WHISKARD'S.

London's Cheapest Store.

THE BRIGHTEST AND BEST STORE IN THE CITY.

It's Indeed a Rare Day

When you do not find intensely interesting buying news in our announcements. It must be thus, or we would not hope to be forging ahead and growing greater and more popular with the lady folks, as we are doing from month to month and season to season. It's flattering to us to see how our methods are imitated; but that we still stand topmost and foremost in giving the best values in DRYGOODS, FANCY GOODS AND MILLINERY is an undeniable fact.

Bargain Spots

Are plentiful here. In every department there's something particularly special, calculated to impress the most economical buyers. A few hints from here and there:

RIBBONS! RIBBONS!

Our fame for Ribbons all comes from our determination to sell only the kind that you want. There is only one policy here. We make assortment a feature. We buy in large quantities. We keep a convenient Ribbon Department, a Sate Ribbon Department, Complete, Price-right and Worth-right.

WE HAVE JUST COMPLETED A BIG PURCHASE of a beautiful ALL SILK RIBBON, all widths all the best shades, which we will sell at FULLY TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT LESS than the regular price.

Special purchase of very handsome Silk Table Covers, embossed with gold work, knotted silk fringe. These goods are worth from $1 75 to $2 75 each. Our price $1 25, $1 50, $1 75 each.

Millinery—Our Gain Is Your Gain.

We mean by that, when we buy anything cheap we sell it cheap. We don't hold it at the price that others sell it, but give our patrons the benefit of our good buying. We have been doing some good buying for you in our MILLINERY, and you have had the benefit. We have just received another lot of LADIES' FELT HATS. Call and see what we are selling at 69c each.

YOU WILL FIND HEAVY SAVINGS POSSIBLE HERE AT WHISKARD'S.

Eacrett's Bazar.

Our Alteration Sale will continue this week, as we must have the room for the carpenters at once. Now we intend to make this a genuine sale. It is one thing to say we are going to do these things, and another thing to do them. Now the proof of the puding is in eating it. So it will be with our sale when you come and see what we are offering at these ridiculously low prices. The following are a few of the many bargains which will be had at the Bazar:

In the Dining-Room.

SATURDAY, NOV. 6.

BREAKFAST — White grapes. Granose, with sugar and cream. Liver and bacon. Hominy griddle cakes. Coffee.

LUNCHEON—Cold meat and tomato pie. Potato split biscuit. Baked apples with hot sauce. Cocoa.

DINNER—Mushroom soup. Squirrel pie. Creamed potatoes. Browned parsnips. Turnip salad. Lemon pudding. Coffee.

Cut out these recipes and paste them in a scrap-book.

Hominy Griddle Cakes—One cup of left-over hominy porridge, warmed, two cups of flour, one egg, two cups of milk, one cup of water, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, half a teaspoonful of salt, fry on a greased griddle.

Potato Split Biscuit—Boil two large Irish potatoes; while hot mash well. Stir into the hot potatoes a tablespoonful each of butter and lard, one level teaspoonful of salt, and when cool enough not to cook them, two well-beaten eggs; to this add a teacupful of milk, in which has been dissolved one-half cake of compressed yeast and a tablespoonful of sugar. Stir in a quart of sifted flour; cover, and leave in a warm place to rise. This should be mixed in the morning. One hour before luncheon turn out on a biscuit board, and with just enough flour to handle roll out and cut with a biscuit cutter; place them one on top of another (like a sandwich) in a baking-pan; let them rise, and bake in a quick oven.

Mushroom Soup—Pick and peel three-quarters of a pint of mushrooms; wash them thoroughly, and cut them up into dice. Stew them in half a pint of seasoned veal or chicken broth. Add to this one quart of good seasoned soup stock; thicken with one tablespoonful of flour, rubbed into one tablespoonful of butter; season with one saltspoonful of salt and one-half as much pepper.

Turnip Salad—Peel and slice very thin four tender young turnips; cut up two small, white onions. Line a salad-bowl with lettuce leaves; put in the turnips and onions; pour on them a pint of plain salad dressing. Mix lightly and serve very cold.

Lemon Pudding—Put a quarter of a pound of macaroons in a pint of milk to soak until soft. Beat four eggs with half a cupful of powdered sugar until light, and stir into the milk. Beat the whole until thick and smooth; add the juice and grated rind of two lemons. Pour into a well-buttered pudding mold; cover, and stand in a pot of boiling water to boil for one hour. Serve with lemon sauce.

Lemon Sauce—Put a tablespoonful of cornstarch into a bowl, with a tablespoonful of butter and half a cupful of sugar. Beat well; pour over a large cupful of boiling water, and stir over the fire until thick. Take up; add the juice and grated rind of one lemon.

After the Election.

Dr. Parkhurst's Comments on Tammany's Victory.

Boss Hanna Says He's Satisfied—The Ohio Situation Still Unsettled.

DR. PARKHURST BLAMES THE REPUBLICANS.

