NEWS OF THE WEEK.

LOCAL NEWS.

SUSSEX SKATING RINK was opened on Christmas Eve.

PROF. ANDERSON, of Montreal, is now on a visit to his friends in this city.

PHILIP COX, A. B., will lecture in St. Dunstan's Hall, Fredericton, next week.

THE FREDERICTON SKATING RINK was opened for the season on Wednesday night.

AN EXHIBITION of Grain, Produce of the Farm, etc., will be held at Newcastle, the third Thursday in January.

LIBEL SUIT.—The proprietor of the Advance has sued the publisher of the Union Advocate for libel.

JOHN BOYD ESQ. has just arrived from a pleasant trip he was making to some of the leading American cities.

PRESENTATION.—Messrs. Vaughan and Donovan were each presented with a valuable meerschaum pipe by their employees, Monday evening.

THAT HORSE, which ran away from its driver on the Manawagonish road, last week, was found, on Thursday, hitched to a couple of trees near Howe's Lake.

ROBBERY.—Adam McCullough, captain of a schoner lying in the harbor, has been robbed of a large sum of money in a Sheffield street dance hall. No clue to the thief.

CHEAP BOOTS AND SHOES.—Mrs. J. Donovan, who will continue the business carried on by her late husband, advertises in the HERALD great bargains in Boots and Shoes.

A SKATING MATCH, on the Kennebecasis, between Long Reach boys and those residing near the Kennebecasis, came off on Christmas day. The first and second prizes were carried off by the former.

About ten o'clock, Monday evening, a flask of powder exploded at the residence of Mr. James Milligan, cor. of Pitt street and King street east, injuring three of his sons.

MR. A. D. FREEZE, of Penobsquis, was killed on Tuesday evening. He was crossing the track in a wagon filled with milk cans, when the train came along, upset the wagon and threw Mr. Freeze out, killing him instantly.

A HORSE AND SLEIGH belonging to Mr. Miller on the Kennebecasis, went through the ice near Indian Island, Tuesday evening. The horse was drowned. The occupants of the sleigh narrowly escaped a similar fate.

A PANIC occurred in the Young Men's Christian Association Building, Charlotte street, Wednesday, evening caused by a young man falling through a trap in the floor. A pair of pants nearly ruined and some plaster torn off a ceiling were the only damages.

DROWNED.—James Rogers, Straight shore, fell off Rankine's Wharf early Sunday morning and was drowned. Verdict of Coroner's jury—accidental drowning.

A man named John Hennessy was drowned in Musquash river on Wednesday.

FIRES.—A fire Saturday night on the King Square partially destroyed a shanty occupied by a Mr. Moulson as a cement store, and by Messrs. McClure & Smith as a toy shop.

A fire at St. Stephen, Monday night destroyed a building owned by Mr. T. J. Smith.

THE CARLETON SERENADE BAND are making rapid improvement in their method of playing, since Prof. Hayes has taken charge of them. It is really a pleasure to listen to them on practice nights—especially those last moonlight ones. If they could find it convenient to appear oftener in public, we are sure the people would be well pleased.

A VERY creditable entertainment was given at the Convent of the Sisters of Charity, Memramcook, before Christmas. From the Moniteur Acadian we learn that the playing of Miss E. Morgan was much admired, as was also the acting, declamation, &c., of Misses Dickie, Murray, E. Morgan, Chapman, Sinclair, Cormier, and others. At the close of the exhibition Very Rev. Father Lefebre congratulated the Sisters and their pupils on the success they had so far achieved. We are glad to hear that the Convent of Memramcook rivals the college in its endeavour to impart education to the rising generation. The number of boarders at this institution is rapidly increasing.

ACCIDENTS.—Policeman Patchell fell into a Charlotte street excavation, Monday night and sustained severe injuries.

Mr. Hugh Campbell, while skating at Lily Lake, on Thursday afternoon, fell on the ice and received several cuts.

A man named Hopkins had his leg broken during a scuffle at Petitcodiac on Christmas Eve.

Mr. S. Williams, Sr. Main street, Portland, had one of his eyes blinded on Saturday by being struck with a cork he was drawing from a bottle.

Mr. McKay fell down stairs in his house on Simonds Street, Portland, Monday night and fractured his collar bone.

On Monday night, a stranger while walking along Charlotte street, fell and broke his leg. He was conveyed to the Hospital.

A WHOLE FAMILY NARROWLY ESCAPES DEATH BY SUFFOCATION.—On Thursday morning, about 1 o'clock, the family of Mr. Thos. McCullough, Leinster street, narrowly escaped suffocation. Mr. Frank McCullough was awakened from his slumbers by his sister, who informed him that Eliza—another sister—was dead. No sooner was the information given than she fell to the floor. Making his appearance quickly, he soon discovered that the house was being rapidly filled with gas. Running to his sister to raise her up, she said "Oh! never mind me. Go and help Eliza." The other members of the family were now astir, and all rushing to the young lady's apartment, beheld her extended apparently lifeless. The windows were raised, and prompt remedies being applied, both ladies were soon pronounced out of danger. A leak in the gas pipe on the street—making its way through the sewer into the house—was the cause of the trouble. The escape of the whole family is regarded as a providential one.

