PARTY CUPS FOR LEAGUE TO-DAY AT THE BEACH

Amateur Baseball Program Includes Many Important Games.

Weather permitting, to-day will be the biggest day in history for the Beaches Senior League, when the Liber-Conservative picnic will be held at Kew Gardens. R. L. Borden, Conservative leader of the Dominion, will pitch the first ball, and all four clubs will have the best teams possible in uniform, and there should be two great contests. East enders are specially invited to attend the games in the Don Valley League, which plays in Riverdale Park (west side) this afternoon, commencing at 2.15. Special attention is called to the fact that these games are played on public grounds and are absolutely free. At 2.15 All Saints play the Carltons, and its a cinch that this game will be a daisy, as All Saints have yet to lose, while the Carltons were presented with the leather medal but once. Managers Gore and Tremble will use their best performers in an endeavor to be on top, which are: Allward or Hunt and Bone; Graham or Coulter and O'Brien. At 4 o'clock the Lourdes A. C. will tackle the Gerrards, and as a loss for either team will mean a drop in the standing, a have-to-fight game will likely result. Travers and Travis in Semi-Finals.

RYE, N.Y., June 24.—Favorites survived the first and second round matches in the invitation golf tournament on the links of the Apawamis Club here to-day. Walter J. Travis, with a fine 75 in the morning, won without trouble from R. D. Lapham of the home club, but later on H. T. Hayne of Yale carried the old man to the home green. On the other side, Jerome D. Travers first defeated John M. Ward of Garden City, 4 to 3, and then downed C. H. Brown of Saegkill, 3 up and 2 to play. Others to survive the day were: W. R. Thurston of the home club, and F. R. Upton, jr., of Baltusrol. In the semi-final to-morrow Travers will meet Thurston, and Travis will play Upton.

Boat Races To-day.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N.Y., June 24.—With their months of hard work at the oars in preparation for the fifteenth intercollegiate regatta on the Poughkeepsie course practically over, the crews from Cornell, Columbia, Syracuse, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin were given only light practice to-day and are ready and fit for to-morrow's races.

There seems to be no decided disposition to dispute the claims of Cornell's supremacy in the freshmen and four-oared events, but great things are expected of Jimmy Rice's Columbias in the big race of the day. It is believed the New Yorkers have the best chance of victory in many years.

LACROSSE GOSSIP NOTES OF PLAYERS

Cornwall Plays Tecumsehs This Afternoon at Island Stadium.

The lacrosse game this afternoon at the island, between Cornwall and Tecumsehs, promises to be a pretty even battle, for both teams look evenly matched. Cornwall have suffered two defeats this season, one being at home, when they went down before the champion Montreal team by the close score of 5 to 3, while the other was at Montreal against the fast-playing National team. Alf Smith has been coaching the Factory Town boys for the past two weeks, and no doubt his coaching will improve the team. Anyway, to-day will see whether Cornwall have learned anything new from the famous Alf. Tecumsehs are in the best of shape, with the exception of Manager Querrie, who will be out of the game with his injured leg.

Before the game a Junior C.L.A. match will be played between Brampton and Tecumsehs. This should be a fast game for both teams are playing fast lacrosse. The first game will start at 1.30.

The plan for both games will remain on sale till 12 o'clock at Shea's, while the teams for the N.L.U. game will be as follows:

O'K O'K

Don't Judge the Lager You Drink by the Price You Pay For It.

The price has nothing to do with the quality. Imported lagers cost more than O'Keefe's "Pilsener" because of the high duty—NOT because they are better, or even as good.

O'KEEFE'S "Pilsener" Lager

The Light Beer in The Light Bottle

is brewed only of finest barley malt, hops and water—no rice, glucose or other ingredients—which cannot be said of any American lager.

O'Keefe's "Pilsener" is a pure, old, wholesome, healthful lager—brewed right here at home according to the Government standard—and is superior to any imported lager, no matter what the price.
