest home and the kindest father you can imagine. I am so glad you will publish this experience, for it will reach many others, and let them know about that wonderful Golden Specific."

Dr. Haines, the discoverer, will send a sample of this grand remedy, free, to all who will write for it. Enough of the remedy is mailed free to show how it is used in tea, coffee or food, and that it will cure the dreaded habit quietly and permanently. Send your name and address to Dr. J. W. Haines, 3530 Glenn Building, Cincinnati, O., and he will mail a free sample of the remedy to you, securely sealed in a plain wrapper, also full directions how to use it, books and testimonials from hundreds who have been cured, and everything needed to aid you in saving those near and dear to you from a life of degradation and ultimate poverty and disgrace.

Send for free trial to-day. It will brighten the rest of your life.

SAID HE WAS FROM TORONTO.

William McKay, Who Claimed to Be a Physician, Arrested in Detroit for Vagrancy.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 30.—William McKay, about 32 years old, who claims to be a physician from Toronto, was before Judge Sellers of the Police Court to-day, charged with vagrancy. The officer who arrested him said he found McKay at the Brush-street Depot early this morning lying on the floor outside the station. The policeman thought at first the man was drunk, but an empty morphine bottle lay beside him and he was evidently under the influence of the drug. A reporter was questioned him after he had been discharged by the court, he said that he was a physician, and that his home was in Toronto. He said he had been out west for some time, and was on his way home. He admitted that he was a victim of the morphine habit, but said he became addicted to the use of the drug while practising medicine. The man, altho yet young, seems to be a physical wreck. His mouth twitched nervously while he endeavored to talk, and his voice was hardly above a whisper.

EXCURSION STEAMER SEIZED.

The Unique, Fastest Boat on the St. Lawrence, Taken Over on a Mortgage Foreclosure.

Ogdensburg, N.Y., Nov. 30.—The big excursion steamer Unique has been seized under a mortgage foreclosure, and is to be sold. The Unique is the fastest steamer on the St. Lawrence River, and was purchased at Detroit this season by Thomas W. Laidlaw of Ogdensburg from the St. Clair County Savings Bank of Huron, Mich., for $20,000. A cash payment of $3000 was made, and a mortgage given for the steamer for $15,000. The mortgage has been assigned by the bank to Frank Pardee of Sarnia, who attempts to foreclose it, and has secured possession of the steamer at her winter quarters at this port.

The purchase of the steamer, which originally cost $40,000, was made by Mr. Laidlaw with the object of forming a stock company to take up this mortgage, which he is doing. He claims that no payments are due under the mortgage until next October, and will fight for possession of the steamer.

MRS. MAYBRICK AGAIN.

Renewed Efforts Are Being Made to Have the Imprisoned Woman Released.

New York, Nov. 30.—Renewed efforts in the interest of Mrs. Florence Maybrick will be made by Ambassador Choate, in accordance with instructions given by Secretary Hay, says a Herald despatch from Washington. Additional evidence, showing that Mr. Maybrick was addicted to the use of the drug from which he died, has been gathered and forwarded to Ambassador Choate for presentation to the Right Hon. C. T. Ritchie, who has succeeded Sir M. White Ridley as secretary of the Home Department in the recent re-organization of the British Cabinet.

U. S. Embassy Officials Uninformed.

London, Nov. 30.—The officials of the United States Embassy say they have not received any instructions in regard to taking further steps for the release from Woking Prison of Mrs. Florence Maybrick, who is undergoing imprisonment for life after being convicted in 1889 of poisoning her husband with arsenic.

A Curious Story.

A curious story is told regarding the publication of one of the most popular novels of the day. Some months ago a publisher heard that Mr. John Uri Lloyd had written a remarkable story. The publisher begged permission to see it and on reading it immediately recognized it as a novel of great force, individuality and interest. The story was called "Stringtown on the Pike," and "serialized" in a literary paper. So great was its effect and so instant, that before the date of publication 10,000 copies had been sold and five editions were issued within a month. And why is all this? Because the characters are absolutely alive and truthful to the last degree. In perfect portrayal of some of those characters that make up the South and West, the book is unrivalled.