SOME VANDALS amused themselves one night this week by breaking windows in several houses in Brook's Ward, Carleton. It is a pity that Policeman Ross could not have got on their track.

WE are pleased to learn that the Rev. T. F. Walsh of Milltown, St. Stephen, is much improved in health since he left St. John. This will be pleasing intelligence to his many friends in the City and Carleton.

RECOVERING.—A young lad, named Moore, living near Winter street, Portland, who was accidently shot by a companion while playing "Injun" at the Lily Lake, a short time since, is now recovering.

ST. MALACHI'S T. A. R. SOCIETY will hold their annual meeting in the vestry of the Cathedral, on to-morrow evening. As the election of officers for the ensuing year will take place, a full attendance of members is requested. The new constitutions, new register tickets and lecture tickets, will also be destributed at this meeting.

THE MIDNIGHT MASS, in the church of the Assumption, Carleton, on Christmas Eve, was attended by the largest congregation ever yet seen in the church. There were about two hundred Protestants present. The Rev. Father Connolly, although suffering a good deal from hoarseness, preached a very able sermon, on the lessons to be learned from the birth of our Saviour, viz., humility and obedience. The altar was tastefully decorated with evergreens, making the appearance of the church beautiful. The singing by the choir, under the direction of the organist—Mrs. John Quinlan—was very fine.

PLEASANT GATHERING.—The children attending the St. Peter's Church Sunday schools were entertained with a Christmas feast, given by the lady teachers and the members of the choir, on Thursday afternoon. The tables, which were spread in the St. Aloysius reading-room, were laden with almost everything that could gratify the tastes of the little folks. Ample justice was, of course, done to what was set before them, and their smiling faces attested the pleasure they experienced by the thoughtfulness of the young ladies. One of the features of the gathering was a Christmas tree, bearing toys, &c. Rev. Father Murray and Mother Francis were present, and seemed much pleased at the manner in which the children were enjoying themselves. Music and singing lent an additional charm to the occasion; Miss Agnes McLaughlin presiding at the organ. The ladies who attended to the wants of the children were Miss E. Hurley, Miss. E. Morgan, Miss M. A. Morgan, Miss S. McGowan, Miss M. A. Hayes, Miss E. McCarthy, Miss Collins, and the Misses Sullivan. In the evening the Children of Mary Society entertained some of their friends in the same room. Mr. M. McDade, of the News, rendered the ladies valuable aid in the capacity of "head waiter."

CLOTH THIEF.—Last evening about 7 o'clock, a colored man entered Daniel Doherty's store, Main street, Portland, with a large web of cloth under each arm and wanted to dispose of them. Mr. Doherty, believing the goods to be stolen, refused to purchase, and immediately notifying officer Doucett, the thief was intercepted on his way up the street and arrested. On his way to the station he dropped the booty and dodged into Acadia street, whither he was followed by the officer, who could not track him on account of the darkness. Officers Miles and Tower conveyed the goods to the Police station, where they await an owner.

Pride is almost crazed.

On Sunday last a terrible drowning accident occurred at Tuskethakes, fifteen miles from Yarmouth. No Increase in Price.

IT is nearly six years since the "MAIL" was established, and during that time it has gradually acquired circulation and influence, which renders it second to no other newspaper in the Dominion. The Publisher takes great pleasure in announcing that he purposes to still further increase this circulation by greatly improving the WEEKLY MAIL during the ensuing year, whereby he hopes to make it

The Great Family Paper of Canada.

Special Editors have been engaged for the various Departments, and no expense will be spared to make the whole paper

INTERESTING AND RELIABLE.

The MAIL will remain true to the principles it has always advocated, and it is intended to make it, by the aid of such additional strength as ample capital can afford, even a more potent champion of the Conservative cause.

ALL THE DEPARTMENTS OF NEWS, POLITICAL INTELLIGENCE AND EDITORIAL, will be continued with increased vigour.

During 1876 the following Departments will receive special attention:

Our Market Reports will be a specialty; we will use every means to secure their complete reliability.

Our Literary Department will be a leading feature. Stories both short and continued, from the pens of the best authors, and in many cases illustrated.

Our Ladies Department, under charge of Ladies of experience, will, we have no doubt, prove an interesting and valuable feature. Fashions, Household, Culinary Matters, the care of Children, &c., will be included in this department.

Health in the Household, under charge of an able medical man, will add to the value of the WEEKLY MAIL.

During the year we will treat our readers to a tour through a portion of Canada, with descriptions of the Homes, Farms, Factories, Natural Scenery, &c. Arrangements are being made for illustrating the WEEKLY MAIL during the coming year. Price as before, $1.50 Per annum.