Paris, Nov. 5.—Rev. Dr. Chas. H. Parkhurst gave out the following statement in regard to the Democratic victory in New York city:

"If New York has not moral genius enough to keep out of Tammany's clutches after it has been once rescued from them, may the Lord have mercy on New York.

"Republican votes have restored Tammany to power, and upon the men who cast them will devolve the responsibility for the jobbery and vandalism of the next four years; and don't let us forget it.

"New York will not become a respectable city till its clergy are so possessed of the spirit of the old prophets as to be prepared to put governing pressure upon secular events; till the press becomes so distinctly and unwaveringly the exponent of unmarketable truth as to command the confidence of the reading public; till reputable citizens are sufficiently wedded to righteousness to be willing to sacrifice political fetiches to the interests of the general tendency and integrity.

New York, Nov. 5.—Senator Marcus A. Hanna telegraphs as follows to the Evening World of today: "They tell me I am sure of a re-election; that is all I know about it. It is an off year, and compared with elections that usually follow presidential years in Ohio, I think there is nothing to complain of. The weather was against the Republicans this year, and good times have made them careless. I don't think the result has much significance as to the money question. I don't see how the Democrats can reasonably bring silver up as an issue in this state again. I hardly think the money question ought to be considered as affected either way."

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 5.—The political situation in Ohio is still unsettled, but the Republicans believe they are justified in claiming the Legislature by five on joint ballot. Democrats have conceded the state, and are making no definite claims on the Legislature.

Denver, Nov. 5.—The result in Colorado is still in doubt. The News says William H. Gabbert, Democrat-Populist candidate for judge of the supreme court, is probably elected by 8,000 majority. The Republican says that Charles D. Hayt, Republican and Silver Republican, will have 3,000 majority, or more.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 5.—In addition to the affray at Frankfort, shooting occurred at the following places in Kentucky on election day: Crooked Creek, three men killed; Junction City, two men killed; Paducah, one man killed; Paris, two men wounded; Middlesboro, two men wounded. Kentucky keeps up her ancient reputation as "the dark and bloody ground."

NOTES.

In New York the executive committee of the Democracy of Thomas Jefferson have arranged to continue the organization.

New Jersey Republicans have a majority of 21 in the Legislature and Senate on joint ballot.

George Fred Williams, defeated Democratic candidate for governor of Massachusetts, has issued a statement in which he says he sees plenty of cause for thanks in the great strength shown by the friends of silver in the various states. He says the next Congress will be Democratic, and that there will be no change in issues between now and 1900.

HORSE IN A CHINA SHOP.

It Had Blind Staggers, and Ruined Great Quantities of Property.

Troy, N. Y., Nov. 4.—There was a wild scene on River street yesterday afternoon when a horse attacked by blind staggers caused damage to the amount of several thousand dollars. The animal was owned by Morris Herschman, and was hitched to a light delivery wagon. It was attacked about midway between Grand and Fulton streets, and was held by several men while one attempted to bleed it. The horse broke away and dashed up the west side of the street on the sidewalk. Despite the heavy rain which was falling the street was crowded with people. The wild appearance of the horse created a panic. One woman fainted. The horse crashed against a large window of the store of W. B. Henderson and a quantity of expensive jardinieres and china sets and glass were destroyed. It next plunged into the large display window of Fitzpatrick & Draper, smashing scores of fancy pipes. It ran across the street and jumped into the window of the New York Cloak Company, Timothy Carmody, manager of the store, was in the window, preparing to rearrange the cloaks, furs, and suits. He jumped at the approach of the animal, and escaped injury. This window is about 25 feet in length, and 10 feet high and is of heavy plate glass. The animal made frantic efforts to liberate itself, but the deep gashes inflicted on its legs and breast gradually weakened it, and before it could be removed it was dead.

$150,000 GONE UP IN SMOKE.

Marlboro, Mass., Nov. 4.—A serious fire broke out here this morning in the three-story wooden block occupied by the Central Hotel, on Main street, and spread to the Corri block, adjoining, which it completely destroyed, causing a total loss of nearly $150,000. The cause of the fire is unknown.

YELLOW FEVER IN JAMAICA.

New York, Nov. 4.—James L. O'Connor, a New Yorker, who returned from Jamaica on the steamer Ardanroth this morning, said the ravages of the yellow fever epidemic there had been greatly exaggerated. "There have been only 45 deaths in four months and these were foreigners who were unacclimated." He said that the epidemic had almost entirely disappeared.

A UNIQUE MANUSCRIPT.

Rome, Nov. 5.—The pope was recently informed of the discovery in the Vatican archives of a supposed communication from Pontius Pilate to Emperor Tiberius respecting the crucifixion of Jesus. His holiness ordered that a careful study be made of the manuscript. This proved that the document was apparently of a date about 150 A.D., and that it alluded to such a communication, but the original has not yet been found. Other fragmentary manuscripts of the third and fifth centuries, bearing on the same subject, have been discovered.

The inland revenue collections at Windsor, Ont., during October totaled $15,032. The collections for the corresponding month in 1896 were $28,022.

J. Turvill, grocery merchant, of Amherstburg, was buried Thursday. He sustained a bad fall on a defective sidewalk recently, and his death resulted from his injuries.

Seaforth: Mr. Wm. Copp has sold his farm on the Parr line, Stanley, to Mr. Ralph Stephenson, for $5,300. The farm contains 100 acres, and is considered cheap at this figure.

A convention of the Liberals of East Elgin has been called for Thursday, Nov. 11, to select a candidate for the Legislature. The convention will meet in the town hall, Aylmer.

Mr. Hugh Batson, late proprietor of the Valley Hotel, Burford road, near Brantford, met a tragic end, being found dead in the barn near his son's house. Heart disease was the trouble.

Messrs. Robinson & Slack, St. Marys, shipped a consignment of 295 lambs to Buffalo on Saturday, and Mr. A. J. King, of Toronto, shipped from that station two carloads of apples for Glasgow, Scotland.

Mr. D. Davis, of Exeter, has a five-legged pig. The animal has three ordinary legs, while the third is doubled up to the second joint. It walks with little or no lameness, and makes use of the two feet on the one leg.

George Twigg, of Ridgetown, aged 72, was found dead in bed on Wednesday. His death was due to heart failure. Besides a wife, two daughters survive him, Mrs. John Cowal, Ridgetown, and Mrs. James Routledge, Wheatley.

A large number of counterfeit American dollars and dimes are in circulation in Windsor. The dimes are a poor imitation, being made of lead, but the dollars are said to be of good silver and weigh as much as the orthodox dollars.

Mr. Abraham Davidson, of Fullarton, father of Mr. Geo. Davidson, of Mitchell, passed peacefully away on Monday last, at the age of 89 years and 7 months. His remains were interred in the Presbyterian Cemetery, Mitchell, Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Abraham Davidson, a prominent and much respected citizen of Fullarton township, Perth county, passed away Tuesday morning, at the age of 90. Deceased was a native of Ireland, and came to this country 50 years ago. He founded the village of Carlingford, and was its first postmaster.

Monday afternoon an accident, which came near being fatal, happened to Mr. Sims, a farmer residing on the 12th line of Moore. Mr. Bertrand, a Sarnia butcher, was killing a beef on Mr. Sims' farm, and was being assisted by Mr. Sims, when the block and tackle fell and struck Mr. Sims on the head and fractured his skull. Mr. Sims' injuries are of a very serious nature.

St. Joseph's Church, Chatham, was the scene of a fashionable wedding Wednesday morning. Mr. John Madden, of Niagara Falls, was united in marriage to Miss Annie O'Rourke, a former Chathamite, and daughter of Mr. John O'Rourke, of Niagara Falls. The groom was supported by Mr. Jas. H. O'Rourke, of Chatham, and Miss Ada Gilhuly, of Buxton, acted as bridesmaid. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Francis, O.S.F.

The non-jury sittings of the Essex assize court came to an abrupt termination by the settlement out of court of the will case of Lambie vs. Lambie. The plaintiff, Miss Grace Lambie, who lives at St. Thomas, sought to set aside the will of her father, the late James Lambie, of Windsor, on the ground of undue influence. He left the whole of his property, valued at $23,000, to his second wife, and his daughter only got $75 a year, but before his death he asked Mrs. Lambie to provide for her stepdaughter by leaving her $2,000 in cash and $2,000 in real estate. Defendant agreed to do this, and at her death will leave Miss Lambie the free library property, which is worth $2,000, and $2,000 in cash, less $20, the costs of the suit.

The special committee appointed by the Berlin Council to inquire into certain alleged irregularities in the accounts of Deputy Reeve H. L. Janzen, in his capacity of chairman of the sewer committeee, reported to the council Monday night. The evidence of several town-workers went to show that Mr. Janzen had been guilty of using the services of men paid by the town in certain private undertakings of his own. Mr. Janzen recently refunded $112 to the town. The committee found Mr. Janzen guilty, and recommended that he be censured and dismissed from the office he holds. The motion of censure had been read, and Mayor Breithaupt was just on the point of asking for a vote, when Mr. Janzen handed him his resignation. Mr. Janzen was once mayor of Berlin.

In Harding vs. Little, at Osgoode Hall—Aylesworth, Q.C., for defendant, appealed from judgment of county court of Essex in favor of plaintiff in an action for the price of goods sold and delivered. The action was brought against the grand secretary of a fraternal organization known as the P. P. A. The plaintiff was himself a member of the association. The goods supplied by him were called "paraphernalia" and were used in the ceremonial of the subordinate lodges of the association, being supplied to the defendant as secretary and by him supplied to the subordinate bodies. The contract was made by the plaintiff with the grand council before defendant was secretary. Defendant contended that there was no liability on him for the goods supplied and also that the court below had no jurisdiction, the amount claimed being $600. Judgment reserved.
